Chapter 194

AN ACT Relating to Regulation of Pauper Expense for Conveyance of Children Attending the Public Schools.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1935, c. 91, amended. Chapter 91 of the public laws of 1935, as amended by chapter 115 of the public laws of 1937, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

'Pauper expenses of towns, cities, plantations, and state, regulated; conveyance of school children. Any city, town or plantation ~~that has~~ which locates paupers ~~who reside~~ having children attending the public schools, in another city, town or plantation, ~~who have children attending the public schools~~ shall locate such paupers so that the city, town or plantation where they reside shall not be put to extra expense for conveyance of children to ~~primary~~ elementary or secondary schools; provided, however, that if the said city, town or plantation does not so locate said paupers, the said city, town or plantation shall reimburse the city, town or plantation wherein the said paupers reside for the extra expense so caused. The state shall locate its paupers so that the city, town or plantation in which they reside shall not be put to extra expense for conveyance of the children of said paupers to ~~primary~~ elementary or secondary schools; provided, however, that if the state does not so locate said paupers, the state shall reimburse the city, town or plantation wherein the said paupers reside for the extra expense incurred for said conveyance. For the purposes of this section the word "paupers" shall mean all persons who have been directly or indirectly furnished with pauper supplies, as such, within the 3 months next preceding the time when the extra expense for conveyance, as above described, was incurred. Expenses incurred by any town or by the state under this section may be paid from funds made available for relief of the poor but shall in no other respect be treated as pauper expense.'

Approved April 8, 1939.
