LEGISLATIVE RECORD

OF THE

One Hundred and Seventh Legislature

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

1975

KENNEBEC JOURNAL
AUGUSTA, MAINE

SENATE

Wednesday, January 1, 1975

Pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution and the laws of the State of Maine, the Senators-elect to the One Hundred and Seventh Legislature convened in the Senate Chamber and were called to order by Harry N. Starbranch, Secretary of the Senate of the One Hundred and Sixth Legislature.

Prayer by Father Paul E. Coughlin of Augusta:

Lord God, we are here to celebrate a beginning. We take this moment in time to meet to celebrate the world which made us and which we are making because we are your people and leaders of the family of man.

We pray that we may become more conscious of all the world loves, pursues and suffers, the first to seek, to sympathize and to suffer, the first to open and sacrifice ourselves, to become more widely human and more nobly of the earth than any of the world's servants, and we pray this as we gather in God's name. Amen.

(s) JOSEPH T. EDGAR
Secretary of State

Which was Read and Ordered Placed on File.

The roll being called, the following Senators-elect responded to their names: Elmer F. Berry, Richard N. Berry, Carbonneau, Cianchette, Clifford, Collins, Conley, Cummings, Curtis, Cyr, Danton, Gahagan, Graffam, Graham, Greeley, Hichens, Huber, Jackson, Johnston, Marcotte, McNally, Merrill, O'Leary, Pray, Reeves, Roberts, Speers, Thomas, Trotzky, Wyman, and Sewall.

31 Senators-elect having answered to the roll call, the Secretary declared that a quorum was present.

Subsequently, Mr. Katz of Kennebec took his seat in the Senate Chambers

On motion by Mr. Speers of Kennebec, that Senator-elect was charged with carrying a message to the Governor and Council informing them that a quorum of the Senators-elect was present in the Senate Chamber, ready to take and subscribe to the oaths of office required by the Constitution to qualify them to enter upon the discharge of their official duties.

Subsequently, Mr. Speers reported that he had delivered the message with which he was charged and the Governor was pleased to reply that he would attend upon the Senators-elect forthwith for the purpose of administering to them the oaths of office required by the Constitution.

Thereupon, the Governor, the Honorable Kenneth M. Curtis, attended by the Executive Council, came in and the Senators-elect took and subscribed the oaths of office required by the Constitution.

The Governor then addressed the Senate as follows:

GOVERNOR CURTIS: Distinguished members of the 107th Maine Senate, and ladies and gentlemen: Now that you are sworn in and officially seated as members of Maine's 107th Legislature, let me congratulate you on your assumption of office and commend you for your readiness to serve Maine and its people.

I would also like to compliment you on your apparent choice of leadership. House Speaker John Martin and Senate President Joe Sewall are outstanding legislators with whom I have been privileged to work these past eight years. The majority and minority floor leaders of the House and Senate likewise are experienced and most able lawmakers. I think this combined leadership at the head of this elected assembly holds the promise of a legislative session of continued progress for the people of Maine.

Each session of the Legislature faces its own special set of problems and challenges peculiar to its era, and certainly the 107th Legislature will be no exception. National inflation and recession and the continuing energy crisis pose grave problems that must be addressed, and while Maine by itself cannot provide the cures to ailments of international dimensions, it must do what it can to care for Maine people who number among the victims of the times. They are especially the elderly, the poor and the ill, and the unemployed. Paradoxically, the times which make them victims, giving ever greater urgency to appeals for government to do more for the sake of humanity, these same times also give rise to demands for government to do less for the sake of our pocketbooks. So resolving this paradox will be the most difficult task that you face.

Eight years ago when I took my first oath of office, I borrowed a quote from Franklin Roosevelt for my inaugural address. "The test of progress", he said, "is not whether we add more to the abundance of those who have much; it is whether we provide enough for those who have too little." And I believe that statement is as true now as ever, for I believe that in the service of that vision of progress the people are best served.

Crucial, complex questions await your will, your wisdom, and your resolution. And as you search for and find the answers, I know that you will also find much satisfaction from having chosen to serve during the time when the need for service and the opportunities for service were great.

Previous legislators have made history in establishing a record for you to build on. During my years here, I have seen legislative enactment of fairer taxation, special assistance to the aged and the ill, measures to protect Maine's invaluable environment, reorganization of state government, and expanded educational opportunities become historic accomplishments, envied and emulated by other states. And as legislators met great challenges of the past, so can you meet the challenges of the future. And when historians look back upon this era as a time of national economic difficulty, a time of uncertainty, you, by the decisions you will make, can help to ensure that in Maine, at least, they will also see it as a time of compassion, a time of understanding, a time of Maine people sharing hardship as well as good fortune.

So my best wishes go to you all and to Governor Longley. It has been a privilege to serve with great numbers of dedicated public servants and state employees that we have in Maine government, and also with those in private life who have been willing to help with advice, time and effort. And I especially want to extend thanks to the department heads, my administrative staff, and the staff in the various departments who have worked faithfully to carry out the laws that the legislature has written. One day as you leave public service, as I do now, I know that you too will look back and realize that there can be no greater privilege than to work for the people of the State of Maine.

My family and I will never forget our years in the Blaine House, and we will never forget the people we have known or the friendship we have been shown. So I want to thank you all and wish you the best and say goodby.

Thereupon, the Governor and Council withdrew from the Chamber amid the applause of the Senate, the members rising.

On motion by Mr. Conley of Cumberland, Senator Speers of Kennebec was authorized to cast one ballot on the part of the Senate in favor of Joseph Sewall for President of the Senate.

Thereupon, the Chair declared Mr. Sewall of Penobscot duly elected President of the Senate for the political years 1975 and 1976.

The Chair then requested Mr. Conley of Cumberland to escort President Sewall to the rostrum.

Whereupon, Mr. Conley of Cumberland escorted President Sewall to the rostrum where he addressed the Senate as follows:

PRESIDENT SEWALL: Thank you all very much. I want to express my appreciation for the very kind and generous gesture of the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Conley. I also want to thank the Senate for the confidence you have placed in me by electing me the President of this austere body. It is indeed a very great honor and I accept it with a great sense of humility.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank Harry Starbranch and his staff for the fine job they have done over the past several weeks preparing for this session.

Today the 107th Legislature convenes with many difficult and trying decisions facing us in the days ahead, important decisions which will map the future course of our great state. Great challenges face us all, and I am sure each of you are as eager to meet them as am I. I pledge to serve you in this office to the utmost of my ability and to be as impartial, honest and forthright as was my predecessor, Senator Kenneth MacLeod. My door will always be open to each of you, regardless of party, and my concerns will be for your needs and problems.

It is our duty, as stated in the Maine Constitution, to make and establish all reasonable laws and regulations for the defense and benefit of the people of this state. Let us never forget this. And shall we remember foremost throughout our tenure that we are here to serve and represent others, not simply ourselves, in the discharge of our responsibilities. Thank you very much. (Applause)

The President then noted the presence of the Senator-elect from Somerset, Mr. Corson, and requested Senator Speers of Kennebec to escort Mr. Corson to the Council Chamber for the purpose of subscribing to the oath of office required by the Constitution.

Mr. Speers subsequently announced that he had performed the duty with which he was charged and escorted Senator Corson to his seat in the Senate Chamber.

On motion by Mrs. Cummings of Penobscot, Mr. Curtis of Penobscot was authorized to cast one ballot on the part of the Senate in favor of Harry N. Starbranch for Secretary of the Senate.

The President then declared Harry N. Starbranch of Augusta duly elected

Secretary of the Senate for the political years 1975 and 1976.

At the request of the President, Mr. Hichens of York escorted the Secretary-elect to the Council Chamber for the purpose of taking and subscribing to the necessary oaths of office to qualify him to enter upon the discharge of the duties of the Secretary of the Senate.

Subsequently, Mr. Hichens reported to the Senate that he had attended to the duty assigned to him and that Harry N. Starbranch had before the Governor and Council taken and subscribed the oaths of office required to qualify him for the discharge of the duties of Secretary of the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Greeley of Waldo, Mr. Berry of Cumberland was authorized to cast one ballot on the part of the Senate in favor of May M. Ross for Assistant Secretary of the Senate.

The President then declared May M. Ross of Augusta duly elected Assistant Secretary of the Senate for the political years 1975 and 1976.

Thereupon, Mrs. Ross subsequently appeared before the Governor and Council to take and subscribe to the oaths of office.

On motion by Mr. Curtis of Penobscot, the Senate voted to send a message to the House of Representatives informing that body that the Senate had organized by the choice of Joseph Sewall as President, Harry N. Starbranch as Secretary, and May M. Ross as Assistant Secretary.

Thereupon, at the request of the President, the Secretary carried the message to the House of Representatives and subsequently reported that he had delivered the message with which he was charged.

Orders

On motion by Mr. Speers of Kennebec, ORDERED, that a committee of seven be appointed to which four shall be appointed by the Majority Leader and three shall be appointed by the Minority Leader to which the returns of votes for Senators for the political years of 1975 and 1976 shall be referred for examination and report.

Which was Read and Passed.

On motion by Mr. Conley of Cumberland,

ORDERED, the House concurring, that the return of votes for the Governor, given in the several cities, towns and plantations of the State for the political years 1975, 1976, 1977 and 1978, be referred to a Joint Select Committee of seven on the part of the Senate, with such as the House may join. (S. P. 28)

Which was Read and Passed.

Under suspension of the rules, sent down forthwith for concurrence.

At this point a message was received from the House of Representatives, through the Clerk of the House, Mr. Pert, announcing the organization of the House by the election of John L. Martin as Speaker, Edwin H. Pert as Clerk, and Norman P. Whitzell as Assistant Clerk of the House.

Communication

State of Maine
 Director of Legislative Research
 Augusta, Maine 04330
 December 31, 1974

To the Honorable
 Harry N. Starbranch,
 Secretary of the Senate
 of the 107th Legislature

In accordance with the Revised Statutes, Title 3, Section 164, Subsection 10, I hereby submit the report of the Director of Legislative Research.

During the regular session of the 106th Legislature the office of the Director processed 2,076 Acts and resolves and 1,245 amendments.

In order to facilitate the work of the Legislature, this office sent letters to each administrative department and each member of the present Legislature urging the use of the available facilities of the office in the preparation of bills to be introduced. Approximately 410 Acts and resolves were drafted before the Legislature convened and it is hoped that such cooperation may be continued and extended in the future.

The Members of the Legislature are reminded that the Senate and House rules provide that a statement of intent must accompany each bill and amendment, and the members who present bills, resolves and petitions must sign them.

The last revision of the public laws of Maine was enacted by the 101st Legislature in 1964. It is suggested that any criticisms of that revision and of the current method for updating, whether constructive or otherwise, be forwarded to the Director for aid in planning future revisions.

In order to continue and promote uniformity of procedure, to avoid confusion and to permit an orderly transition from revision to revision, all bills, before presentation to the Legislature, should be checked by the office of the Director. The cooperation of the members of the 107th Legislature in this respect is earnestly requested.

Respectfully,
 David S. Silsby,
 Director

(SP 036)

Which was Read and Ordered placed on File.

Under suspension of the rules, sent down forthwith for concurrence.

At this point a message was received from the House of Representatives, through Majority Floor Leader Neil Rolde, informing the Senate that the House concurs in the recent proposal for a Joint Convention, to be held at four o'clock this afternoon in the Hall of the House, for the purpose set forth in the proposal.

To the President of the Senate:

I have under separate cover transmitted to you the return of votes cast for Senators to the Legislature at the General Election held on November 5, 1975.

A recount was conducted in Senatorial District 27 and there are presently 127 ballots in dispute.

Attached you will find a copy of a letter received in this office in which Mr. Michael Pearson requests that the determination of the election be referred to the Maine State Senate.

State of Maine

Petition to the 107th Legislature of The State of Maine on The Seating of Joseph Sewall in the Maine State Senate

To: The Honorable Harry Starbranch,
 Secretary, Maine State Senate,
 State of Maine

RESPECTFULLY REPRESENTS,
 Michael D. Pearson, of Old Town, County of Penobscot, and State of Maine:

Your Petitioner alleges that he was the Democratic candidate for the Maine State Senate to the 107th Legislature of the State of Maine in the November 5, 1974 election in Senate District No. 27 in the Counties of Penobscot and Aroostook and State of Maine;

That he was opposed in said general election for said office of State Senator by Joseph Sewall of Old Town, County of Penobscot, and State of Maine;

That the return as determined by said Senate District No. 27 following the November 5, 1974 election indicated that said Joseph Sewall received 4,968 votes and that the Petitioner received 4,950 votes, making Joseph Sewall ostensibly the winner of the election;

That a recount of ballots was held on December 4 and 16, 1974, in the office of the Secretary of State in Augusta, Maine, and that the tentative results between the Petitioner and his opponent Joseph Sewall showed that Joseph Sewall received 4,985 votes and that the Petitioner received 4,973 votes. At said recount, 127 ballots cast in said Senate District No. 27 were contested;

Also, your Petitioner prays that by reason of the great variance in the official tabulation as originally returned and by the tabulations after the recount, that the votes in the Municipalities of Lincoln and Old Town ought to be recounted under the supervision of the Maine State Senate;

That the Petitioner and his opponent Joseph Sewall have been unable to agree on the validity of 127 ballots or for whom they should be counted;

That your Petitioner further alleges that of the 127 disputed ballots, 62 are for the Petitioner, and 60 are for Joseph Sewall, and 5 appear to be for neither candidate;

Your Petitioner further alleges that according to his computation of the disputed ballots, 22 are valid and should be counted for Joseph Sewall, and 51 are valid and should be counted for Michael D. Pearson, and the remainder of 54 are invalid and should not be counted for either candidate. If a recount in the Municipalities of Lincoln and Old Town should leave the results unchanged as tabulated by the recount in the office of the Secretary of State, it would mean as a result the election of the Petitioner to the Senate seat in question by a vote of 5024 in his favor to 5007 for his opponent.

WHEREFORE, your Petitioner prays that the 107th Legislature will vacate the seat previously awarded to the said Joseph Sewall and award said seat to your Petitioner, Michael D. Pearson, and give such further relief as the situation may require.

Dated this 28th day of December, 1974.

To the Governor,
 Legislature and People of Maine:

The attached Survey of Municipal Planning and Regulatory Activity contains a summary of the current status (October 1974) of municipal planning and land use controls in Maine, a comparison with the situation in 1972 and 1973, and a series of charts showing the level of activity in each municipality in Maine, grouped according to the eight Official Planning and Development Districts.

The increasing number of Maine Municipalities with Planning Boards, Membership in Regional Planning Commissions, and a Comprehensive Planning Process, all demonstrate a growing concern for the future at the local level. Zoning ordinances covering all or part of a municipality have been adopted by 29 percent of Maine's cities and towns, unfortunately only a moderate increase since 1973. Shoreland zoning ordinances, which had been adopted by only 8 percent of Maine's municipalities in January 1974, have now been adopted by 58 percent, a total of 253 cities and towns, as of October 16, 1974. Only 9 percent of municipalities have Housing Codes and there has been a slight decline in reported Capital Improvement Programs.

As shown in Table 2, there is a direct correlation between the size of a municipality and the adoption of zoning other than shoreland zoning. Of municipalities over 10,000 population, 94 percent have zoning ordinances but this declines to 11 percent for municipalities with under 500 population.

Municipal subdivision controls, either ordinances adopted by the legislative body or regulations adopted by the municipal reviewing authority, have been adopted by 43 percent of Maine's cities and towns. Building Codes and Mobile Home Ordinances have also increased in 1973. Conservation Commissions, first reported in 1973, have increased to a total of 191, 43 percent of Maine's municipalities.

The Map on the Current Status of Land Use Controls, October 1974, and the individual tables show the extent of activity at the local level and the size of the task still ahead.

Sincerely,
 PHILIP M. SAVAGE
 State Planning Director

Paper From The House

Out of order and under suspension of the rules, the Senate voted to take up the following:

Bill, "An Act to Clarify Motor Vehicle Finance Charges in the Maine Consumer Credit Code." (H. P. 5) (L. D. 10)

The Committee on Reference of Bills suggests that this Bill be referred to the Committee on Business Legislation.

Comes from the House, Passed to be Engrossed without reference to Committee and Ordered Printed.

In the Senate, under suspension of the rules, the Bill was given its First Reading.

The PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Speers.

Mr. SPEERS: Mr. President, I believe a brief explanation of what is transpiring here would be in order for the record. This matter has been discussed in caucus, I believe, by both of the parties, but I think that, for the record, we should clarify why it is necessary to pass and enact a measure on the first day of the session.

The Uniform Consumer Credit Code, when it was enacted in the 106th Legislature, contained a mistake within it that all parties concerned do agree was an honest error and was not intentional, but the mistake does provide an undue hardship upon one certain segment of the population as it does exist at the present time and as it goes into effect today, January 1, 1975, as was written into the legislation originally enacted.

That mistake, Mr. President, provides or would have the effect of denying to automobile dealers the opportunity to sell automobiles and finance those automobiles, and this in turn contemplates a very undue hardship upon consumers in the State of Maine who are unable to obtain financing through banks. The amendment that is before us at the present time would correct this situation and would return the Uniform Consumer Credit Code to its form that was originally intended, and it would then alleviate this situation that we would otherwise find ourselves in and allow automobiles to be financed by the automobile dealers.

With that in mind, Mr. President, I would move that the rules be suspended and that this bill be given its second reading at this time.

The PRESIDENT: Is it the pleasure of the Senate that the rules be suspended and the bill be given its second reading at this time?

Thereupon, under suspension of the rules, the Bill was given its Second Reading and Passed to be Engrossed in concurrence.

Under further suspension of the rules, sent forthwith to the Engrossing Department.
