Chapter 71.

An act relating to the Maine Central Institute.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Name of institute may be changed.

SECT. 1. The trustees of the Maine Central Institute shall have the power at any time after the passage of this act, to strike out the words "the Maine Central," before the word "Institute," and insert the surname of any person who may give the institute at least the sum of ten thousand dollars.

Location may be changed.

SECT. 2. In case the buildings and grounds of the said institute shall not be free from debt in two years from the passage of this act, the said trustees shall have the power to locate the said institute in some town or city in this state whose inhabitants may furnish it with suitable buildings and grounds free from any expense to the said institute; provided, that said institute shall not be removed to any town where a normal school is located.

SECT. 3. The "Resolve in favor of the Maine Central Institute," approved March twelve, eighteen hundred and seventy, and amended by the "Resolve" approved March one, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, is hereby further amended, by striking out the words "school property to the amount of forty thousand dollars," and inserting the words 'suitable buildings and grounds,' so that said resolve, as amended, shall read as follows:

Resolve of 1870, as amended by resolve of 1879, amended.

Resolved, That the sum of ten thousand dollars be, and hereby is appropriated out of the state treasury, for the use of the trustees of the Maine Central Institute, as endowment fund to said institution, the money to be retained in the treasury, and the interest to be paid semi-annually, till the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five; and if at that time the said trustees shall own, unincumbered, suitable buildings and grounds, equal in value to its buildings and grounds at Pittsfield, in case of removal, and the said institution shall be in successful operation, the said sum of ten thousand dollars shall be paid to the trustees of said institution for the use and benefit thereof; and they shall safely invest the same, the interest only to be expended annually; provided, that the trustees of said institution, in consideration of the aid thus rendered by the state, shall, within one year after the passage of this resolve, establish, and thereafter maintain a normal department for the preparation of teachers.'

Appropriation for endowment fund.

—conditions.

SECT. 4. This act shall be in force when approved by the Governor, and accepted by the said trustees.

Act to be in force when accepted by trustees.

Approved February 28, 1881.
