OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1905.

Chapter 51.

An Act pertaining to the duties of the Cattle Commissioners.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

It shall be the duty of the cattle commissioners to examine the sanitary conditions of all stables visited and suggest such changes to the proprietors as they deem advisable, and incorporate in their annual report such general recommendation as the subject of stable sanitation in their judgment may be required.

Duty of cattle commissioners.

Approved March 11, 1905.

Chapter 52.

An Act to amend Section twenty-six of Chapter three of the Revised Statutes, in relation to printing of the different departments.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section twenty-six of chapter three of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding after the word "necessary" in the fourth line and before the word "except" in the fifth line of said section the following words 'such order for printing to be subject to the approval of the governor and council,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows:

Section 26,
chapter 3,
R. S., amended.

'Section 26. Each department, bureau and institution may have printed at the expense of the state, bulletins and circular letters of inquiry and information, at such times and in such numbers as the officer in charge thereof may consider necessary, such order for printing to be subject to the approval of the governor and council.

Orders for printing reports, etc., to have approval of governor and council.

Except as hereinbefore provided, no reports, catalogues or compilations shall be printed, stitched or bound by any department, bureau, commission or institution of the state, at the expense of the state, unless by virtue of special legislative provision therefor.'

Approved March 15, 1905.
