PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-third Legislature

1947

CHAP. 331

PUBLIC, 1947

disinfecting is performed under the provisions of said sections shall be subject to inspection by the department through its officers or agents.

Sec. 151-B. Proceeds payable into the general fund. All fees and other moneys collected in the administration of sections 147 to 151-C, inclusive, shall be credited to the general fund of the state. Provided, however, that there shall always be available for the administration of the provisions of sections 147 to 151-C, inclusive, state moneys in an amount not less than the revenue derived from the fees collected under the provisions of sections 147 to 151-C, inclusive, except that any unexpended balances shall remain in the general fund.

Sec. 151-C. Penalty. Any person violating any provision of sections 147 to 151-C, inclusive, or the rules and regulations of the department established thereunder, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10, nor more than $100, for each offense; and, in default of the payment of such fine by imprisonment for not more than 10 days for each such offense.

Each article manufactured for sale, sold, leased, offered for sale, or leased or possessed with intent to sell or lease, contrary to the provisions of sections 147 to 151-C, inclusive, or of the rules and regulations established thereunder, shall constitute a separate offense and shall be punishable as provided in this section.'

Effective August 13, 1947

Chapter 331

AN ACT Relating to Fees for Licenses for Recreational Camps and Roadside Places.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 22, § 154, amended. Section 154 of chapter 22 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 154. Department authorized to license; terms and fees. The department is empowered to license eating and lodging places, recreational and overnight camps. Such licenses shall be issued by the department under such terms and conditions as it deems advisable, and fees for licenses not exceeding $5 $10 may be charged. The fees thus received shall constitute a permanent fund to carry out the provisions of sections 152 to 158, inclusive. Provided, however, that when such eating or lodging place, recreational or overnight camp has been licensed during the previous year, the fee for such license shall not exceed $5.'

Effective August 13, 1947
