PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-ninth Legislature

1939

'such jurisdiction is granted upon the express condition that the state of Maine shall retain a concurrent jurisdiction with the United States on and over such lands as have been or may hereafter be acquired by the United States so far as that all civil and criminal process which may lawfully issue under the authority of the state of Maine may be executed thereon in the same manner and way as if said jurisdiction had not been ceded, except so far as said process may affect the real or personal property of the United States.'

Approved April 19, 1939.

Chapter 249

AN ACT Relating to the Department of Sea and Shore Fisheries.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1933, c. 2, § 1, amended. Section 1 of chapter 2 of the public laws of 1933 is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 1. Department of sea and shore fisheries; the commissioner, his duties, appointment; co-operation with commissioner of inland fisheries and game. There shall be a department of sea and shore fisheries which has and shall exercise all the rights, powers and duties vested in the sea and shore fisheries commission, the director of sea and shore fisheries, their wardens, officers, assistants and employees prior to the 1st day of January, 1932. The work of the department shall be organized by the commissioner of sea and shore fisheries (designated hereafter in this chapter as the commissioner). The commissioner shall be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the council to serve for 3 4 years, or during the pleasure of the governor and council. Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by an appointment for a like term. He and the commissioner of inland fisheries and game shall co-operate in the distribution and joint deputizing of wardens to the end that overlapping jurisdiction may be effectively supervised according to the provisions of the fish and game laws and this chapter.'

Approved April 19, 1939.
