Chapter 91.

An Act to Amend Section One Hundred Ten of Chapter Fifteen of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the Course of Study in the State Normal Schools.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Ch. 15, Sec. 110, R. S., amended.

Section one hundred ten of chapter fifteen of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended by striking out the words "subject to the approval of the Governor and Council" in the third line thereof and by inserting after the word "same" in the fifth line thereof the words 'and they may give such credit as they may deem advisable for successful teaching experience,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

Courses of study.

'Section 110. The course of study shall occupy two years with suitable vacations; and with the terms of admission shall be arranged by said superintendent. The trustees may arrange for a course of study, occupying three or four years, for such students as elect to pursue the same, and they may give such credit as they may deem advisable for successful teaching experience.'

Trustees may regulate courses and give credit.
