CHAPTER 49

RESOLVE, to Correct an Error in the Service Retirement Allowances Under the State Retirement Law for Linwood A. Webber.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts and resolves of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, Linwood A. Webber has been employed by the State for 38 years, 7 months and 30 days but only received credit for 34 years, 7 months and 30 days; and

Whereas, the following legislation is vitally necessary to correct an error by being excluded from the current retirement system provisions; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, this fact creates an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and requires the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore, be it

Creditable state service; Linwood A. Webber. Resolved: That Linwood A. Webber be provided with prior service credits for the years 1933, 1934, 1935 and 1936; and be it further

Resolved: That there is appropriated from the General Fund to the Maine State Retirement System the sum of $6,344 to carry out the purposes of this resolve.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this resolve shall become effective March 1, 1972.

Effective March 1, 1972

CHAPTER 50

RESOLVE, Providing a Retirement Allowance Under the State Retirement Law for Mrs. John Howe.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts and resolves of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the 104th Legislature in regular session provided for a retirement allowance for state employees and teachers; and

Whereas, John Howe died March 19, 1971, and lacked one month and 10 days of obtaining 30 years creditable service needed for retirement benefits; and

Whereas, the following legislation is vitally necessary to provide Mrs. John Howe a retirement allowance as the secondary beneficiary; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine, and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore, be it

John Howe; additional creditable state service. Resolved: That notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the Maine State Retirement System is directed to credit John Howe with necessary days of state service, thereby permitting his beneficiary to receive the actuarial computation establishing the retirement allowance for Mrs. Howe as provided under the State Retirement Law, provided that she remit to such system an amount equal to that contribution which would have been deducted from Mr. Howe's compensation, if he had had deductions equivalent to 30 years of creditable service, which amount involved is approximately $16; and be it further

Resolved: That there is appropriated from the General Fund to the Maine State Retirement System the sum of $12,891 to carry out the purposes of this resolve.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this resolve shall take effect when approved.

Effective March 8, 1972
