PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-ninth Legislature

1939

CHAP. 57

against the inhabitants of said city, town or plantation has expired, the court shall fix the time for hearing upon the claims so filed, which hearing may be adjourned from time to time, to determine the validity of the obligation and the amount thereof. Any party grieved by the finding of said court may appeal to the next term of the superior court to be held in the county where such city, town or plantation is located. The judgment of the single justice shall be binding upon all parties unless appealed from as aforesaid. All obligations determined by said court not to be valid claims against the inhabitants of said city, town or plantation shall be forever barred in any action against the inhabitants of said city, town or plantation and the finding of the court may be pleaded as a bar to any action brought upon said claim or claims. All indebtedness adjudicated to be valid against the inhabitants of said city, town or plantation by the finding of the single justice or on appeal, if such appeal is taken by either party, shall be thereafter considered as a valid outstanding indebtedness against the inhabitants of said city, town or plantation.'

Approved March 10, 1939.
