PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1899.

CHAP. 51 the court may order such unclaimed funds to be paid into the state treasury, together with a statement giving the names of such depositors and the amount due each, the same to be held subject for twenty years thereafter to be paid to the person or persons having established a lawful right thereto when made to appear upon proper proceedings instituted in the court ordering such disposition of such unclaimed funds.'

Court may restrain payment, to preserve assets or to protect depositors.

—order may be revoked or modified.

Section 6. Whenever it may become necessary to preserve the assets or protect depositors in a savings bank, the supreme judicial court in equity, on application of the bank examiner or trustees of such bank, or both, may, after due notice, make an order restraining the bank from paying out its funds or any portion thereof, or from declaring or paying any dividends or deposits for such time as the court shall deem advisable. The court may at any time revoke or modify the original order and authorize the bank to pay dividends upon its deposits, or pay any portion of its deposits to such as may desire to withdraw the same, or make any other or further order that may be necessary to protect the depositors in such institution. Nothing in this section shall be construed to take away the rights of the parties in interest to proceed under the provisions of sections one hundred and twenty-one and one hundred and twenty-five of this chapter.

Approved March 9, 1899.

Chapter 51.

An Act to fix the salaries of the Judge and Register of Probate for the county of Waldo.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Salary of judge of probate, Waldo county, fixed.

Section 2. From and after the first day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, the salary of the judge of probate for the county of Waldo shall be five hundred dollars per year, instead of the sum now fixed by law.

Salary of register, fixed.

Section 2. From and after the first day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, the salary of the register of probate for the county of Waldo shall be six hundred dollars per year, instead of the sum now fixed by law.

Section 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 9, 1899.
