1949

Chapter 130

AN ACT Relating to the Salary of the Judge of Western Somerset Municipal Court.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1909, c. 331, § 8, amended. Section 8 of chapter 331 of the private and special laws of 1909, as amended, is hereby further amended so that the 1st sentence thereof shall read as follows:

'As compensation for his services in that capacity the judge of said court shall receive an annual salary of ~~$2,200~~ $2,700, payable in quarterly instalments from the treasury of the county of Somerset, on the 1st days of January, April, July and October, and in addition shall receive his necessary traveling expenses, including mileage allowance, hotel expenses, meals, etc., when holding court in another town than that in which he resides, and he shall receive an additional sum of $1,000 per year for clerk hire and such additional amount as may be authorized by the county commissioners.'

Effective August 6, 1949

Chapter 131

AN ACT to Authorize the County Commissioners of Cumberland County to Issue Bonds for Bridge Repairs.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, in the judgment of a majority of the Cumberland county commissioners, the Staples Point bridge over the Presumpscot river in the town of Falmouth needs to be re-built; and

Whereas, in the judgment of a majority of said commissioners, the Portland bridge should have fender piers or dolphins built; and

Whereas, the cost to the county of these projects is estimated by a majority of said commissioners to be about $150,000; and

Whereas, in the judgment of a majority of said commissioners, it is deemed that public safety and necessity require that both projects be accomplished; and that the cost of the same would be too great to be provided for in the biennial budget; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the constitution and require the following
