CHAP. 85 probate court in the county of original jurisdiction or to the probate court which otherwise would have had jurisdiction,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

When judge or register of probate is an interested party.

'Section 15. When a judge or register of probate is interested in his own right, trust, or in any other manner, or is within the degree of kindred, by which in law, he may, by possibility, be heir to any part of the estate of the person deceased, to an amount in either case not less than one hundred dollars, or is named as executor, trustee, or guardian of minor children, in the will of any deceased resident of the county, such estate shall be settled in the probate court of any adjoining county, which shall have as full jurisdiction thereof, as if the deceased had died therein. If his interest arises after jurisdiction of such estate has been regularly assumed, or existed at the time of his appointment to office, and in all cases where an executor, administrator, guardian or trustee, whose trust is not fully executed, becomes judge or register of probate for the county in which his letters were granted, further proceeding therein shall be transferred to the probate court in any adjoining county, and there remain till completed, as if such court had had original jurisdiction thereof, unless said disability is removed before that time. Whenever in any case within the provisions of this section, the disability of the judge or register is removed before the proceedings have been fully completed, the proceedings shall then be transferred to the probate court in the county of original jurisdiction or to the probate court which otherwise would have had jurisdiction; and in all such cases the register in such adjoining county shall transmit copies of all records relating to such estate, to the probate office of the county where such estate belongs, to be there recorded.'

Settlement may be made in adjoining county.

When interest arises after jurisdiction.

Further proceedings may be transferred.

When disability is removed.

May transfer proceeding back to original court.

—transmission of records.

Approved March 15, 1915.

Chapter 85.

An Act Additional to Chapter Thirty-two of the Revised Statutes, as Amended by Chapter Two Hundred Six of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred Thirteen, Relating to Ice Fishing in Tilton, David and Basin Ponds, in the Town of Fayette, in the County of Kennebec.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Closing of certain waters in Kennebec county to ice fishing.

No person shall fish for, take, catch or kill any kind of fish, at any time, on or through the ice, in Tilton pond, or in David pond or in Basin pond, all in the town of Fayette, in the county of Kennebec. No person shall have in possession, at any time, any kind of fish taken on or through the ice in any of the above named ponds. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall pay a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than thirty dollars and costs for each offense; and in addition thereto one dollar for each fish taken, caught, killed or had in possession in violation of any provision of this act.
