AN ACT to Effect Certain Changes in Administrative Procedure Under the Unemployment Compensation Law.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 24, § 11, sub-§ (a), amended. Subsection (a) of section 11 of chapter 24 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'(a) Duties and powers of commission. It shall be the duty of the commission to administer this act; and it shall have power and authority to adopt, amend, or rescind such rules and regulations, to employ such persons, make such expenditures, require such reports, make such investigations, and take such other action as it deems necessary or suitable to that end. Such rules and regulations shall be effective upon publication in the manner, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, which the commission shall prescribe. The commission shall determine its own organization and methods of procedure in accordance with the provisions of this act, and shall have an official seal which shall be judicially noticed. Not later than the first day of ~~February~~ May of each year, the commission shall submit to the governor a report covering the administration and operation of this act during the preceding calendar year and shall make such recommendations for amendments to this act as the commission deems proper. Such report shall include a balance sheet of the moneys in the fund in which there shall be provided, if possible, a reserve against the liability in future years to pay benefits in excess of the then current contributions, which reserve shall be set up by the commission in accordance with accepted actuarial principles on the basis of statistics of employment, business activity, and other relevant factors for the longest possible period. Whenever the commission believes that a change in contribution or benefit rates will become necessary to protect the solvency of the fund, it shall promptly so inform the governor and the legislature, and make recommendations with respect thereto.'

Sec. 2. R. S., c. 24, § 6, sub-§ (b), amended. Subsection (b) of section 6 of chapter 24 of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter 164 of the public laws of 1945, is hereby further amended so that the 4th paragraph thereof shall read as follows:

'The deputy shall promptly notify the claimant and any other interested party of the determinations and reasons therefor. Unless the claimant or any such interested party, within ~~5~~ 10 calendar days after the delivery of such notification, or within ~~7~~ 15 calendar days after such notification was mailed to his last known address, files an appeal from such determination, such determination shall be final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance therewith. If an appeal is duly filed, benefits with respect to the period ~~prior to the final determination of the commission of any possible disqualification involved~~, shall be paid only after ~~such determination; the final determination of the commission~~; provided, that if an appeal tribunal affirms a determination of a deputy, or the commission affirms a determination of an appeal tribunal, allowing benefits, such benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which may thereafter be taken, but if such determination is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid; provided further, if the claimant's appeal relates to the weekly benefit amount or maximum benefit amount potentially payable to him in the benefit year, benefits may nevertheless be paid to the extent of the deputy's determination and prior to the final determination of the commission.'

Sec. 3. R. S., c. 24, § 6, sub-§ (c), amended. Subsection (c) of section 6 of chapter 24 of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter 165 of the public laws of 1945, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

'(c) Appeals. Unless such appeal is withdrawn, an appeal tribunal, after affording the parties reasonable opportunity for fair hearing, shall affirm, modify or set aside the findings of fact and decision of the deputy. The parties shall be duly notified of such tribunal's decision, together with its reasons therefor, which shall be deemed to be the final decision of the commission, unless within ~~to~~ 15 days after the date of notification or mailing of such decision, further appeal is initiated pursuant to subsection (e) of this section, provided however, that when an employer appeals from a deputy's decision in favor of a claimant and such appeal is limited solely to the issue as to which of one or more employer experience rating records or the general fund shall be charged, such appeal shall not interrupt the payment of benefits for continuous unemployment.'

Sec. 4. R. S., c. 24, § 7, sub-§ (c), ¶ (3), additional. Subsection (c) of section 7 of chapter 24 of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto a new paragraph to be numbered (3), to read as follows:

'(3) For the purposes of subsection (1) of subsection (c) of section 7, the experience rating record of the most recent subject employer shall not be charged with benefits paid to a claimant whose work record with such employer totalled 3 consecutive work weeks or less but in such case the most recent subject employer with whom claimant's work record exceeded 3 consecutive work weeks shall be charged if such employer would have otherwise been chargeable had not subsequent employment intervened.'

Sec. 5. R. S., c. 24, § 19, sub-§ (f), ¶ (8), additional. Subsection (f) of section 19 of chapter 24 of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto a new paragraph to be numbered (8), to read as follows:

'(k) Proceedings on appeal when either party fails to appear. In any hearing before any appeal tribunal or before the commission if any party to the proceedings, having received due notice thereof, fails, without good cause in the judgment of the hearing body, to appear by himself or his representative to prosecute or defend the appeal as the case may be, the hearing shall proceed to a determination on an ex parte presentation and the decision thereon shall be the decision of the commission even though rendered by an appeal tribunal. This decision shall be final and there shall be no appeal or review thereof; provided however, that an aggrieved party, by petition to the superior court for Kennebec county, may secure an order for the reopening of the case before the commission upon a finding that the ex parte proceedings resulted from an abuse of discretion as a matter of law. The time for filing such petition and the manner of proceeding thereon shall be in accordance with subsection (i) of this section. Provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to deny to the party appearing the same rights of appeal as are provided by law in any other unemployment compensation appeal.'
