Chapter 388

AN ACT Providing for the New England Health Services and Facilities Compact.

Preamble. Whereas, the health of the people is supreme, and disease and disability do not recognize state borders; and

Whereas, demographic, technologic and socio-economic changes have had an impact on the quantity, type, availability and quality of health services; and

Whereas, the improvement of health services and facilities can best be accomplished through the cooperation of the New England states in the establishment of an interstate agency; now, therefore,
