PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-ninth Legislature

1959

the judge or recorder shall examine the civil docket and dismiss any case thereon which has been pending for 6 years or more without an entry showing that a final judgment or other order for a definitive disposition has been made. At the same time, the civil docket shall be called, and all cases which have remained on the docket for a period of 2 years with nothing done thereon shall be dismissed for want of prosecution on motion of any party thereto, including a party named as trustee in the writ, unless good cause be shown to the contrary.'

Effective September 12, 1959

Chapter 159

AN ACT to Authorize Independent or Internal Bank Auditors in Lieu of Directors' Examinations.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 59, § 122, amended. Section 122 of chapter 59 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding at the end the following sentence:

'In lieu of an examination by said directors, a trust company may either employ an independent public accounting firm approved by the commissioner to perform said examination and render said report or may use an internal audit program approved by the commissioner.'

Effective September 12, 1959

Chapter 160

AN ACT Relating to Definition of Retail Sale Under Liquor Laws.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 61, § 1, amended. The 7th paragraph from the end of section 1 of chapter 61 of the Revised Statutes which relates to the definition of retail sale, as enacted by section 5 of chapter 117 of the public laws of 1957, is amended to read as follows:

'"Retail sale" shall mean any single sale of liquor in the original package for off the premises consumption less than $\frac{5}{8}$ 20 gallons.'

Effective September 12, 1959
