PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the One Hundred and First Legislature

1963

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 137, § 28-A, repealed. Section 28-A of chapter 137 of the Revised Statutes, as enacted by chapter 177 of the public laws of 1961, is repealed.

Sec. 2. R. S., c. 137, § 30, repealed and replaced. Section 30 of chapter 137 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by section 1 of chapter 206 of the public laws of 1955, is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 30. Dumping of litter. No person shall put or place, cause to be put or placed, deposit or throw upon any square, lane, alley, public bathing place, public park, or the approaches thereto, or any other place, or into any inland or tidal waters, or on the ice over such waters, or on the banks adjacent thereto any bottles, glass, crockery, cans, scrap metal, junk, paper, garbage, rubbish, old automobiles or parts thereof, or similar refuse, except in proper containers placed for rubbish or garbage collection or removal or except in a public dump. Any person who violates this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $100. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as affecting authorized collections of such articles as garbage or refuse, nor shall anything be construed to prevent the proper use of the rights-of-way for highway purposes. If the throwing, placing or depositing was done from a motor vehicle, it shall be prima facie evidence that the throwing, placing or depositing was done by the driver of such motor vehicle.

Every law enforcement officer in the State, including wardens of the Department of Inland Fisheries and Game, wardens of the Department of Sea and Shore Fisheries, foresters of the Forestry Department and liquor inspectors of the State Liquor Commission shall have authority to enforce this section and section 29.'

Director's note: Last paragraph amended by P. L., 1963, c. 414, § 141-A.

Sec. 3. R. S., c. 137, § 31, repealed. Section 31 of chapter 137 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by section 2 of chapter 206 of the public laws of 1955 and by chapter 163 of the public laws of 1957, is repealed.

Sec. 4. R. S., c. 141, § 11, repealed. Section 11 of chapter 141 of the Revised Statutes is repealed.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.

Effective May 9, 1963

Chapter 287

AN ACT Relating to Disposal of Certain Real Property by Directors of School Administrative Districts.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment of the Legislature unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, it is in the best interests of education for school administrative districts to be able to dispose of property transferred to such district as advantageously as possible; and

Whereas, the following legislation is vitally necessary to permit towns to vote thereon at the town meetings to be held in March of 1963; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 41, § 111-U, amended. The 2nd paragraph of section 111-U of chapter 41 of the Revised Statutes, as enacted by section 6-D of chapter 366 of the public laws of 1961, is amended to read as follows:

'No real property shall be disposed of by the school directors until authorized by the legal voters of the School Administrative District as required by section 111-T, except that the Board of Directors may vote to return unused school property to the town where the same is located provided the School Administrative District had assumed no indebtedness or lease obligation on account of said property.'

Sec. 2. R. S., c. 41, § 111-U-1, amended. The first paragraph of section 111-U-1 of chapter 41 of the Revised Statutes, as enacted by section 6-E of chapter 366 of the public laws of 1961, is amended to read as follows:

'In disposing of real property in any amount and personal property in an amount exceeding $1,000, school directors shall advertise for sealed bids by publication at least 5 days prior to the date set for closing of bids in a newspaper having general circulation in the territory embracing the School Administrative District, except that the directors may sell school property and buildings to the town where the same are located at a mutually acceptable price without advertising, provided the School Administrative District had assumed no indebtedness or lease obligation on account of said property.'

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.

Effective May 9, 1963

Chapter 288

AN ACT Relating to Expenses of Fish and Game Advisory Council.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 37, § 4, amended. The 4th sentence of section 4 of chapter 37 of the Revised Statutes, as revised, is amended to read as follows:
