Chapter 58.

CHAP. 58.

An act to repeal chapter one hundred and sixty of the Public Laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-seven, in relation to a bounty on bears, and to provide for a bounty on bears.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. Chapter one hundred and sixty of the public laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-seven, in relation to a bounty on bears, is hereby repealed, and chapter one hundred and thirty-six of the public laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-six, together with sections five, six, seven and eight of chapter thirty of the revised statutes, are hereby revived and re-enacted.

Ch. 160, public laws 1877, repealed, and ch. 136, public laws 1876, with sects. 5, 6, 7 and 8, ch. 30, R. S., revived.

SECT. 2. No bounty in any case shall be paid unless the plantation, town or city treasurer in the county where such animal was actually killed, shall be satisfied that the same was killed in such plantation, town or city in this state, between the first day of June and the first day of November in each year, nor unless said treasurer shall so certify to the governor and council.

Bounty to be paid on certificate of town or county treasurer.

Approved March 12, 1881.

Chapter 59.

An act to amend section four of chapter eighty-two of the Revised Statutes, relating to attachment of the estates of absent defendants.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Section four of chapter eighty-two of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto the following words : 'and any attachment made on the original writ, shall continue one year and thirty days after said judgment is so rendered when no bond is given, and when a bond is given said attachment shall continue thirty days after said bond is filed with the clerk of said court,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows :

Sec. 4, ch. 82, R. S., amended.

SECT. 4. When judgment is rendered on default of an absent defendant in a personal action as provided in the preceding section, execution cannot be issued thereon within one year thereafter, unless the plaintiff first gives bond to the Execution stayed one year, unless bond is given to repay amount, if judgment is reversed on review.
