Note.—This act was passed by the Legislature of 1913 and came to the Legislature of 1915 unsigned by Governor Haines. Not being returned within three days after the opening of the session of 1915, it became law, subject, however, to the general referendum.

Chapter 2.

An Act Construing Chapter Ninety-three of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred Thirteen, Relative to the Retirement of Veterans of the Civil War in the Service of the State.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Construction of Ch. 93,
P. L., 1913, defined.

Chapter ninety-three of the Public Laws of nineteen hundred thirteen shall be so construed as to include a veteran of the Civil war who left the service of the State prior to the passage of said act who is otherwise entitled to its benefits by reason of length of service and inability for active duty; and his retirement pay, as specified in said act, shall be based on the compensation he was receiving from the State at the time his work for the State ceased; but no retirement pay shall be allowed for any time prior to the date that said act took effect.

Approved February 18, 1915.

Chapter 3.

An Act to Amend Section Five of Chapter Sixty-eight of the Revised Statutes, Relative to Claims against Insolvent Estates.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Ch. 68,
Sec. 5, R. S., relating to claims in probate court, amended.

Section five of chapter sixty-eight of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto the words, 'Any claim filed in the probate court supported by affidavit as provided in section fourteen of chapter eighty-nine, shall be considered as if presented to said commissioners, provided the same is so filed before the expiration of the six months period named in the preceding section.'

Approved February 25, 1915.
