PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the One Hundred and First Legislature

Whereas, there is a vital need for safe and adequate school facilities in the municipalities; and

Whereas, the school programs of the area could be improved and more efficiently and economically operated; and

Whereas, it is geographically impossible to meet the minimum requirement of 300 resident high school pupils in this area; and

Whereas, the Maine School District Commission cannot approve the formation of this proposed district under the criteria set out in the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 41, section 111-E; and

Whereas, chapter 41, section 111-D provides that the Legislature may establish such school administrative districts; and

Whereas, the Maine School District Commission has recommended that the municipalities of Dexter, Garland and Ripley be authorized to establish a school administrative district; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine, and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

School administrative district for Dexter, Garland and Ripley authorized. The municipalities of Dexter, Garland and Ripley shall be exempted from the limitations provided in the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 41, section 111-E, as amended, and the Maine School District Commission shall be authorized to proceed pursuant to said chapter 41, sections 111-F to 111-U-1 to take the necessary action to allow the municipalities of Dexter, Garland and Ripley to form a school administrative district.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed to limit the number of times that the above-named municipalities may make application to the Maine School District Commission, nor shall the authority heretofore granted to the Maine School District Commission under this act be limited to any specified number of times for the commission to authorize the above-named municipalities to act on the formation of a school administrative district.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.

Effective February 21, 1963

Chapter 17

AN ACT to Authorize the Municipalities of Amity, Cary Plantation, Haynesville, Hodgdon, Linneus, Ludlow and New Limerick to Form a School Administrative District.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, the school committees of the municipalities of Amity, Cary Plt., Haynesville, Hodgdon, Linneus, Ludlow and New Limerick have filed applications with the Maine School District Commission for the formation of a School Administrative District; and

Whereas, the municipalities have conducted a thorough study of the school conditions in the area; and

Whereas, there is a vital need for safe and adequate school facilities in the municipalities; and

Whereas, the school programs of the area could be improved and more efficiently and economically operated; and

Whereas, it is geographically impossible to meet the minimum requirement of 300 resident high school pupils in this area; and

Whereas, the Maine School District Commission cannot approve the formation of this proposed district under the criteria set out in the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 41, section 111-E; and

Whereas, section 111-D provides that the Legislature may establish such School Administrative Districts; and

Whereas, the Maine School District Commission recommends that the municipalities of Amity, Cary Plt., Haynesville, Hodgdon, Linneus, Ludlow and New Limerick be authorized to establish a School Administrative District; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine, and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

School Administrative District for Amity, Cary Plt., Haynesville, Hodgdon, Linneus, Ludlow and New Limerick authorized. The municipalities of Amity, Cary Plt., Haynesville, Hodgdon, Linneus, Ludlow and New Limerick are exempted from the limitations provided in the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 41, section 111-E, as amended, and the Maine School District Commission is authorized to proceed pursuant to chapter 41, sections 111-F to 111-U-1 to take the necessary action to allow the municipalities of Amity, Cary Plt., Haynesville, Hodgdon, Linneus, Ludlow and New Limerick to form a School Administrative District.

Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to limit the number of times that the within-named municipalities may make application to the Maine School District Commission, nor shall the authority heretofore granted to the Maine School District Commission under this act be limited to any specified number of times for the commission to authorize the within-named municipalities to act on the formation of a school administrative district.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.
