PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.

1897.

CHAP. 191

the commissioner's accounts shall have been audited and allowed by the governor and council, he shall pay any and all balance of such ten per cent so received by him, to the state treasurer, on or before the first day of January, annually;' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

Liquor commissioner prohibited from borrowing money.

'Sect. 4. The commissioner is prohibited from borrowing money of any party or parties of whom he may purchase liquors. He shall not sell to municipal officers of this state any intoxicating liquors, except such as have been inspected or tested and found to be pure, in the manner aforesaid, under a penalty of not less than one hundred or more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered by indictment. He shall take of such officers for such pure, unadulterated liquors, and for all malt liquors sold to them, ten per cent above the cost thereof at the place where they were by him purchased, and after the commissioner's accounts shall have been audited and allowed by the governor and council, he shall pay any and all balance of such ten per cent so received by him, to the state treasurer, on or before the first day of January, annually.'

Approved February 16, 1897.

Chapter 191.

An Act in relation to Suits by organized unincorporated Societies and Associations.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Organized, unincorporated societies may maintain actions at law.

Any organized unincorporated society or association may sue in the name of its trustees for the time being, and may maintain an action at law, though the defendant or defendants or some of them are members of the same society or association.

Approved February 16, 1897.
