Chapter 291.

An Act for the protection of fish in B pond, in Upton, in Oxford county.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

It shall be unlawful to take any fish from the waters of B pond in the town of Upton and county of Oxford at any time for six years except as herein provided. Any person may take trout in said waters with a rod, single line, and artificial flies or single baited hook, between the twentieth day of May and the twentieth day of July of each year and not otherwise. The fish commissioners of the state of Maine may take fish from said pond to be used for breeding purposes, in the waters of this state at such times as they shall decide to be suitable and convenient therefor. Any person violating the provisions of this act shall be punished upon conviction thereof, before any trial justice or other court in said Oxford county by a fine not exceeding thirty dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding thirty days for each offense.
