Chapter 347.

An Act to amend section nineteen of chapter two of Revised Statutes, relating to the expenditure of money in excess of the amount appropriated in certain cases.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Sec. 19, ch. 2, R. S., amended.

Section nineteen of chapter two of revised statutes be amended by striking out all in said section following the word "re-imbusement" and inserting instead thereof, the words 'any such agent or officer who shall violate the provisions of this section shall upon conviction be fined a sum equal to such excess of appropriation by him expended, and imprisoned in the discretion of the court. All prosecutions under this section shall be by indictment and the fine inure to the state,' so that said section shall read as follows :

No agent or officer of state shall exceed appropriations.

'SECT. 19. No agent or officer of the state, or of any department thereof, whose duty it is to expend money under an appropriation by the legislature, and who exceeds in his expenditure said appropriation, shall have any claim for re-imbusement. Any such agent or officer who shall violate the provisions of this section shall upon conviction be fined a sum equal to such excess of appropriation by him expended, and imprisoned in the discretion of the court. All prosecutions under this section shall be by indictment and the fine inure to the state.'

—penalty.

—prosecutions and fines.

Approved March 6, 1885.
