[supplied from page 1 of volume]

Chapter 246.

AN ACT Relating to Identification of Criminals.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 147, sec. 47; relative to identification of criminals, amended. Section forty-seven of chapter one hundred forty-seven of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out all of said section and inserting in place thereof the following:

'Sec. 47. When identification methods shall prevail. Prisoners who have been convicted of crime and committed under sentence may, with the approval of a justice of the superior or supreme court, for the purpose of subsequent identification be measured and described in accordance with the Bertillon method for the identification of criminals, and their photographs and finger-prints taken. Provided, however, that said approval shall not be required in the case of a prisoner who has been convicted of a felony.'

Approved April 3, 1931.

Chapter 247.

AN ACT Relating to Hawkers and Peddlers.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 5, sec. 136; relating to hawkers and peddlers, amended. Section one hundred thirty-six of chapter five of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto the following paragraph:

'XIV. For regulating and controlling the business of hawking and peddling of goods, wares and merchandise within their limits, for the issuing by their municipal officers of municipal licenses and the imposing of license fees therefor.

This paragraph shall not apply to commercial agents or other persons selling by samples, lists, catalogues or otherwise, goods, wares or merchandise for future delivery, persons selling fish, farm, dairy or orchard products, and persons selling bark, wood or forest products and persons selling newspapers or religious literature.'

Approved April 3, 1931.
