PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the One Hundred and First Legislature

1963

The board of selectmen of the Town of Veazie shall call said election, to be held upon a date to be specified in writing by them. The registrar of voters shall make and provide a separate check list for such of the voters within said district as are then legal voters therein, and all warrants issued to said district shall be varied accordingly to show that only such voters therein are entitled to vote thereon. Such election shall be called, advertised and conducted according to the law relating to municipal elections; providing, however, that the registrar of voters shall not be required to prepare nor the town clerk to post a new check list of voters, and for this purpose said registrar of voters shall be in session the 2 secular days next preceding such election, the first day thereof to be devoted to the registration of voters and the last day to enable the registrar of voters to verify the corrections of said list and to complete and close up the records of said sessions. The town clerk shall reduce the subject matter of this act to the following question: "Shall the Act to Increase the Indebtedness of the Veazie Sewer District, be accepted?"

The voters shall indicate by depositing a ballot in the ballot box with the word "Yes" or "No" on the same, their opinion of the same. This act shall take effect for all the purposes hereof immediately upon its acceptance by a majority of the legal voters voting at said election; provided that the total number of votes cast for and against the acceptance of this act equals or exceeds 20% of the number of voters on said check list. The result shall be declared in open meeting and due certificate thereof filed by the town clerk with the Secretary of State. Twenty per cent of the qualified voters of said district shall constitute a quorum for the purposes of this election, but a less number may adjourn from time to time not exceeding 7 days at one time.

Effective April 26, 1963

Chapter 148

AN ACT Relating to Non-lapsing Funds for Armory Expansion.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the projects authorized by the 100th Legislature to expand certain armories are not in process due to the fact that in some instances federal funds are not available; and

Whereas, it is vitally necessary that the following legislation be enacted to prevent the lapsing of the various appropriations; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1961, c. 69, section A, § 1, amended. That part of section 1 of section A of chapter 69 of the private and special laws of 1961, under the caption "Adjutant General, Department of," is amended by adding at the end before the paragraph "Aeronautics Commission" the following new paragraph:

'The appropriation for the expansion of the Auburn, Augusta, Sanford, Skowhegan and Westbrook Armories shall not lapse, but shall remain a continuing carrying account until June 30, 1965.'

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.

Effective May 1, 1963

Chapter 149

AN ACT Authorizing County Commissioners for York County to Make a Loan for Courthouse Addition.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. County commissioners to borrow money in a sum not to exceed $175,000. The County of York, through its county commissioners, is empowered and authorized to erect and construct, by contracts or otherwise, an addition to the present courthouse situated at Alfred for the purpose of containing fireproof vaults for record books and indices of the registry of deeds and registry of probate, and for storage of municipal court files and records as said courts are de-activated, together with necessary adjacent work areas for employees of said departments and for the use of the general public, with such fixtures and equipment as shall be commensurate with said purposes; and for the foregoing purposes and in order to provide for the payment of said erection and construction, to borrow money in a sum not exceeding $175,000 and cause to be issued therefor, notes of said County of York or other obligations of said County of York, with coupons attached for interest at a rate not to exceed 4% per year, payable at regular periods not to exceed 30 years from their date. Said commissioners shall determine the amount, time of payment, rate of interest not exceeding 4% per year, whether interest shall be payable annually or semi-annually, and form of said notes or obligations, and shall have power to determine whether all, or a portion of any notes or obligations issued hereunder, shall contain any provisions for calling the same, and may determine such call provisions, and shall also determine whether all, or any portion, of said notes or obligations, shall be in serial form or otherwise, and may issue the same from time to time as the money is needed to pay for the erection and construction under this act.

Sec. 2. Notes or obligations valid without obtaining consent of towns and cities. Said notes or obligations shall be valid without first obtaining the consent of the towns and cities of said County of York as provided in the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 89, sections 27 and 29, as amended.

Effective September 21, 1963
