Chapter 236

AN ACT to Provide Funds to Establish a School of Practical Nursing to be Located in Southern Maine.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the State Board of Education, by the Revised Statutes, chapter 41, section 203-A, has the authority to establish, maintain and operate state schools for practical nursing; and

Whereas, there is great need for expanded services in southern Maine particularly so that hospitals in the Portland area will be able to furnish necessary nursing care to the people of Maine; and

Whereas, the following legislation is vitally necessary to provide such services in order to prevent undue inconvenience and hardship to the people of Maine; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine, and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Establishment of a school of practical nursing; appropriation for. There is appropriated from the Unappropriated Surplus of the General Fund, to the Department of Education, the sum of $10,528 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1962 and the sum of $46,622 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1963. Said sums shall be used for the purpose of establishing and operating a state school of practical nursing in southern Maine.

The above amounts shall be transferred to the General Fund for expenditure and the breakdown shall be as follows:

	1961-62	1962-63

Effective January 1, 1962

Director's note: Amended by P. & S. L., 1961, c. 250, § 2.

Chapter 237

AN ACT Ceding Concurrent Jurisdiction to the United States of America Over Certain Lands in the Town of Cutler.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Jurisdiction. Jurisdiction in and over the 3 parcels of land owned by the United States of America and hereinafter described is hereby granted and ceded to the United States of America for all purposes, such jurisdiction to be retained by the United States of America so long as said land remains the property of the United States of America and no longer. This grant of jurisdiction is made upon the express condition that the State of Maine shall retain concurrent jurisdiction with the United States of America in and over said land (a) to tax private persons, private transactions and private property, real and personal, resident, occurring or situated within such land or other area to the same extent that this State has jurisdiction to tax such persons, transactions and property resident, occurring or situated generally within this State, (b) any civil or criminal process, lawfully issued by competent authority of this State or any of its subdivisions, may be served and executed within such land or other area to the same extent and with the same effect as such process may be served and executed generally within this State; provided only that the service and execution of such process within land or other areas over which the Federal Government exercises jurisdiction shall be subject to such rules and regulations issued by authorized officers of the Federal Government, or of any department, independent establishment or agency thereof, as may be reasonably necessary to prevent interference with the carrying out of federal functions, (c) this State shall exercise over such land or other area the same legislative jurisdiction which it exercises over land or other areas generally within this State, except that the United States shall not be required to forego such measure of exclusive legislative jurisdiction as may be vested in or retained by it over such land or other area pursuant to the Revised Statutes, chapter 1, sections 4-A to 4-C, and without prejudice to the right of the United States to assert and exercise such concurrent legislative jurisdiction as may be vested in or retained by it over such land or other area.
