RESOLVES
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-ninth Legislature

1959

Chapter 59

RESOLVE, Relating to Ferry Terminals at Islesboro and Lincolnville.

Ferry terminals at Islesboro and Lincolnville. Resolved: That the ferry terminals at Islesboro and Lincolnville now maintained by the State Highway Commission may, at the discretion of the State Highway Commission, be discontinued and the State Highway Commission may remove, lease or sell the whole or any part of said terminals on terms satisfactory to said State Highway Commission.

Effective September 12, 1959

Chapter 60

RESOLVE, Naming Maine Mountains the "Longfellow Mountains of Maine."

Preamble. Whereas, the State of Maine has been recognized as one of the foremost vacation states; and

Whereas, the mountains in Maine provide a major source of the state's recreational activity; and

Whereas, there is a need in promotional writing and advertising for a descriptive term with which to generally designate such mountains; now, therefore, be it

"Longfellow Mountains of Maine"; designated. Resolved: That those mountains within this State included in, and being part of, the Appalachian Mountain Range shall be officially named, and henceforth referred to, as the "Longfellow Mountains of Maine."

Effective September 12, 1959

Chapter 61

RESOLVE, Prohibiting Use and Possession of Live Fish as Bait in Auburn Lake, Androscoggin County.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts and resolves passed by the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, in order to stock Auburn Lake with salmon and as a conservation measure the following legislation is necessary; and

Whereas, such conservation should be practiced this winter and spring; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine, and require the following
