PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE
AS PASSED BY THE
One Hundred and Fifth Legislature
AT THE
SPECIAL SESSION

January 24, 1972

to

March 10, 1972

Should any recipient of benefits other than disability benefits be restored to service, ~~the same general limitations with respect to whether or not the benefits should be suspended will be as outlined above, except that in the event benefits are suspended during such period of employment and should the combination of his monthly retirement allowance and monthly earnable compensation at any time exceed 1/12 of his average final compensation at retirement, his monthly retirement allowance payments shall be reduced accordingly; if his retirement allowance payments are thereby eliminated, the beneficiary shall again become a member of the retirement system and he shall contribute thereafter at the current rate and when such member subsequently again retires, he shall receive such combined benefits as may be computed on his entire creditable service and in accordance with the then existing law.~~

Sec. 2. Effective date. This Act shall become effective 90 days after the recess of the Legislature, except that it shall become effective on July 1, 1972, as to persons who were in State service and receiving nondisability retirement benefits on the date of this enactment.

Effective June 9, 1972

CHAPTER 596

AN ACT Implementing the Reorganization of the Department of Secretary of State.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., T. 27, § 276, amended. The first sentence of section 276 of Title 27 of the Revised Statutes, as enacted by section 1 of chapter 441 of the public laws of 1965 and as repealed and replaced by section 4 of chapter 318 of the public laws of 1969, is amended to read as follows:

The ~~Governor~~ Secretary of State, with the advice and consent of the ~~Governor and Council~~, shall appoint a State Archivist who shall be qualified by special training or experience in archival or historical work.

Sec. 2. R. S., T. 27, § 277, amended. The first sentence of section 277 of Title 27 of the Revised Statutes, as enacted by section 1 of chapter 441 of the public laws of 1965, is amended to read as follows:

The office of the State Archivist shall be a bureau within the Department of Secretary of State and shall be organized in the manner the State Archivist and the Secretary of State shall deem best suited to the accomplishment of the functions and purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 3. R. S., T. 27, § 278, sub-§ 1, amended. The 3rd sentence of subsection 1 of section 278 of Title 27 of the Revised Statutes, as enacted by section 1 of chapter 441 of the public laws of 1965, is amended to read as follows:

He shall employ, with the approval of the Secretary of State, subject to the Personnel Law, such assistants as may be necessary to carry out this chapter.

Sec. 4. Funds and equipment transferred. Notwithstanding the Revised Statutes, Title 5, section 1585, all accrued expenditures, assets, liabilities, balances of appropriations, transfers, revenues or other available funds in any account, or subdivision of an account, of any agency to be reallocated to another department strictly as a result of the reorganization effort, shall be transferred to the proper place in the new structure by the State Controller, upon recommendation of the department head, the State Budget Officer and upon approval by the Governor and Executive Council.

Sec. 5. Effective date. This Act shall become effective July 1, 1972.

Effective July 1, 1972

CHAPTER 597

AN ACT Relating to Relocation Assistance and Land Acquisition in State Projects.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970 (P. L. 91-646) requires no later than July 1, 1972, that the states furnish uniform and equitable treatment to all individuals, business and farm operations displaced by all federally assisted programs and projects; and

Whereas, if this Act is not made effective before July 1, 1972 the continuation of federally assisted programs in such fields as housing, urban renewal, highway construction, health and welfare programs, flood control programs, agricultural extension programs and other similar federally assisted programs is threatened; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine, and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 1, c. 23, additional. Title 1 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding a new chapter 23 to read as follows:
