Chapter 68.

An Act to Amend Section One of Chapter Thirty-five of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred Eleven, Relative to the Better Protection of Forests Along Railroads from Fire.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Ch. 35, Sec.
1, P. L., 1911,
amended.

Section one of chapter thirty-five of the Public Laws of nineteen hundred and eleven is hereby amended by striking out the words "wild lands of the State, over which said commissioner has jurisdiction," in the third and fourth lines thereof, and inserting therefor the words 'forest lands of the State,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

Commissioner shall maintain efficient fire patrol.

'Section 1. It shall be the duty of the Forest Commissioner whenever, in his judgment, the woodlands along the railroads traversing the forest lands of the State, are in a dry and dangerous condition, to maintain a competent and efficient fire patrol along the right of way or lands of said railroads.'

Approved March 11, 1915.

Chapter 69.

An Act to Amend Section Sixteen of Chapter One Hundred Twenty-eight of the Revised Statutes, Relating to Injuries to Fruit Gardens.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Ch. 128, Sec.
16, R. S.,
amended.

Section sixteen of chapter one hundred twenty-eight of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended by striking out the last sentence of said section, to wit; the words "Fines imposed by this section shall be paid over to the overseers of the poor, for the poor of the town where such conviction is had," so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

Sentence
