Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Records of sales of lobsters. Any dealer licensed to sell lobsters who buys lobsters in excess of 50 pounds at one time shall record the license number of the seller and shall keep such record for 1 year, which record shall be available for the inspection of any warden of the department of sea and shore fisheries.

Approved March 17, 1939.

Chapter 87

AN ACT Relating to Minimum Standards for Schools of Nursing Accredited in Maine.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 21, § 20, amended. Paragraph (c) of section 20 of chapter 21 of the revised statutes is hereby amended so that said paragraph (c) shall read as follows:

‘(c) Has taken a full course of not less than 2 years in the same school of nursing from which he or she has graduated and received a diploma, said school of nursing to be one approved by the board of registration, and presided over by a nurse registered in accordance with the requirements of sections 18 to 24 inclusive, provided, however, in case of transfer of a student nurse from an accredited school of nursing because of closing of the school of nursing the minimum time that the candidate shall spend in the school of nursing from which she receives her diploma shall be 1 year.’

Approved March 17, 1939.

Chapter 88

AN ACT To Conserve the Supply of Herring on the Coast of Maine.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Taking of herring, regulated. It shall be unlawful for any person to take, preserve, sell, offer for sale, purchase or have in his possession any herring, for any purpose, less than 4 inches in length, measured from the tip of the nose to the tip of the tail, provided, however, that where herring under the size of 4 inches in length are mixed with larger herring and the herring of prohibited size represent less than 25% by count of the total catch, sale or purchase, the foregoing provision shall not be applicable. Provided, however, that any person may have in his possession not more than 10 bushels of herring for the purpose of using the same for bait.

Sec. 2. Penalty. Whoever violates any of the provisions of this act shall be punished by a fine of $1 per bushel for each bushel of herring taken, offered for sale, or had in his possession in violation of any of the provisions of this act, or by imprisonment for not more than 6 months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Approved March 24, 1939.
