STATE OF MAINE
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Augusta, Maine
January 6, 1965

To the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the One Hundred and Second Legislature:

I hereby transmit a copy of the amended tabulation of the vote for Representative to the Legislature at the General Election of November 3, 1964, in the Towns of Avon, Eustis, Kingfield, Madrid, Phillips, Rangeley, Strong, and the Plantations of Coplin, Dallas, Rangeley and Sandy River, as submitted to the Governor and Executive Council on the thirtieth day of December, 1964.

Respectfully,

(Signed) PAUL A. MacDONALD
Secretary of State

The Communications were received and ordered placed on file.

For the purpose of ascertaining the presence of a quorum, a certified roll of the Representatives-elect was called by the Clerk of the One Hundred and First Legislature.

The elected membership of the House being 151, 151 members-elect having answered to their names, a quorum was found to be present.

On motion of Mr. Binnette of Old Town,

Messrs. BINNETTE of Old Town
ROY of Winslow
Mrs. CARSWELL of Portland
Messrs. CARROLL of Limerick
KENNEDY of Milbridge
BERRY of Cape Elizabeth
RACKLIFF of Easton

were appointed a committee to wait upon the Governor and inform him that a quorum of the members of the House of Representatives-elect had assembled in the Representatives' Hall and request his attendance to administer to them the oaths required by the Constitution to qualify them to enter upon the discharge of their official duties.

Mr. Binnette subsequently reported that the committee had discharged the duty assigned it, and the Governor was pleased to say that he would forthwith attend upon the Representatives-elect for the purpose of administering to them the oaths required by the Constitution.

Thereupon His Excellency, Governor John H. Reed, attended by his Council, came in and administered to the members-elect and they subscribed the oaths required by the Constitution to qualify them to discharge their official duties.

GOVERNOR REED: Mr. Speaker and Members of the House: I would like to officially and personally congratulate each and every one of you upon the important responsibility that you have just taken upon yourselves, and I know that I am joined by the Members of my Executive Council, and indeed all of the people of the great State of Maine, when I say that I wish for you a very successful, enjoyable and profitable session of this 102nd Maine Legislature.

My remarks this morning are going to be rather brief, because tomorrow I have the distinct pleasure of speaking to you at length at the Joint Convention, at which time I will outline my plans and ideas for your consideration at this particular session.

I am sure that all of you are cognizant of the fact that you are here of course, primarily and basically, to discharge your responsibilities and commitments to the constituents and those voters who have displayed their confidence in your abilities. But I would also, of course, remind you as those of us who have served in other Legislatures, that there is indeed another side of legislative service, and this is the rare opportunity to develop friendships and to enjoy the social aspect of a legislative session. And in this context, I would like to verbally add to the formal invitation that you have received, the cordial invitation from Mrs. Reed and myself, to join us this afternoon at the Blaine House for the additional opportunity to become acquainted with your Governor, the Family, and of course with each other. We feel that this indeed will be a fine session and I can think of no better way than to become acquainted on a social basis at the outset.

As I mentioned, of course, I have had the rare honor of being in one of the chairs that you people occupy today, and out of personal interest, I checked the advance list and I find that in the ten years that has transpired since I was a Member of the 97th Legislature, that there are but ten remaining in the one hundred and fifty-one members of this body. Now I am sure that this proves that everything is subject to change, even personnel, in state government. (Applause)

But I am also reminded, and I am sure you are too, that in life, changes come and changes go, government moves on, and it certainly behooves each and every one of us to discharge our responsibility to the best of our ability while we can, so that when the session is completed, we will have the satisfaction of knowing that we have done our level best for those who displayed their confidence in us, and also had an opportunity to vastly enrich our personal experience.

And so in conclusion, I am delighted and honored to be here to administer your official oath of office, and finally, to extend an invitation to all of you at any time, whether it be on official business or for a personal call, to drop by the Executive Office, and any assistance that my staff or I can render to you, we stand ready to cooperate in any possible way. Thank you, and good luck.

The Governor and suite then retired from the Hall of the House, amid applause, the Members rising.

On motion of Mr. Cote of Lewiston,

Messrs. COTE of Lewiston

LEVESQUE of

Madawaska

LANE of Waterville

BISHOP of Presque Isle

PRINCE of Harpswell

SCOTT of Wilton
Mrs. BAKER of Orrington

were appointed a committee to receive, sort and count votes for the Speaker.

On motion of Mr. Ross of Bath, it was voted that the Committee cast one ballot for Honorable Dana W. Childs as Speaker of the House of Representatives of the One Hundred and Second Legislature.

Mr. Cote subsequently reported:

Whole number of votes cast	1
Necessary for a choice	1
Dana W. Childs had	1

and thereupon Honorable Dana W. Childs was declared duly elected as Speaker of the House of the One Hundred and Second Legislature.

Speaker Childs was then escorted to the rostrum by the gentleman from Milbridge, Mr. Kennedy, where he assumed the Chair amid the applause of the House, the members rising.

Mr. KENNEDY: Mr. Speaker, my warmest congratulations to you, sir, on having been elected to this high and distinguished office. If I were to have an admonition, it would be but one, and that is that as you wield the gavel of authority you use it not arbitrarily but prudently, and if occasion should arise, and I assure you that it will, that you use it firmly, in order that good order shall prevail over this body.

To you, sir, I offer the sincere congratulations of the loyal minority, and assure you that we will offer you every courtesy and consideration that your position deserves, and my personal warm congratulations. (Applause)

SPEAKER CHILDS: The Honorable David Kennedy, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House:

On this morning of January 6, 1965, I appear before this body most humble, and deeply appreciative of the honor you have bestowed upon me.

This is the first time in over fifty years that the party of my choice has been the majority party in the Legislature. I look on this state of affairs not merely as a victory for the Democratic Party, but as a challenge to both parties. There lies before the 102nd Legislature an opportunity which few legislatures have had to such degree. And that opportunity is to resolve the numerous problems which are facing the State of Maine in these rapidly moving times.

It is incumbent on all of us to keep in mind that our first obligation is to the people of this state. There will be areas of disagreement among us, to be sure, but we must strive to limit these areas to choices of the best methods of solving the problems of the state. Although we may differ in our conceptions of the best answers, we have a basic duty to pursue policies that will mean progress for Maine.

The late John Fitzgerald Kennedy once said, "My experience in government is that when things are non-controversial, beautifully co-ordinated and all the rest, it must be that there is not much going on."

The road that lies ahead will be difficult enough without allowing partisan politics to cause us to stumble on our way. The needs of education, governmental reforms, and health and welfare are extremely pressing, and we will need the best that is in all of us to find intelligent ways of taking care of these needs.

Let us be guided by the standard John Winthrop set before his shipmates 334 years ago as they faced the task of building a new government.

"We must always consider," he said, "that we shall be as a city upon a hill — the eyes of all people are truly upon us."

Today, the eyes of all people in Maine are truly upon us — and our state government must be as a city upon a hill — constructed and inhabited by men and women aware of their grave trust and great responsibilities.

I close my remarks by pledging to you that I shall endeavor to do my very best as your presiding officer, and I request the best from you. (Applause)

At this time, a message was received from the Senate borne by Senator Harding of Aroostook that the Senate had been duly organized by the election of Honorable Carleton Day Reed as President, Edwin H. Pert as Secretary, and Waldo H. Clark as Assistant Secretary, and that the Senate was ready to transact such business as might come before it.

On motion of Mr. Nadeau of Biddeford,

Messrs. NADEAU	of Biddeford
BLOUIN	of Sanford
LEBEL	of Van Buren
MILLS	of Eastport
BRAGDON	of Perham
YOUNG	of Gouldsboro
KITTREDGE

of South Thomaston

were appointed a committee to receive, sort and count votes for Clerk of the House.

On motion of Mr. Kennedy of Milbridge, it was voted that the Committee cast one ballot for Honorable Jerome G. Plante of Old Orchard Beach as Clerk of the House of Representatives of the One Hundred and Second Legislature.

Thereupon, the Chairman of the Committee cast one ballot for Honorable Jerome G. Plante as Clerk of the House and that gentleman was declared duly elected as Clerk of the House of the One Hundred and Second Legislature. (Applause)

The SPEAKER: The Chair will request the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort the gentleman from Old Orchard Beach, Mr. Plante, to the Governor for the purpose of being sworn in.

Subsequently, Mr. Plante, Clerk, having taken and subscribed the oaths required by the Constitution to qualify him to enter upon the discharge of his official duties, appeared and entered upon the discharge of his official duties.

Mr. Bragdon of Perham presented the following Order and moved its passage:

WHEREAS, the responsibilities of the Honorable Harvey R. Pease, of Wiscasset, as Clerk of this House have ceased; and

WHEREAS, through his many years of service, he has faithfully discharged the gravest responsibilities resting upon him in this capacity; and

WHEREAS, his native reverence for the parliamentary way has inculcated the many successive members of this House with an inspiring insight into the venerable character and functions of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, the weight of his years of devoted service has attached a cherished sentiment to his judgment and feelings in the deliberations and proceedings over which he has so long presided; now, therefore, be it

ORDERED, that as typifying the dignity and spirit which characterizes the best in government by constitutional democracy, that the fullest measure of respect be paid to the Honorable Harvey R. Pease, without whose unparalleled service, the sessions of this body from 1933 to 1964 could not have attained the full standard of excellence seldom achieved in the legislative history of this or any other state; and be it further ORDERED, as a signal mark of its affection, that an attested copy of this order signed by the Speaker be immediately transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the Honorable Harvey R. Pease, with the warmest wishes for his every further success.

The Order received passage.

The SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Cape Elizabeth, Mr. Berry.

Mr. BERRY: Mr. Speaker and Members of the 102nd Legislature: I believe that little can be added today to what has been said in the past about Harvey Pease and his Clerkship of the House of Representatives. Certainly we shall hear more in the future.

I believe those of us who have served under Harvey, would say that his prime consideration, his guiding motive, was the orderly conduct of the business of the House of Representatives. Certainly he leaves behind him a monument of which he may be very proud.

The SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lewiston, Mr. Jalbert.

Mr. JALBERT: Mr. Speaker and Members of the House: I question if anyone could be as eloquent in any way as the words of the Order indicates and the remarks of my good friend from Cape Elizabeth, Mr. Berry.

However, I am one of those who has served with Harvey since 1945, and I assure every one of you here that I learned a great deal from him. As a matter of fact, seven times I was actually Harvey's counterpart or Harvey Pease, when we we had our Mock Sessions. I got to a point where I could do a pretty good job; I also got to a point where I knew not only some of the rules of the House, but I got to know some of Harvey's rules, and believe me, he can write 'em. What I want to say before he takes his leave, I am going to make very certain that I get myself either the original or a set of Harvey's rules.

Seriously, I have had many friendly tussles with Harvey over the years, and every time I came out I got spanked, but I never won a decision; I learned a great deal, and we always wound up the very firmest and closest of friends, because a friendship was strong enough to withhold many, many real solid, sound friendly discussions. So with all the sincerity at my command, and I know that all the Members here join me, I am certainly very happy for my young friend from Old Orchard, Jerome Plante, but certainly I have a little sorrow in my heart. Harvey, God speed. (Applause)

The SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Houlton, Mr. Berman.

Mr. BERMAN: Mr. Speaker, Members of the House: Harvey R. Pease has been our most excellent friend for many years, and we shall all miss him.

At this point, the Honorable Harvey R. Pease received a prolonged standing ovation.

Mr. HARVEY R. PEASE: Whether you know it or not, the Speaker has just granted me unanimous consent to address the House. (laughter) Once in a while in the past thirty or forty years something went on that I didn't know about. I hardly expected anything to go on this morning, but apparently it did.

My old friends here realize that I don't apologize very often. If my actions seem precipitate this morning, it was due to perhaps an inexcusable misunderstanding of what was going on, and the lack of knowledge. Now you are not being charged as a jury, and ladies and gentlemen, you may be seated.

Let me wish you all luck, and you are going to need it. I have had a wonderful time, a wonderful lifetime, and I wish you luck in the next — what's it going to be, four and one-half months do I hear? I hope so. Goodbye.

(Prolonged applause, the audience rising, as the Honorable Harvey R. Pease was escorted from the Hall of the House of Representatives by Representative Kennedy of Milbridge)

On motion of Mr. Cottrell of Portland,

Mr. COTTRELL of Portland
Mrs. KILROY of Portland
Messrs. BOURGOIN of Fort Kent
CURRAN of Bangor
BERMAN of Houlton
ANDERSON of Ellsworth
HUNTER of Clinton

were appointed a committee to receive, sort and count votes for Assistant Clerk of the House.

On motion of Mr. Kennedy of Milbridge, it was voted that the Committee cast one ballot for Howard M. Cunningham as Assistant Clerk of the House of Representatives of the One Hundred and Second Legislature.

Thereupon, the Chairman of the Committee cast one ballot for Howard M. Cunningham as Assistant Clerk of the House and that gentleman was declared duly elected as Assistant Clerk of the House of the One Hundred and Second Legislature. (Applause)

The SPEAKER: The Chair will request the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort Howard M. Cunningham to the Governor for the purpose of being sworn in.

Subsequently, Mr. Cunningham, Assistant Clerk, having taken and subscribed the oaths required by the Constitution to qualify him to enter upon the discharge of his official duties, appeared and entered upon the discharge of his official duties.

On motion of the gentlewoman from Portland, Mrs. Kilroy, House Rule 25 was suspended for the remainder of today's session in order to permit smoking.

A message was received from the Senate, borne by Secretary Pert, proposing a session of the two branches of the Legislature to be held in the Hall of the House at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of electing a Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Attorney General, State Auditor, Commissioner of Agriculture, and seven Executive Councilors.

On motion of Mr. Levesque of Madawaska, the House voted to concur in the proposal for a Joint Convention and the Clerk was instructed to convey the message to the Senate.

The Clerk subsequently reported that he had discharged the duty assigned him.

ORDERED, that Raymond O. Gidney, Jr., of East Vassalboro, be the Official Reporter of the House; and that he be authorized to procure the services of an Assistant Reporter and two Transcribing Clerks during the present session for the preparation and completion of the Legislative Record.
