Chapter 75.

An Act to Establish Close Time on Lobsters from a Point in a Straight Line from Bear Cove on the Western Side of Petit Manan Point to Little Black Ledge Directly North of Moulton's Ledge Spar Buoy to the Schoodic Island Whistling Buoy.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Close time on lobsters in waters adjacent to Schoodic island and Petit Manan point. No person or persons shall set any traps or other devices used for catching lobsters between the first day of July, and nine o'clock in the forenoon of August thirty-first of each year, under penalty of five dollars for each trap, or other device set within the following described limits: Beginning at a point in the straight line from Bear cove, on the western side of Petit Manan point, to Little Black ledge, directly north of Moulton's ledge spar buoy, thence directly south to said Moulton's ledge spar buoy, thence due south from said Moulton's ledge spar buoy two nautical miles; thence in a westerly direction in a straight line to a point two miles due south of Schoodic island whistling buoy, thence due north to said Schoodic island whistling buoy.

Approved March 24, 1923.
