of any and all kinds, upon such rates and time as it may deem expedient, to an amount not exceeding its capital stock subscribed for and to secure the same by mortgage of its franchise and property.

Sec. 15. First meeting, how called. The first meeting of the corporation shall be called by a written notice therefor, signed by any two of the named incorporators, served upon each named incorporator by giving him the same in hand, or by leaving same at his last and usual place of abode, or by mailing same to his last known address, postage prepaid, at least seven days before the time of meeting, or by publishing said notice in some newspaper published in the county of Somerset.

Sec. 16. Existing statutes not affected; subject to provisions of R. S., c. 55. Nothing herein contained is intended to repeal or shall be construed as repealing the whole or any part of any existing statute, and all the rights and duties herein mentioned shall be exercised and performed in accordance with all the applicable provisions of chapter fifty-five of the revised statutes, and acts amendatory thereof and additional thereto.

Approved March 31, 1923.

Chapter 87.

An Act for the Better Protection of Clams in the Limits of the Town of Kennebunkport in the County of York.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Taking of clams in Kennebunkport regulated. No clams shall be taken from any flats within the limits of the town of Kennebunkport in the county of York, except with such written permit as the municipal officers of said town may issue, provided, that without such permit, any inhabitant within this state or any person temporarily resident within said town, or the riparian owner of clam flats therein, may take therefrom for the immediate consumption of himself or his family, within the limits of said town, not exceeding one bushel of clams at one tide.

Sec. 2. Penalty for violation of act. Any person taking shell fish contrary to the provisions of this act, shall be punished for each offense by a fine not exceeding ten dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, or by both.

Approved March 31, 1923.
