PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.

1891.

Chapter 71.

An Act to amend section forty of chapter forty of the Revised Statutes, relating to the appointment of Wardens.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Sec. 40, ch. 40,
R. S., amended.

Section forty of chapter forty of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting in the first line of said section after the word "council," the following words: 'upon the written request of at least a majority of the three commissioners appointed under section thirty-three of this chapter,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows :

Appointment of wardens, duties and powers.

‘SECT. 40. The governor, with advice and consent of council, upon the written request of at least a majority of the three commissioners appointed under section thirty-three of this chapter, may appoint wardens, who shall enforce all laws relating to game and the fisheries, arrest all violators thereof, and prosecute all offenses against the same; they shall have the same power to serve criminal processes against such offenders, and shall be allowed the same fees as sheriffs for like services; they shall have the same right as sheriffs and their deputies to require aid in executing the duties of their office, and whoever refuses or neglects to render such aid when required, forfeits ten dollars, to be recovered upon complaint. Fish wardens shall hold office for three years unless sooner removed.’

Approved March 17, 1891.

Chapter 72.

An Act to fix the salaries of the warden and clerk of the State Prison.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Salary of warden of State prison, fixed.

SECT. 1. From and after the first day of December eighteen hundred and ninety, the salary of the warden of the state prison shall be eighteen hundred dollars per year, with the use, without charge, of such part of the keepers' house and buildings of the state, appurtenant to the prison and yard, as the governor and council may direct, and fuel for his own use, which shall be in full for all services, including
