

MAINE STATE LEGISLATURE

The following document is provided by the LAW AND LEGISLATIVE DIGITAL LIBRARY
at the Maine State Law and Legislative Reference Library
<http://legislature.maine.gov/lawlib>

Reproduced from scanned originals with text recognition applied
(searchable text may contain some errors and/or omissions)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD

OF THE

One Hundred and Eleventh Legislature

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

Volume II

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

May 16, 1983 to June 24, 1983

INDEX

FIRST CONFIRMATION SESSION

August 4, 1983

INDEX

FIRST SPECIAL SESSION

September 6 and 7, 1983

INDEX

SECOND CONFIRMATION SESSION

September 23, 1983

INDEX

THIRD CONFIRMATION SESSION

October 28, 1983

INDEX

SECOND SPECIAL SESSION

November 18, 1983

INDEX

APPENDIX TO THE
LEGISLATIVE RECORD
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
111th MAINE LEGISLATURE

The following expressions of Senate Legislative Sentiment appeared in the Senate Calendar between January 5, 1983 and June 24, 1983 pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

Thomas Dean, Boy Scout Troop 518, Wilton, who has achieved the high honor and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 1)

Rebecca Boucher, of Cushing School, for a winning poster in the Handicapped Awareness Contest of the Maine Planning and Advisory Council on Developmental Disabilities; (SLS 2)

Bill Peppard, who is retiring from the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife after years of dedicated service to the people of Maine; (SLS 3)

Seth Coffey, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Coffey, of Eliot, a member of Boy Scout Troop 307, who has received the high honor and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 4)

Ed King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent King, of Kittery, a member of Boy Scout Troop 307, who has received the high honor and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 5)

Napoleon L. Nadeau, of Biddeford, an active worker for the Franco-American cause throughout his life and a Democratic member of the Maine House of Representatives for 28 years; (in Memoriam) (SLS 6)

Captain Steven Hamilton Edwards, United States Navy, who has been awarded the Legion of Merit by the President of the United States for exceptionally meritorious service; (SLS 7)

Edith Livermore, of Brooklin, who has celebrated the 100th anniversary of her birth; (SLS 8)

Leon L. Bean, founder of L. L. Bean, Inc., Freeport, who was elected to the Direct Mail/Marketing Association's Hall of Fame on November 3, 1982; (SLS 9)

Albert Giberson, of Gardiner, whose prompt action saved a person from drowning; (SLS 10)

Choungtai (Charles) Chee, of Cape Elizabeth, a leader in the State's fishing industry; (in Memoriam) (SLS 11)

William Rodenberger, for outstanding service in Maine public health programs; (SLS 12)

Mark D. LaPointe, for outstanding work in the Maine Diabetes Control Program; (SLS 13)

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Sylvester, of Orr's Island, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on December 24, 1982; (SLS 14)

Edmund A. MacDonald, a staff reporter for the Lewiston Daily Sun, who has been cited for his faithful meritorious service and continuous excellence by the Maine Veterans of Foreign Wars; (SLS 15)

Brownie Schrupf, of Orono, upon the occasion of her 80th birthday and for her many contributions to her community and the State of Maine; (SLS 16)

Fred Murphy, of Houlton High School, member of the National Cross Country Championship Team of 1932; (SLS 17)

Gerald Wiggins, of Houlton High School, member of the National Cross Country Championship Team of 1932; (SLS 18)

Lawrence Brown, of Houlton High School, member of the National Cross Country Championship Team of 1932; (SLS 19)

Roy Gartley, of Houlton High School, member of the National Cross Country Championship Team of 1932; (SLS 20)

Earl Boyden, who is retiring after over 40 years of dedicated service as policeman and firefighter for the Town of Windham; (SLS 21)

Maynard "Junior" Rogers, who is retiring after serving over 40 years in the Windham Volunteer Fire Department; (SLS 22)

Vincent Hartgen, of the University of Maine at Orono, upon his retirement as curator of the University Art Collection and for his extraordinary support and nourishment of the arts in Maine; (SLS 23)

The Honorable Edgar Fuller Cousins, of Old

Town, a member of the 90th, 91st and 92nd Legislatures and a highly respected member of his community; (in Memoriam) (SLS 24)

Raymond and Aletha Cutting Campbell who celebrated the 65th anniversary of their wedding on January 5, 1983; (SLS 25)

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cote, of Rumford, who celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary; (SLS 26)

Master Sgt. Robert J. Arsenault, of Rumford, who has been named outstanding noncommissioned officer of the quarter for the squadron at Hill Air Force Base, Utah; (SLS 27)

Staff Sgt. Thomas P. Casey, son of Charles D. Casey, of Mexico, who was one of the overall winners in the United States Air Force Tactical Air Command's air-to-air weapons meet, William Tell; (SLS 28)

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hodson, formerly of Dixfield, who recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary; (SLS 29)

Melinda Parent, of Milford, an outstanding gymnast, who will be recognized February 21, 1983, on ABC's "The Incredible Kids" for her gymnastic ability; (SLS 30)

Leroy F. Linnell, who is retiring as City Clerk of Auburn after 22 years of service; (SLS 31)

Peter A. Thibeau, of Eliot, who has attained the high honor and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 32)

Lester Beals, a former selectman of Acton; (in Memoriam) (SLS 33)

Jerome H. Barnett, an outstanding person and well known Augusta businessman, who specialized in economic development; (in Memoriam) (SLS 34)

Dan Desrochers, who has been selected Sanford Jaycees' Outstanding Young Man; (SLS 35)

Professor Robert Thomson, of Old Town, a respected scholar, who has contributed immeasurably to the study and practice of government in the State of Maine; (in Memoriam) (SLS 36)

Marjorie and Ralph Price, of South Portland, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on December 8, 1982; (SLS 37)

Mary Webster, of Cape Elizabeth, who has been chosen by the Maine Jaycees as one of "Maine's Outstanding Young Men and Women of the Year"; (SLS 38)

Eric R. Hutchins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hutchins, who has received the high honor and distinction of Eagle Scout in Eliot Boy Scout Troop 340; (SLS 39)

Halden Turner, who is retiring from the Bureau of Purchases after 26 years of dedicated service; (SLS 40)

The Honorable Nathaniel M. Haskell, a distinguished citizen of Portland and Member of the 91st, 92nd, 93rd, 94th, 95th, and 96th Maine Legislatures, Speaker of the House of Representatives from 1949-1950, President of the Senate from 1953-1954 and former Governor of Maine; (in Memoriam) (SLS 41)

Geraldine E. Smith, of South Portland, who has been chosen State President of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars; (SLS 42)

Rand Joseph Paradis, son of Eugene and Cora Paradis of Old Town; (in Memoriam) (SLS 43)

C. Andrew Redmond, of Madison, who was named to the Deans List for 1982 at Providence College in Providence Rhode Island; (SLS 44)

Charles C. Lumbert, of Moose River, who has been named Developer of the Year for Somerset County; (SLS 45)

Stephanie Lundeen, a junior at Central Aroostook High School, who has scored 1,000 points on the Girls' Varsity Basketball Team; (SLS 46)

Mrs. Donna Fogg, of Guilford, for her many years of service to the Unit, County District and Department of the Maine American Legion Auxiliary, and her leadership as State President; (SLS 47)

The Captain Frank W. Hulett Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, of Auburn, recipient of the Eunice Kennedy Shriver Special Olympic plaque for support of the Olympian program to benefit handicapped children; (SLS 48)

Earl Boyden, a well-known and respected policeman and fireman with over 40 years of dedicated service to the Town of Windham; (in Memoriam) (SLS 49)

Andrea Richards, of Pownal, a Freeport High School senior, whose poster won first place in Maine for grades 10 through 12 in the National Career Guidance Week contest; (SLS 50)

Dr. Arthur Hauck, President of the University of Maine from 1934-1958, on the occasion of his 90th birthday; (SLS 51)

George Wentworth, who coached at Stearns High School in Millinocket, who has been selected Coach of the Half Century by readers of the Bangor Daily News; (SLS 52)

The warmth, generosity and goodwill of the members and elected leaders of the Penobscot Nation, the Passamaquoddy Tribe and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians, and their Representatives to the Legislature, Jim Sappier and Wayne Newell, for their hosting of the festive and successful Indian Night reception in Augusta, February 16, 1983; (SLS 53)

Paul Fillebrown, an outstanding emergency medical technician, of the Stoneham Rescue Service, who was severely injured while rendering aid in the line of duty the night of January 29, 1982; (SLS 54)

Stephen Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fleming of Ludlow, who was chosen as a recipient of the DAR Good Citizen Award; (indefinitely postponed) (SLS 55)

Lisa Libby, of Bath, who has been named the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen for Morse High School; (SLS 56)

Dr. Philip O. Gregory, of Boothbay Harbor, who spent his lifetime in serving that community; (in Memoriam) (SLS 57)

William Noyes, Jr., of South Portland, recipient of the 1983 Jefferson Award for meaningful contributions to public service in Maine; (SLS 58)

Mrs. Grace Moulton, of Cape Elizabeth, recipient of the 1983 Jefferson Award for meaningful contributions to public service in Maine; (SLS 59)

Tammy Anair, a senior at Winthrop High School, who has scored 1,000 points in girls' varsity basketball; (SLS 60)

Adeline S. Bowe, of Blue Hill, on the celebration of her 89th birthday; (SLS 61)

George Humphrey, of Van Buren, a public-spirited man involved in the betterment of his community; (in Memoriam) (SLS 62)

Janet Cyr, of Van Buren, for being elected Miss Van Buren for 1982; (SLS 63)

Brenda Voisine, of Fort Kent, for being selected Miss Fort Kent for 1982; (SLS 64)

Professor Hubert Thibodeau for his quarter century of service to students and faculty at the University of Maine at Fort Kent; (SLS 65)

Dr. Verne Morey for his quarter century of service to students and faculty at the University of Maine at Fort Kent; (SLS 66)

John Houghton, upon his retirement as Superintendent of Madawaska School System for the last 15 years; (SLS 67)

The Madawaska High School Owls, winners of the Eastern Maine Class B soccer championship for 1982; (SLS 68)

Deborah A. Gervais, a student at Madawaska High School, for being selected as a State of Maine Scholar for 1982; (SLS 69)

Lee Anne Paradis, of Madawaska, for being selected Miss Madawaska for 1982; (SLS 70)

Lorie Davis, of Limestone, for being selected Miss Limestone for 1982; (SLS 71)

Michael J. Cote, of Limestone, for attaining the American Farmer Degree, the highest membership degree in the Future Farmers of America; (SLS 72)

Norman Walker, of Skowhegan, who has been named citizen of the Year by the Skowhe-

gan Chamber of Commerce; (SLS 73)

Matt Rossignol, of Van Buren, all-tournament selection for Eastern Maine Boys' Class B Basketball 1982-83 academic year; (SLS 74)

Kelly L. Fitzpatrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzpatrick of Houlton, who was chosen as a recipient of the DAR Good Citizen Award; (SLS 75)

The Houlton High School Shiretowners, and coach John Donato, Eastern Maine Class B Girls' Champions for the second consecutive year; (SLS 76)

Cummings Health Care Facility dedicated March 5, 1983; (SLS 77)

Matthew Byther, of Troop No. 74 of Old Town, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 78)

Daniel Belyea, of Troop No. 74 of Old Town, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 79)

David LeTourneau, of Troop No. 74 of Old Town, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 80)

Edmund Vereault, of Troop No. 74 of Old Town, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 81)

Troy Jordan, of Troop No. 74 of Old Town, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 82)

The East Grand Vikings, and coach Brett Moore, of Danforth, winners of the State of Maine Class D Girls' Basketball Championship for the 4th consecutive year; (SLS 83)

Laine Hoffmeister, of Auburn, crowned Mrs. Maine for 1983; (SLS 84)

The Honorable Harold L. Keay, of Albion, a well-known merchant and Member of the 96th Maine Legislature; (in Memoriam) (SLS 85)

Peter S. Reaman, of Troop 74 of Old Town, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 86)

Elmer J. Burnham, of Kittery, who served as a member of the 82nd and 87th Maine Legislatures and who at 97 was Maine's oldest living attorney; (in Memoriam) (SLS 87)

Christine M. Kennedy, of Auburn, who placed 1st in a read-a-thon sponsored by the Maine Chapter of the Multiple Sclerosis Society; (SLS 88)

Dr. John B. Truslow of Biddeford; (in Memoriam) (SLS 89)

Lynn Marshall, of Mexico High School, recipient of the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizens High School Award; (SLS 90)

Carol Arsenault, of Rumford High School, recipient of the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizens High School Award; (SLS 91)

Pam Prue, winner of the St. Athanasius-St. Paul School Spelling Bee; (SLS 92)

Edith Thurston, who celebrated her 96th birthday on March 8, 1983; (SLS 93)

Perk Ramey, Bert Theriault, Fern Cayer, Sylvio Martin and Frank Curato, winners of the Robert Shand Veterans of Foreign Wars State Bowling Championship for the 2nd year; (SLS 94)

Heidi Stowell, of Dirigo High School, recipient of the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizens High School Award; (SLS 95)

Daniel Sean Kersey, of Telstar Regional High School, recipient of the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizens High School Award; (SLS 96)

Alvin Trundy, who celebrated his 103rd birthday on March 8, 1983; (SLS 97)

Robert C. Pingree, of Denmark, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 98)

Carol Cote, of Van Buren High School, State winner in Maine's Second Annual Career Guidance Week Poetry Contest; (SLS 99)

Our friend and colleague the Honorable Warren F. Studley, of Berwick, who served as a member of the House of Representatives in the 109th, 110th and 111th Maine Legislatures; (in

Memoriam) (SLS 100)

David W. Eaton, of Brownfield, who has achieved the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 101)

Clarence A. and Arlene Adams, of Falmouth, who are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary; (SLS 102)

The Windham High School Boys' Varsity Basketball Team, which received the State Principal Association's Good Sportsmanship Award for 1983; (SLS 103)

Le Paresseux Club de Raquetteurs, and President Steve Gallant, on their 55th anniversary; (SLS 104)

Mrs. Darlene Hardy, first place runner-up in the Mrs. Maine American Pageant; (SLS 105)

Roger Mills, Jr., who has retired after 35 years as Andover Fire Chief; (SLS 106)

Rob deFrederico, of Stearns High School, who has been chosen for the Eastern Maine Boys' All Tourney Class A Basketball Team; (SLS 107)

Dale Rowley, a member of Boy Scout Troop 428 in Pittsfield, who has achieved the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 108)

Robert Speed, a member of Boy Scout Troop 428 in Pittsfield, who has achieved the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 109)

Scott Hallett, a member of Boy Scout Troop 428 in Pittsfield, who has achieved the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 110)

The Caribou High School Girls' Basketball Team, coached by Roland Duprey, upon winning the State Championship; (SLS 111)

Mindy Legere, of Rumford High School, winner of the State Class A Girls' Cross Country Skiing Championship; (SLS 112)

The Brunswick Junior High School Chess Team, coached by John Paige, which won the Maine Junior High State Chess Championship for the second consecutive year; (SLS 113)

The Bangor Area Fans, and the Bangor High School Boys' Varsity Basketball Team, coached by Ron Geagen, recipients of the Good Sportsmanship Award for the State Class A Tournament; (SLS 114)

Max E. Poulsen, of North Brooklin, who celebrated the 90th anniversary of his birth; (SLS 115)

Katie Hill, of Marshwood Junior High School, winner of the York County Finals of the Maine Sunday Telegram Spelling Contest; (SLS 116)

Everett Martin, of Rumford, who has retired after 56 years of service to the community as Editor of the Rumford Falls Times; (SLS 117)

Ricky Calden, a senior at Rumford High School, who captured the 119 lb. Title in the State Class A Wrestlers Meet; (SLS 118)

David L. White, former Brunswick Town Councilor, for his conscientious work as the District 3 Representative and for his service to this community; (SLS 119)

Frank F. "Sabe" Sabasteanski, of Brunswick, a Bowdoin alumnus, coach in the Bowdoin athletic department for 37 years, the last 28 years as track and cross-country coach, active member in the Brunswick community and true friend to his athletes and other students and faculty of Bowdoin College; (in Memoriam) (SLS 120)

The Red Riots, of South Portland High School, coached by Tony Hamlin, winners of the State Boys' Class A Basketball Championship for the 1982-83 academic year; (SLS 121)

Mildred G. Burrage, a well-known artist and historian of Wiscasset, formerly of Kennebunkport; (in Memoriam) (SLS 122)

Carleton E. Hutchins, of Eliot, on receiving the Annual Fabyn Drake Award for outstanding service to the Town of Eliot and going that extra mile in serving the people of the town; (SLS 123)

Reginald J. Spinney, of Eliot, on receiving the American Legion Good Neighbor Award for his untiring labors in contributing to the betterment of the town; (SLS 124)

George Denney, President of Cole-Haan Footwear of Yarmouth, and his employees, for making Maine-produced footwear known worldwide in just a few years and for winning the President's "E" Award for exports issued by the United States Commerce Department; (SLS 125)

Donald F. Pierce, who is retiring after 15 years as director of the Capitol Area Regional Vocational Center and 35 years as an Augusta teacher; (SLS 126)

Robert C. Noyes, of Boy Scout Troop 102 in Buckfield, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 127)

Warren Harriman, or Norway, who has been awarded the 1983 Maine Pharmacy Association's Award for Outstanding Community Service; (SLS 128)

Genevieve M. Osier, upon retirement after many years of dedicated public service as Town Clerk of Frenchboro; (SLS 129)

Donald Gary, of Bangor, who is retiring after 20 years of excellent service with the Bangor Fire Department; (SLS 130)

Jim Adams, of Bangor, a 38 year member of the Lions Club, who has set a club record with 31 years of consecutive attendance; (SLS 131)

The 20 cadets from Bangor High Schools' J.R.O.T.C. Program who, accompanied by Michael S. Spekhardt and Michael Freese, successfully completed the Navy's cold weather environmental survival training held in Rangeley; (indefinitely postponed) (SLS 132)

Theodore Hedstrom, who is retiring after 45 years of dedicated public service as Town Clerk of Westmanland; (SLS 133)

Scott Wardwell, son of Calvin and Faye Wardwell, who has been chosen Salutatorian of the 1983 graduating class of Washburn District High School; (SLS 134)

Eric Huston, son of Russell and Betty Huston, who has been chosen Valedictorian of the 1983 graduating class of Washburn District High School; (SLS 135)

Chris Vickers and Scott Hunter, of Caribou, who have been named to the All State Boys' Basketball Team; (SLS 136)

Denise Wyman and Michelle Duprey, of Caribou, who have been selected for the All State Girls' Basketball Team; (SLS 137)

Barbara Keenan, who has been chosen Valedictorian of the 1983 graduating class of Caribou High School; (SLS 138)

Joann Gardner, who has been chosen Salutatorian of the 1983 graduating class of Allagash High School; (SLS 139)

Connie O'Leary, who has been chosen Valedictorian of the 1983 graduating class of Allagash High School; (SLS 140)

Herbert A. Merrill, of Brunswick, who was named Citizen of the Year by the Brunswick Area Chamber of Commerce; (SLS 141)

Mark Wilcox, of Presque Isle, who has been named to the All State Academic High School Boys' Basketball Team; (SLS 142)

Sheryl Ann Vaillancourt, who has been chosen Miss Presque Isle for 1983; (SLS 143)

The Presque Isle High School Stage Band, directed by Richard Kenison, which won 1st place in the State Jazz Festival; (SLS 144)

The Presque Isle Junior Stage Band, directed by David Paiva, which won 1st place in the junior high division of the State Jazz Festival, for the 7th consecutive year; (SLS 145)

Stephen Glidden, who has been chosen Valedictorian of the 1983 graduating class of Presque Isle High School; (SLS 146)

Floyd Rockholt, who has been chosen Salutatorian of the 1983 graduating class of Presque Isle High School; (SLS 147)

The Pee Wee Travel Hockey Team, of the Lewiston and Auburn area, coached by Dick Dumont, Wilfred Deblois and Don Mathieu, upon winning the State Class A Hockey Championship for 1983; (SLS 148)

Camden Police Chief, Albert Smith, who has been elected president of the New England Association of Chiefs of Police; (SLS 149)

The Altrusa Club, in Lewiston-Auburn, which is celebrating its 15th anniversary on April 14, 1983; (SLS 150)

Eleanor B. Bachrach, daughter of Dr. Louis Bachrach and former State Representative Anne Bachrach, who has been appointed Special Deputy State Comptroller to monitor New York City's finances for the State of New York; (SLS 151)

Dudley Bouchard, of Brewer, an outstanding citizen of Brewer and candidate for the Maine Legislature in 1982, on the occasion of his 50th birthday; (SLS 152)

Mary Alice Kiah Johnson, of Brewer, a seventh grade student at Brewer Junior High School, who has been awarded a trophy for building a model nuclear reactor; (SLS 153)

Ron Cote, of Biddeford, who has been named 1983 Coach of the Year by the Southern Maine Activities Association; (SLS 154)

Mary L. Pease, the oldest resident of Biddeford, who celebrated her 107th birthday; (SLS 155)

The Honorable Helen S. Weston, of Nobleboro, first woman County Commissioner in Lincoln County and campaign manager and dearest friend of Senator Charlotte Sewall, Representative Muriel Holloway and Representative Douglas Curtis; (in Memoriam) (SLS 156)

Maleon Gill, of Weld, who has been selected at the Maine Outstanding Teacher of the Year for 1983; (SLS 157)

Tom Oliver, of Wilton, who has received the 1983 Forestry Award; (SLS 158)

Katie Hardy, of Dixfield, 4-H Conservation Poster Winner; (SLS 159)

The George Weeks family, of Mavanatha Farm in Farmington, chosen Outstanding Conservation Farmers of the District; (SLS 160)

The Albion Tracy family, of Farmington, winner of the 1983 Farm Merit Award; (SLS 161)

Derek Cashman, of Old Town, who is the 1983 State Candlepin Bowling Champion, Midget Division — Doubles; (SLS 162)

The 20 cadets from Bangor High Schools' J.R.O.T.C. Program who, accompanied by LTC (ret.) Michael S. Speckhardt and SP5 Michael Freese, successfully completed the Navy's cold weather environmental survival training held in Rangeley; (SLS 163)

Mandel Kemp, of Ellsworth, on the occasion of his 90th birthday; (SLS 164)

Wendell E. Smith, "The Banker," for his contribution in meeting the needs of the people of Waldo County and his support of projects in 4-H and the Boy Scouts of America; (SLS 165)

E. Alfred Margison, who has 33 years of service on the Woodland Board of Selectmen, 12 of those years as First Selectman; (SLS 166)

Edna King, 90, of Perham, a resident of the Caribou Nursing Home, who has been selected as the nursing home's Resident of the Month for March; (SLS 167)

Merle Bragg, Jr., of Washburn, who has been selected to attend the National 4-H Commodity Marketing Symposium, April 23-26, in Chicago; (SLS 168)

Missy Belanger, of Caribou High School, who has been named to the 7th Annual Bangor Daily News All-Maine Girls' Basketball Team; (SLS 169)

Thelma G. Marr, of Thomaston, affectionately known throughout the State as "The Toy Lady," for her outstanding efforts and contributions and her great individual humanitarian and charitable accomplishments; (SLS 170)

The New England Rural Leadership Program that has been developed by the Cooperative Extension Services in New England and the Northeast Regional Center for Rural Development to provide training for potential community leaders who will take an active role in guiding public decision making; (SLS 171)

J. Eugene Boivin, of Rumford, who has been named a recipient of the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation Commissioner's Award, for his dedicated volunteer service in the area of Mental Retardation; (SLS 172)

Theresa Beauchesne, Registered Nurse, who retired from Rumford Community Hospital after 35 years of dedicated service to the Greater Rumford Area, including service as a staff nurse, operating room nurse, assistant operating room supervisor and, for the last 17 years, operating room supervisor; (SLS 173)

Mrs. Joyce C. Palton, who after 33 years of dedicated banking service to the Greater Rumford Area, has been promoted to Vice-President of Maine National Bank; (SLS 174)

Kathy Seamon, of Jay High School, who won 1st place in chemistry at the State Science Fair on April 9, 1983; (SLS 175)

Kelly Tyler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Tyler, who won the 1983 Jay Junior High School Spelling Bee; (SLS 176)

Heidi Kirn, who won the Grand Prize in the 1983 Rumford Junior High School Prize Speaking Competition; (SLS 177)

Kathy Roope, of Presque Isle High School, who has been named to the 7th Annual Bangor Daily News All-Maine Girls' Basketball Team; (SLS 178)

Paul Plissey, of Presque Isle, who won the Men's Open Division of the University of Maine at Presque Isle "Spring Run-off Road Race"; (SLS 179)

Sherri Pelletier, Tim Collins and Joanne Chandler, of Presque Isle, who were named winners at the annual business contests sponsored by Region B of the Business Education Association of Maine; (SLS 180)

Gina LeBlanc, of Presque Isle, who has been selected for recognition of her outstanding dedication to athletics by the United States Achievement Academy of Lexington, Kentucky; (SLS 181)

Emily Higgins, of Presque Isle, who won the Women's Open Division of the University of Maine at Presque Isle "Spring Run-off Road Race"; (SLS 182)

Doug Howard and Jim Dunn, of the University of Maine at Presque Isle, who set a course record in winning the racing division of the Big Rock Canoe Race in Mars Hill; (SLS 183)

Richard N. Lord, a biology teacher at Presque Isle High School, who has been awarded the Gustav Ohaus Award for Innovations in Elementary and Secondary Science Teaching; (SLS 184)

Bill Sproul, a seventh grader at the Academy Hill School in Wilton, who won the 1983 Franklin County Spelling Bee; (SLS 185)

David Fournier, of Jay High School, who took 1st place in physics at the State Science Fair on April 9, 1983; (SLS 186)

The 100th anniversary of the founding of the Brunswick Public Library Association; (SLS 187)

Brunswick True Value Hardware, recipient of the Business of the Year Award from the Brunswick Area Chamber of Commerce; (SLS 188)

Louise Adams Tripp, of Wiscasset, a dear and devoted employee of the Maine Legislature who provided docket and legislative information services to this institution during the 87th, 88th, 89th, 103rd, 104th and 105th Legislatures; (in Memoriam) (SLS 189)

Kimberly Beaulieu, of Standish, the 1st woman resident of this State to finish the 87th Boston Marathon; (SLS 190)

Carrabec High School, of Anson, winners in the annual Western Regional One-Act Play Festival; (SLS 191)

William Farrington, of Medway, the 1st Maine man to finish the 87th Boston Marathon; (SLS 192)

Lynne York, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas York of Crystal, who has been named 1983 Valedictorian of the Southern Aroostook Community School in Dyer Brook; (SLS 193)

James J. Connolly, of Brunswick, who will be inducted in Northeastern University's Hall of Fame on April 29, 1983; (SLS 194)

Wendell Holmes Gilley, of Southwest Harbor, a noted Maine artist, writer and carver; (in

Memoriam) (SLS 195)

Annie "Nana" Winther, of Windham, who will celebrate her 90th birthday on May 28, 1983; (SLS 196)

Kristen Kenoyer, of North Whitefield, who became the 1st Maine gymnast ever to qualify for a national meet following her 2nd place finish in the United States Gymnastics Federation Regional Championships; (SLS 197)

Michael Budd, of Boy Scout Troop 312 in North Berwick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 198)

Andrew Merrill, of Boy Scout Troop 312 in North Berwick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 199)

Scott Normandeau, of Boy Scout Troop 312 in North Berwick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 200)

Melissa Pangburn, of Washburn, who was crowned the 1983 Little Miss Washburn; (SLS 201)

Kathy Mazuchelli, of Caribou, who is the first woman to ever receive the Top Professional Award from the Maine Recreation and Parks Association; (SLS 202)

Bob White, of Caribou, who was named Maine Volunteer of the Year by the Maine Recreation and Parks Association; (SLS 203)

Lynn Eaton, of Brewer, who has been elected to Phi Beta Kappa at the University of Maine at Orono; (SLS 204)

Elizabeth Cappucci, of Orono, who has been elected to Phi Beta Kappa at the University of Maine at Orono; (SLS 205)

Alexander Nesbit, of Orono, who has been elected to Phi Beta Kappa at the University of Maine at Orono; (SLS 206)

Kati Jo Bell, of Presque Isle, who was crowned 1983 Little Miss Presque Isle; (SLS 207)

Deborah Rand, who has been named Miss Washburn for 1983; (SLS 208)

Clark Brewer, of Boy Scout Troop 185 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 209)

Brian Doody, of Boy Scout Troop 184 of Caribou, who was cited as "Boy Scout of the Year"; (SLS 210)

Donald Oakes, of Milo, for being accepted at Harvard Business School for his M.B.A.; (SLS 211)

Mike Flagg, of Wilton, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 212)

Craig Weeks, of Wilton, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 213)

Arthur D. Roy, of Wilton, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 214)

Marc Bowering, of Wilton, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 215)

John T. Amoroso, president and owner of Bangor Wholesale Foods in Newport, who has been named Maine's Small Business Person of the Year by the United States Small Business Administration; (SLS 216)

Alice Demmons, of Rumford, residing at the Dixfield Nursing Home, who celebrated her 97th birthday on April 11, 1983; (SLS 217)

Agnes Locke, of East Rumford, residing at the Dixfield Nursing Home, who celebrated her 102nd birthday on December 14, 1982; (SLS 218)

Daniel S. Kersey, of Telstar High School, who, sponsored by the Rumford Lodge of Elks, won 1st place in the State of Maine Elks Scholarship and is a finalist on the national level; (SLS 219)

Lorraine M. Fleury, of Winthrop, who will receive a bachelor of science degree in public administration from the University of Maine at Augusta, on May 14, 1983; (SLS 220)

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard William Verrill, of Bailey Island, who celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on April 28, 1983; (SLS 221)

Perry Weirs, of Pownal, age 12 whose quick action averted a train accident which would cident which would have threatened property and people's safety; (SLS 222)

Todd and Troy Richards, ages 12 and 10, of Pownal, whose quick action averted a train accident which would have threatened property and people's safety; (SLS 223)

May 13, 1983, as American Indian Day, as proclaimed by the President of the United States, in recognition of the enormous contributions of the American Indian to the art, culture, strength, spirit and sense of purpose of this country; (SLS 224)

National Commander of the American Legion, Al Keller, Jr., of Illinois, for his outstanding work and promotion of the American heritage of freedom; (SLS 225)

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Goodwin, of Eliot, who observed their 55th wedding anniversary April 29, 1983; (SLS 226)

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Johnston, of Gardiner, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary on June 20, 1983; (SLS 227)

Margaret M. Malone, National Vice Commander of the American Legion, a distinguished veteran and the first woman in the history of a veterans' organization to rise to such a high office; (SLS 228)

Edward J. Roach, Jr., of Dixfield, Departmental Commander of Maine American Legion Post 24 at Rumford, for his outstanding leadership, fine work and accomplishments in the service of the American Legion; (SLS 229)

J. Harvey Howells, of Brunswick, a writer, dowser, friend to Bowdoin College and "professional Scotsman"; (in Memoriam) (SLS 230)

The University of Maine at Orono Black Bears and coach John Winkin, winners of their 4th straight Eastern Collegiate Athletic Baseball Conference—North title, an outstanding achievement which brings us great pride; (SLS 231)

Seth Lawry, of Waterville, who has been chosen as a Presidential Scholar; (SLS 232)

Joseph A. Plamondon, of Biddeford, a respected educator, businessman and an active participant in community affairs; (in Memoriam) (SLS 233)

Jenny Jory, of Brunswick, who recently received the Joshua L. Chamberlain Award for public service to the area's military and public sectors by the Brunswick-Topsham-Bath Military-Community Council; (SLS 234)

Trix Weymouth, of Bar Harbor, who has been presented with the Mount Desert Island 1983 Y.W.C.A.'s Woman of the Year Award; (SLS 235)

Kristin L. Amerling, of Cape Elizabeth High School, who has been named a Presidential Scholar; (SLS 236)

Tracie St. Germaine, a student at Dixfield Dirigo School, who won first place in a statewide contest for her essay on Albert Schweitzer, a copy of which has been sent to the Albert Schweitzer Museum; (SLS 237)

Jean Byron and Andrew Worchester, both in the 7th grade at Dixfield Dirigo School, who were awarded certificates of participation at the National Honor Society Awards assembly for their exceptional achievement in the SAT program; (SLS 238)

Dr. and Mrs. Howard L. Bowen, of Hallowell, who celebrated their 62nd anniversary on May 28, 1983; (SLS 239)

Sister Rachel Boucher, Principal of St. Andrew School in Biddeford, who has given 25 years of service in the Order of Presentation of Mary and who has untiringly devoted herself to the students, school and Parish of St. Andrew; (SLS 240)

Lois J. Maltais, of Seal Cove, who is the first woman to be named the Maine Army National Guard Sergeants Major Soldier of the Year, Senior Category; (SLS 241)

William Peters Hinckley, historian and outstanding citizen of Blue Hill; (in Memoriam) (SLS 242)

Jennifer Look and Derek King, both of Veazie, who have had perfect attendance for the

1982-83 school year at the John R. Graham School in Veazie; (SLS 243)

Howard and Alma Peterson, of Falmouth, who will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary on June 12, 1983; (SLS 244)

Jackie Lampron who has been named Salutatorian of the 1983 graduating class of Westbrook High School; (SLS 245)

Dale Cressey, who has been named one of the top students of the 1983 graduating class of Bonny Eagle High School; (SLS 246)

Kevin Bubier, who has been named one of the top students of the 1983 graduating class of Bonny Eagle High School; (SLS 247)

Douglas Juers, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1983 graduating class of Westbrook High School; (SLS 248)

Valerie L. Zint, of Brunswick, a well-known artist with a penchant and an eye for wild flowers, the Maine landscape and the Boston Red Sox; (in Memoriam) (SLS 249)

Peter and Toby Galvin, both of Brunswick, teenage brothers who, with quick thinking and action, rescued a man from the chilly waters off Simpson's Point; (SLS 250)

Tom Barker, who was a dedicated fireman for 29 years and in whose honor the Annual Washburn Fireman's Banquet was held; (in Memoriam) (SLS 251)

Christopher Quinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Quinn, of Bangor, who is president of his class and New England district lieutenant of the Key Club, and who has been named Salutatorian of the 1983 graduating class at the John Baptist Memorial High School; (SLS 252)

The following students who have been named the top 12 in the 1983 graduating class at Gorham High School: Daniel Mosher; Anne Corvi; Margo Burnham; Mark Woodbury; Nancy Stoffan; Diana Hayden; Kelly Farrell; Rebecca Cloudman; Kim Boothby; Eric Sawyer; Elizabeth Lewsen; and Lisa Marrone; (SLS 253)

Dr. Robert A. Graves, of Orono, who is retiring as Director of the Employee Assistance Program at the University of Maine at Orono; (SLS 254)

The University of Maine at Orono, and President Paul H. Silverman; Elizabeth B. Noyce, of Medomak; Charles Bragg, of Bangor; Russell S. Bodwell, of Glen Head, New York; and Raymond Fogler, of East Corinth; on the occasion of the historic ground breaking ceremonies on June 3, 1983 of the establishment of a concert hall, museum and conference center; (SLS 255)

John R. Benoit, of Orono, who has been assigned to develop an adult education program in Senegal under an agreement between the University of Maine at Orono and the Agency for International Development; (SLS 256)

Mary K. Guerette, daughter of Roger and Ellen Guerette, of Winthrop, and granddaughter of the late Senator Leo Dunn of Augusta, who was named Valedictorian of the 1983 graduating class at Winthrop High School; (SLS 257)

Alvin L. Smith, Jr., of Jonesport, who is retiring from his profession as a meteorologist-climatologist and who has for many years led a life of active involvement in community affairs; (SLS 258)

Dorothy M. Smith, of Jonesport, who is retiring from her profession as a teacher and who has for many years led a life of active involvement in community affairs; (SLS 259)

Timothy Jerry Fenderson, of Embden, who has been selected as a delegate to the 1983 Boys State from Carrabec High School; (SLS 260)

John H. Doe, Police Chief in East Millinocket since 1965, who was awarded the Maine Criminal Justice Academy's Executive Certificate by academy trustees; (SLS 261)

The Honorable James W. Conway, National Historian of the American Legion, who is an outstanding and dedicated officer of the American Legion; (SLS 262)

Tim Sample, of Waterville, who is willing to share his wise and wonderful gentle Maine humor with us; (SLS 263)

Linda LaPlante, Welfare Director of Waterville, who is caring, kind and innovative in equipping Waterville's citizens with job hunting skills, including offering to write recommendations for those who have performed well in the city's workfare program; (SLS 264)

John and Betty Hackett, of East Millinocket, who will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary on June 21, 1983; (SLS 265)

The girls at the Gorham High School Girls' Softball Team and their coach, Vernon Plummer, who are the 1983 State Class B Champions; (SLS 266)

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Tompson, of North Yarmouth, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary; (SLS 267)

Jennifer Milsop, who has been awarded the Silver Award, the highest honor for a Cadette Scout and the first scout in Windham to receive the award; (SLS 268)

The Houlton High School Shiretowners, winners of the 1983 Eastern Maine Class A Baseball Championship; (SLS 269)

Mr. and Mrs. Albert St. Pierre, of Van Buren, who have unselfishly dedicated themselves as foster parents for more than 30 years; (SLS 270)

Mr. and Mrs. Albert St. Pierre, of Van Buren, who will renew their wedding vows on July 15, 1983 in celebration of their 50th year of marriage; (SLS 271)

Jody Taylor, of Presque Isle, who has been named valedictorian of the 1983 graduating class at the University of Maine at Presque Isle; (SLS 272)

Frank and Dorothy Holden, now of Stafford, England, who have shared the adventures, sad times and joys of life together in several countries since their wedding June 30, 1943, 40 years ago in Preston, England; (SLS 273)

Dr. Albert P. Royal, of Rumford, a trusted and skilled friend who has served the community and the greater Rumford area with the highest degree of care since 1938; (SLS 274)

Mr. Robert Perham, who is retiring from Marshwood High School, SAD 35, after 33 years of successfully coaching girls' basketball and other athletic teams throughout his years as a teacher and coach; (SLS 275)

C. G. "Gus" Magnuson, of Kennebunk, who is retiring after many years of dedicated service to WASCO Products; (SLS 276)

Dayton Grandmaison, of Van Buren, who has won first place in the Maine French Language Contest; (SLS 277)

La Kermesse Franco Americaine on July 1-4, 1983, at Biddeford, honoring the culture, heritage and traditions of Franco-Americans; (SLS 278)

Mrs. Hannatt Richard, of Rumford, who will celebrate her 90th birthday on July 25, 1983; (SLS 279)

Mrs. Jennie Doiron, of Jay, who celebrated her 90th birthday on May 11, 1983; (SLS 280)

Horace and Isabelle Croxford, of Pemaquid, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on June 11, 1983; (SLS 281)

The students from Mr. Ararat School, in Topsham, who won a medal for the outstanding Maine project at the fourth annual National History Day; (SLS 282)