CHAPTER 160

AN ACT Increasing Borrowing Capacity of York Sewer District.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, adequate public sewerage is vital to the health and well-being of the inhabitants of the Town of York; and

Whereas, an increase in the borrowing capacity of the York Sewer District is essential in order to expand the district and thus abate the pollution of the beaches and recreational waters of the Town of York; and

Whereas, such abatement should be commenced as soon as possible in the spring of 1972 for the health, safety and welfare of the inhabitants of the Town of York; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine, and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1951, c. 63, § 16, amended. The first sentence of section 16 of chapter 63 of the private and special laws of 1951, as last amended by section 3 of chapter 63 of the private and special laws of 1967, is further amended to read as follows:

For accomplishing the purposes of this Act, said district, by resolution of its board of trustees, is hereby authorized to borrow money temporarily and to issue therefor its negotiable notes, and for the purpose of refunding the indebtedness so created, of paying any necessary expenses and liabilities incurred under the provisions of this Act, including organizational and other necessary expenses and liabilities; and in acquiring properties, paying damages, laying sewers, drains and conduits, constructing, maintaining and operating a sewage plant or system and making renewals, extensions, additions, extensions and improvements to the same, and to cover interest payments during the period of construction, said York Sewer District, by resolution of its board of trustees, is also hereby authorized to issue, from time to time, bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness of the district in one series, or in separate series, in an amount or amounts at such rates of interest and on such terms and conditions as the trustees shall determine; provided, however, that the total outstanding indebtedness of said district shall at no time exceed the sum of ~~$1,000,000~~ $2,000,000.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved.

Effective February 9, 1972

CHAPTER 161

AN ACT Relating to Filling Vacancies in Board of Trustees of Sanford Sewerage District.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1947, c. 169, § 6, amended. The last sentence of the 2nd paragraph of section 6 of chapter 169 of the private and special laws of 1947 is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

If a vacancy occurs more than 3 months before the next annual election, said vacancy or vacancies shall be filled by the appointment of a qualified voter of the Town of Sanford by the selectmen of the Town of Sanford for the remaining period until the next annual election. If a vacancy occurs in 3 months or less before the next annual election, said vacancy may be filled in the same manner as a vacancy for more than 3 months.

Effective June 9, 1972

CHAPTER 162

AN ACT Authorizing Use of the Name Maine Institute of Continuing Radiologic Education.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, it is in the best interests of the people of Maine to provide continuing education at all levels for physicians, nurses, technologists and all other allied health personnel; and

Whereas, the Maine Institute of Continuing Medical Education has now gained statewide recognition for courses for both technicians and physicians; and

Whereas, the following legislation is vitally necessary for an expansion of such continuing education; and
