Chapter 45.

An Act authorizing Charles E. Gibbs to construct a road and receive tolls therefrom, in the counties of Oxford and Cumberland.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. Charles E. Gibbs, with his associates, successors and assigns, is hereby authorized and empowered to fix, establish, charge, receive and collect a reasonable tariff of tolls for and upon all persons traveling or passing over the road, for the use thereof, now under contemplated construction by him from the base to the summit of Mount Pleasant in the counties of Oxford and Cumberland, said tariff to exist and attach from the first day of May to the first day of November of each year.

Chas. E. Gibbs, authorized to construct road and collect tolls.

SECT. 2. Whoever maliciously, with intent to avoid payment of such tariff, passes or attempts to pass over such road shall be liable to the proprietors of such road in the manner provided for toll bridges.

Penalty, for avoiding payment.

SECT. 3. Application to the county commissioners of said county of Cumberland, upon reasonable notice, may be made by any person or parties to reduce such fixed tariff, and costs shall follow to the prevailing party the same as in cases of location of ways by such commissioners.

Tolls, may be reduced.

Approved February 11, 1891.

Chapter 46.

An Act to amend chapter two hundred and twenty-five of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, in relation to the organization of the Sagadahoc Real Estate Association.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. Said chapter is amended by striking out the words "for said purposes" in the first line of section two of said act, also the word "one" before "hundred" in the second line of said section and insert the word 'ten' in place thereof, so that as amended, said section shall read as follows :

Ch. 225, Private Laws of 1887, amended.

'SECT. 2. Said corporation may hold real and personal estate not exceeding in amount ten hundred thousand dollars.'

May hold real estate.
