PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE
AS PASSED BY THE
One Hundred and Fifth Legislature
1971

§ 4185-A. Services to minors for drug abuse

Any person certified under this chapter who, in the exercise of due care, renders social work services to a minor for problems associated with the abuse of drugs is under no obligation to obtain the consent of a parent or a guardian, as applicable, or to inform such parent or guardian of such services. The certified person rendering social work services to a minor for problems associated with the abuse of drugs may, at his discretion, within 48 hours from the initiation of such services notify, or obtain consent from, the parent or guardian of such minor, as applicable, with respect to continuing provision of services.

Effective September 23, 1971

Chapter 238

AN ACT Requiring Public Hearings by the Park and Recreation Commission Prior to the Exercise of Eminent Domain.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 12, § 602, sub-§ 1, amended. Subsection 1 of section 602 of Title 12 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding at the end the following new paragraph:

Prior to the exercise of any eminent domain power, the commission shall notify the owners of any lands proposed to be acquired and shall, at the request of such landowners, afford such landowners with the opportunity of a public hearing to testify as to the necessity and propriety of taking such lands.

Effective September 23, 1971

Chapter 239

AN ACT Relating to Insurance on State-owned Property.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature to not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the present insurance on state property expires July 1, 1971; and

Whereas, the proposed legislation should become effective prior to that date, to enable the Insurance Advisory Board to replace expiring insurance coverage and to increase the deductible provisions of state insurance with the long range goal of permitting the State to provide for a proper self-insured retention on a properly funded basis; and
