PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1903.

Chapter 192.

An Act to make valid the Elections of Treasurers and Collectors of Taxes, held during the month of March in the year one thousand nine hundred and three.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 1. All elections of treasurers and collectors of taxes in the several cities, towns and plantations held during the month of March in the year one thousand nine hundred and three are hereby confirmed and made valid, and the persons so elected may hold and exercise the duties of their respective offices during the terms for which they were chosen, notwithstanding the provisions of the act approved March four, nineteen hundred and three, entitled "An Act to amend section twelve of chapter three of the revised statutes as amended by chapter three hundred thirty-five of the public laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-five and to repeal conflicting statutes, relating to the election of collectors of taxes."

Elections of treasurers and collectors of taxes, held during March 1903, made valid.

Section 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 28, 1903.

Chapter 193.

An Act relating to the powers and duties of Administrators, de bonis non.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

An administrator de bonis non shall have the power, and it shall be his duty, to collect and receive from his predecessor or his heirs, executors or administrators, and from all other sources, all the property and assets of the estate of the deceased, including the proceeds from the sale of real estate, not already distributed, and shall account for and distribute the same as though he were the original administrator or executor; and all sums recovered on any probate bond shall be a part of the estate, but so much thereof as is recovered on any real estate bond shall be distributed as is provided for the distribution of the proceeds of the sale of real estate.

Administrator de bonis non shall collect property of the deceased, from predecessor.

Approved March 28, 1903.
