1939

Chapter 19

AN ACT Conferring Additional Powers on Domestic Insurance Companies.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 60, § 55, amended. Section 55 of chapter 60 of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto a new paragraph to be numbered XV and to read as follows:

'XV. To insure against loss or damage to property, including loss of use and occupancy by tractors, vehicles, smoke and smudge, earthquake, hail, frost or snow, weather or climatic conditions, including excess or deficiency of moisture, flood, rain or drought.

Also to insure against loss or damage by insects or disease to domestic animals and to farm crops or products and loss of rental value of land used in producing such crops or products.

Also to insure against loss or damage, including loss of use or occupancy by water entering through leaks or openings in buildings.

Also to insure against loss or damage to aircraft, whether stationary or in motion, which shall include all or any of the hazards of fire, explosion, transportation or collision.

Also to insure against loss by legal liability for damage to property or for bodily injury or death resulting from the maintenance and use of motor vehicles or aircraft or any object falling therefrom excepting explosives or missiles in time of war, insurrection or civil strife.

Also to insure against loss by vandalism, sabotage or malicious mischief to any and all kinds of property, or the wrongful conversion, disposal or concealment of motor vehicles, or aircraft.'

Approved February 28, 1939.

Chapter 20
