CHAP. 71

which such property is situated such sum as may be determined as hereinafter provided toward compensating said town or plantation for the loss of taxes on such property. The amount of said payment shall be determined by the state auditor, the state tax assessor and the attorney-general, and in determining said amount said state officials shall take into consideration the amount of income, if any, derived by the state from any lease or tenancy of said property, the expense incurred by said town in opening and maintaining highways to said property, the number of pupils, if any, who are residing on said property and attending the public schools of said town or plantation and the cost of transporting them to and from such schools, which amount to be paid shall not in any one year exceed the revenue derived by said town or plantation from its tax on said property during the year preceding acquisition of title thereto by the state. All expenses incidental to or connected with the carrying out of the provisions of this chapter shall, with the approval of the governor and council, be paid from the reserved land fund, and so much of said fund as is necessary to pay such expenses is hereby appropriated for said purpose.'

Approved March 16, 1939.

Chapter 71

AN ACT Relative to Trapping on Game Preserves.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 38, § 91, amended. Section 91 of chapter 38 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 91. Hunting or possession of firearms within the limits of game preserves forbidden; exceptions. No person shall at any time hunt, chase, catch, kill or destroy any wild birds or wild animals or have in his possession firearms of any description within the limits of any game preserve or closed territory except as provided in this chapter, and except that the commissioner is hereby authorized to regulate the trapping of fur-bearing animals thereon and to use such means as may seem necessary to exterminate vermin of any description in all game preserves and sanctuaries and in any other localities where damage is being done.'

Approved March 16, 1939.
