PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.
1901.

Chapter 225.

An Act to amend Chapter ninety-six of the Public Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, relating to Collateral Inheritance Tax.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 1,
chapter 96,
public laws
1895, amended.

Section one of chapter ninety-six of the public laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five is hereby amended by striking out in line twelve the words "two and one half" and inserting in place thereof the word 'four,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

All property which shall pass by will or otherwise to any person, for enjoyment after death of grantor or other than of legal heirs, etc., of grantor, shall be subject to a tax for use of the state.

'Section 1. All property within the jurisdiction of this state, and any interest therein, whether belonging to inhabitants of this state or not, and whether tangible or intangible, which shall pass by will or by the intestate laws of this state, or by deed, grant, sale or gift made or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after the death of the grantor, to any person in trust or otherwise, other than to or for the use of the father, mother, husband, wife, lineal descendant, adopted child, the lineal descendant of any adopted child, the wife or widow of a son or the husband of the daughter of a descendant, or any educational, charitable or benevolent institution in this state, shall be liable to a tax of four per cent of its value, above the sum of five hundred dollars, for the use of the state, and all administrators, executors and trustees, and any such grantee under a conveyance made during the grantor's life shall be liable for all such taxes, with lawful interest as hereinafter provided, until the same shall have been paid as hereinafter directed.'

Section 2. 'This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 20, 1901.

Chapter 226.

An Act in relation to the salaries of the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Salaries of justices of supreme judicial court increased.

From and after the first day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one, the annual salary of each of the justices of the supreme judicial court shall be four thousand dollars, payable from the treasury of the state, in quarterly payments, on the first days of January, April, July and October.

Approved March 20, 1901.
