CHAPTER 330

S.P. 488 - L.D. 1481

AN ACT to Provide a Warden's Association
Handbook.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

25 MRSA §3702, as enacted by PL 1977, c. 449, is amended to read:

§3702. Solicitation unlawful

No person ~~shall~~ may solicit property from the general public when the property, or any part of it, in any way benefits, is intended to benefit or is represented to be for the benefit of any law enforcement officer, law enforcement agency or law enforcement association, except that any state warden service association may offer for sale, by persons other than wardens or members of the association, to members and the public guide books or handbooks containing historical reviews or descriptions of services, except that on the request of a nonmember the association may provide that person with the copies requested for sale by that person. No advertisements may be sold or included in these publications, except greetings or complimentary statements from members or former members which shall give the full name of the member or former member. A stated rate for this advertisement space shall be published and no funds in excess of that stated rate may be accepted by the association for space.

A record of receipts and sales for space and sales of the publication shall be kept and available to the public during normal working hours.

All proceeds from these sales shall be expended for direct charitable services to members or their spouses, widows, children, widowers or parents and may not be used for buildings or equipment, construction or maintenance or entertainment of members.

Any violation of this chapter shall constitute a violation of Title 5, chapter 10, the unfair trade practices Act laws.

Effective September 23, 1983.
