PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1899.

Chapter 115.

An Act relating to the sale of Real Estate of corporations on execution.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Real estate, or any interest therein, of any corporation not created for supplying cities or towns with water, nor for educational, religious, street lighting, telegraph, telephone, or any public purposes, may be seized and sold on execution at public auction, either as real estate of banks, or as rights of redeeming real estate mortgaged, are taken on execution and sold, without the execution creditor first exhausting his remedy against the personal property of such corporation, and subject to the same right of redemption as is provided in either case. Seizure and sale by either of the methods provided in this act, pass to the purchaser all the right, title and interest that the execution debtor has in such real estate at the time of such seizure, or had at the time of the attachment thereof on the original writ, subject to the debtor's right of redemption. This section does not repeal any other modes of levy of execution, or seizure and sale of corporation real estate on execution.

Real estate of certain corporations, may be taken on execution and sold, without first exhausting remedy against personal property.

Approved March 17, 1899.
