PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the One Hundred and First Legislature

1963

School District Commission under this act be limited to any specified number of times for the commission to authorize the above-named municipalities to act on the formation of a school administrative district.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.

Effective February 21, 1963

Chapter 19

AN ACT Relating to Directors and Trustees of The King's Academy.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

The King's Academy; directors and trustees. Daniel J. Feeney, George P. Johnson, Edward C. O'Leary and Vincent A. Tatarczuk, all of Portland in the County of Cumberland and State of Maine, are hereby constituted the directors and trustees, until the next annual meeting and until their successors are elected and qualified, of The King's Academy, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Maine, which are now the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 54, as amended, to fill the offices of directors and trustees and managing board of said corporation and to wage and conduct the affairs and business of the said corporation in accordance with the charter of said corporation and the provisions of law.

Effective September 21, 1963

Chapter 20

AN ACT Authorizing Transfer of Property and Assets of the Trustees of East Corinth Academy.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, the Town of Corinth, by another act of the present Legislature, may join other municipalities to form a school administrative district; and

Whereas, if such a school administrative district is formed the property and assets of the trustees of East Corinth Academy should be transferred to the Town of Corinth; and

Whereas, such transfer is necessary to prevent confusion to the detriment of the education of the pupils in the Town of Corinth; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine, and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,
