

MAINE STATE LEGISLATURE

The following document is provided by the LAW AND LEGISLATIVE DIGITAL LIBRARY
at the Maine State Law and Legislative Reference Library
<http://legislature.maine.gov/lawlib>

Reproduced from scanned originals with text recognition applied
(searchable text may contain some errors and/or omissions)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD

OF THE

One Hundred and Eleventh Legislature

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

January 4, 1984 to April 25, 1984

INDEX

FOURTH CONFIRMATION SESSION

(FIRST CONFIRMATION SESSION – SECOND REGULAR SESSION)

May 31, 1984

INDEX

FIFTH CONFIRMATION SESSION

(SECOND CONFIRMATION SESSION – SECOND REGULAR SESSION)

July 11, 1984

INDEX

THIRD SPECIAL SESSION

September 4, 1984 to September 11, 1984

INDEX

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD
SECOND REGULAR SESSION
111th MAINE LEGISLATURE

The following expressions of Senate Legislative Sentiment appeared in the Senate Calendar between January 4, 1984 and April 25, 1984 pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

Christine F. Patrick, of Farmingdale, a dear friend and dedicated colleague who has served Legislative Leadership with outstanding secretarial services for the past decade; (SLS 318A)

Lois G. Reckitt, of South Portland, who has been named Vice-President of the National Organization of Women; (SLS 318B)

Paul C. Emerson, of Cape Elizabeth, who is retiring after 37 years of dedicated service as leader of the Maine State Chamber of Commerce, in addition to serving as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Osteopathic Hospital of Maine; (SLS 319)

Paula M. Roberts whose memory shall be forever held dear; (in Memoriam) (SLS 320)

Timothy Alan Pride, of Windham, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 321)

Christopher Allie Davis, of Windham, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 322)

Jeffrey Wayne Lamb, of Windham, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 323)

Sergeant Michael S. Ewing, an Army Ranger paratrooper from South Windham; (in Memoriam) (SLS 324)

The Biddeford High School Football Team which won the 1983-84 State Class AA Championship; (SLS 325)

Gregory Gray, of George Stevens Academy and Blue Hill, who is the 1983 State Class C Cross Country Champion; (SLS 326)

Mary J. Herman and Angus S. King, Jr., of Brunswick, who celebrated the happy and glorious occasion of their marriage on January 14, 1984; (SLS 327)

The Town of Benedicta on the 150th Anniversary since its founding; (SLS 328)

Julia Gray, of Brooksville, on the occasion of her 90th birthday; (SLS 329)

Ernest C. Bailey, of Orono, who has loyally completed 25 years of faithful service to the University of Maine at Orono; (SLS 330)

Maryellen Carew, of Freeport, recipient of the Freeport-Durham Jaycee Women's 1983-84 Outstanding Young Woman Award; (SLS 331)

Mildred F. Wheeler, of Portland, a former member of the 102nd, 103rd, 104th, 105th and 106th Maine Legislatures; (in Memoriam) (SLS 332)

Kenneth E. Silsby, of Ellsworth, who has been named the State of Maine's 4-H Volunteer Leader for 1983, and who will represent the State at the National 4-H Center in Washington, D.C.; (SLS 333)

Philip and Marianne Aaskov, of Windham, who have celebrated the 50th anniversary of their wedding on December 24, 1933; (SLS 334)

Dr. Kevin Hill, of Waterville, an outstanding physician, Colby College Trustee, former County Commissioner, Medical Center Director, civic leader and above all, a warm and compassionate human being who cared deeply about his family and community; (in Memoriam) (SLS 335)

Eliza Nichols, of Orono, a beloved member of the business community for decades and holder of the Boston Post Cane as Orono's oldest citizen, who passed away January 17, 1984; (in Memoriam) (SLS 336)

Beulah E. Greene, a lifelong resident of Blue Hill; (in Memoriam) (SLS 337)

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Jordan, of Waltham, on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary; (SLS 338)

The Searsport Ambulance Service, a seven-member Volunteer unit, rated first in the State in the voluntary call-paid category; (SLS 339)

Lionel B. Lapointe, of Biddeford, a very special teacher who dedicated his life to youth; (in Memoriam) (SLS 340)

Lawrence E. Greenleaf, educator in SAD 34, who has been named the 1984 Maine Teacher of the Year; (SLS 341)

Stanford I. Trask upon his retirement after 18 years as principal of Waterville High School; (SLS 342)

Mae P. Ramsey, of Readfield, who served the community of Readfield as town clerk for the past 44 years; (in Memoriam) (SLS 343)

Leola Keene, of Buckfield, who will celebrate her 90th birthday on March 29, 1984; (SLS 344)

Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Currier, of Westbrook, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on November 30, 1983; (SLS 345)

Dr. David Massanari, of Sanford, who has been chosen the 1983 Outstanding Young Man of the Year by the Jaycees; (SLS 346)

James Patterson, of Boy Scout Troop 93, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 347)

Christopher Smith, of Boy Scout Troop 93, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 348)

Coastal Blueberry Services for its effort to help save the Grasshopper Sparrow; (SLS 349)

Bill Green, of Portland, who has been named Maine Sportscaster of the Year by the National Association of Sportscasters and Sportswriters; (SLS 350)

The Times Record, of Brunswick, recipient of the 1984 George A. Speers All New England General Excellence Award from the New England Press Association; (SLS 351)

Peter Griffin, of the Stearns High School Minutemen, a prolific scorer from Millinocket who has scored over 1,000 points in his high school career; (SLS 352)

Jack S. Atwood, whose dedication to basic principles of highway safety; leadership in the Maine Highway Safety Committee; and aid in the enactment of milestone legislation helping to safeguard Maine citizens as they travel on their streets and highways; resulted in continuous service to Governors Muskie, Reed, Curtis, Longley and Brennan, for a period of over 27 years; (in Memoriam) (SLS 353)

Principal Roger Davis, from Union 104, a good friend of education who is retiring after 33 dedicated years in education, 29 of which were spent in Eastport; (SLS 354)

C. Charles Lambert, of Moose River, who was recognized by the Northern Woods Logging Association Safety Committee as the owner-operator of the safest mill within their association; (SLS 355)

Reverend Read W. Blackstone, of Perham, Pastor of Dunn Town Advent Christian Church for 45 years, who passed away January 27, 1984; (in Memoriam) (SLS 356)

Sanford Lions Club on their Annual Franco-American Night; (SLS 357)

Paul W. Coleman, who is retiring on February 23, 1984, after more than 30 years as manager of the Houlton Water Company; (SLS 358)

Tammy Dube, a senior at Penobscot Valley High School, who has scored over 1,000 career points in high school basketball play; (SLS 359)

Herald J. Beckett, of Eastport, a former State Legislator, Washington County Commissioner and member of the Governor's Executive Council; (in Memoriam) (SLS 360)

The Honorable Harold Bragdon, of Perham, a man of great distinction who served his community and state well for 13 terms in the Maine Legislature as a Representative; (in Memoriam) (SLS 361)

David Hill, of Boy Scout Troop #72, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 362)

The Rangeley Lakers, and coach Mike DeRaps, winners of the 1984 Western Maine Class D Girls' Basketball Championship; (SLS 363)

Heidi Deery, who has been named Western Maine Class D Girls' Outstanding Sportsman

for the Western Maine Championships; (SLS 364)

Nellie Babson, of Penobscot, holder of the Boston Post Cane, who celebrated her 93rd birthday on February 7, 1984; (SLS 365)

Lydia Gerrish, of South Gouldsboro, who is 90 years old; (SLS 366)

James Edwards, of Boy Scout Troop #802, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 367)

Scott Richard Aldrich, of Boy Scout Troop #805, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 368)

Jay High School, winner of the 1984 Western Maine Class C Boys' Basketball Championship; (SLS 369)

The City of Calais, which will celebrate the 175th anniversary of its incorporation on June 26, 1984; (SLS 370)

Dan Hollingdale, General Manager of WQDY, and Calais Rotarians, on being the top fundraising station in the State in the recent Jimmy Fund Radio-thon. $16,000 was raised on February 14, 1984, to help cancer research; (SLS 371)

Jay High School, winner of the 1984 State Class C Boys' Basketball Championship; (SLS 372)

Steven P. Girardin, a civil engineering student at the University of Maine, Orono, who has been inducted into the National Engineering Honor Society, Tau Beta Pi and the National Civil Engineering Society, Chi Epsilon; (SLS 373)

JUBILE D'ARGENT LE CLUB RICHELIEU, Lewiston-Auburn; (SLS 374)

The hard work and dedicated efforts of C. Owen Pollard, who is retiring after 32 years of public service, 14 of those as Director of the Bureau of Rehabilitation; (SLS 375)

The Rangeley Lakers, under the capable leadership of coach Mike DeRaps, winners of the 1984 State Class D Girls' Basketball Championship; (SLS 376)

The Durham Elementary School Boy's Basketball Team, and coach Zane Campbell II, winners of the 1983-84 Middle School Athletic Conference Division Championship; (SLS 377)

The Durham Elementary School Boy's Basketball Team, and coach Zane Campbell II, 1st place winners of the 1983-84 Middle School Athletic Conference Tournament; (SLS 378)

The Houlton High School shiretowers, winners of the 1983 Eastern Maine Class A Soccer Championship; (SLS 379)

Caribou High School, and coach Roland Duprey, winners of the 1984 Eastern Maine Girls' Basketball Championship; (SLS 380)

CENTENAIRE L'ALLIANCE FRANCAISE DE Portland, Maine; (SLS 381)

Members of the Maine Agricultural community on Maine Agriculture Day; (SLS 382)

Chief Ralph Segal, of the South Portland Police Department, who is retiring after 25 years of dedicated service to the City; (SLS 383)

The Westbrook High School Boys' Basketball Team and coach Art Dyer, winners of the 1984 State Class A Basketball Championship; (SLS 384)

Clifford Davis, a selectman in Mattawamkeag for over 30 years, a former fire chief and one of the organizers of the Mattawamkeag Wilderness Park; (SLS 385)

The Westbrook High School Boys' Basketball Team which won the 1984 Western Maine Class A Basketball Championship; (SLS 386)

The Waterville High School Gymnastics Team and coach Connie Caron, winners of the 1984 State Class A Girls' Championship; (SLS 387)

Mary E. Dyer, of South Portland, who celebrated her 91st birthday on January 24, 1984; (SLS 388)

Jeannette G. Morin, of Brunswick, a nationally recognized leader in the credit union movement, who received the Brunswick Area Chamber of Commerce 27th Annual Citizenship Award; (SLS 389)

Brunswick wood sculptor, Charles "Chippie"

Chase, who has been selected to be the 1984 Master Wildlife Artist for the Leigh Yawkey Woodson Museum's "Birds in Art" exhibition; (SLS 390)

David H. Little, of Nobleboro, who has been named the Maine Army National Guard's Sergeants Major Soldier of the Year; (SLS 391)

Carrie Fisher, of Portland, who will celebrate her 92nd birthday on April 22, 1984; (SLS 392)

Dora Hopkins, of Trenton, who will celebrate her 99th birthday on March 29, 1984; (SLS 393)

Hospital Chaplaincy Service, Inc., and its co-founders Reverend Allan and Elsie Brough. Since its inception 25 years ago, this organization of volunteers has provided residents of 134 nursing and boarding homes with a range of services and products, totally without cost, that could not be had by any other means; this recognition of the tremendous contribution made by the Broughs and the thousands of volunteers is, therefore, made; (SLS 394)

Clinton W. Phinney, who is retiring after serving as Principal in Eliot and Kittery Schools for 34 years, the past 24 years as principal of Frisbie School in Kittery; (SLS 395)

Charles Tuttle, who has received the Fabyan Drake Award given to an Eliot citizen who has gone beyond the bounds of duty in serving the people of his town; (SLS 396)

Ralph K. Chase, who has served the Town of Eliot for many years as Water District Director and is now retiring after serving 6 years as Selectman; (SLS 397)

Bart McGraw, of Boy Scout Troop #124, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 398)

Timothy Carville, of Boy Scout Troop #124, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 399)

James M. Randall, of Auburn, Assistant Superintendent of the Auburn School Department; (SLS 460)

Thomas A. Longfellow, who is retiring after 33 years of service to the State, 18 years of which were spent in the Department of Human Services, where he served 13 years as Assistant Director of the Bureau of Rehabilitation; (SLS 401)

The Stratton-Eustis Lions and Lionesses for their efforts in raising funds for the purchase of a motorized wheelchair for Pete Morin; (SLS 402)

The Portland High School Girls Basketball Team, winners of the 1984 Class A State Championship; (SLS 403)

The Town of Shirley, on this the One Hundred and Fiftieth anniversary of its incorporation on March 9, 1834, and offer all citizens best wishes for a successful sesquicentennial celebration; (SLS 404)

Vincent B. Welch, of Portland, businessman philanthropist, for his work in raising $15.3 million, as chairman of Maine Medical Center's fund-raising campaign; (SLS 405)

The Department of Human Services, for their invaluable contribution and assistance in arranging for the heart transplant of Grace Jacques of Trenton; (SLS 406)

Grace Jacques, of Trenton, on her outstanding courage and successful recovery from a heart transplant operation on March 12th at the Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore; (SLS 407)

Karl Eric Sanzenbacher, of Waterville, who has been selected as a William Randolph Hearst Foundation Senate Scholar; (SLS 408)

Jonathan Dearing, Salutatorian of the 1984 graduating class of Stearns High School; (SLS 409)

Sara Sue Steward, Valedictorian of the 1984 graduating class of Stearns High School; (SLS 410)

Keith Cunningham, who is retiring after 36 years of dedicated service to public education in the State of Maine, the last 12 of which were spent as an outstanding principal at Lisbon High School; (SLS 411)

Isaac M. Webber, M.D., on the 90th anniversary of his birth and, among his countless accomplishments, the founding of the surgical residency program and annual symposium at the Maine Medical Center; (SLS 412)

Miss Tri-county 1984, Jennifer Pepin of Mat-tawamkeag; (SLS 413)

Reverend Benjamin Bubar, who is retiring as Superintendent of the Christian Civic League of Maine after serving 32 years in that capacity, and acknowledge his untiring efforts on behalf of the people of the State of Maine for the past 50 years; (SLS 414)

Belle Williams, of Presque Isle, on the occasion of her 102nd birthday on April 4, 1984; (SLS 415)

Gordon Johnson, of Westmanland, who is retiring after 28 years with the U.S. Soil Conservation in Caribou and Presque Isle; (SLS 416)

Walter Case, Jr., recipient of the Peter Houghton Memorial Award for Outstanding Young Driver; (SLS 417)

Sarah Hudson, of Castine, for her untiring efforts on behalf of emergency medical services, having served on the Emergency Medical Services Advisory Board, as an Emergency Room Technician at Castine Community Hospital and having taught emergency medical training extensively in eastern Maine; (SLS 418)

Clara Orcutt, of Stonington, on the occasion of her 100th birthday; (SLS 419)

The 100th anniversary of the Marist Fathers commitment of service to the Van Buren area; (SLS 420)

The Valley High School Cross Country Team, and Coach Clark Sherman, winners of the 1984 State Class D Championship; (SLS 421)

The Town of Whitefield, on the occasion of its 175th anniversary; (SLS 422)

Harold S. and Delsie E. Morse, who will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on June 9, 1984; (SLS 423)

Nathaniel T. Cobb, of the Waterville Morning Sentinel, winner of the Waterville Area Chamber of Commerce's Distinguished Community Service Award for 1984 and for his many years of service as the first chairman of the Waterville Housing Authority, the American Legion and former chairman of the Veterans' Small Business Loan Authority; (SLS 424)

Karen Withrow, Sam Ding, Darrell Skidgell, Mary Morrison, Karen Robertson, Melanie Clarke, Peter Gray, Darlene Shaw, Chris Drummond, Pat Farwell, and faculty advisor Bruce Thompson, of the Dirigo High School Math Team, winners of the 1984 Mountain Valley Conference and the State Class D Math Championship for the 3rd consecutive year; (SLS 425)

James Sproul, an 8th grader at the Academy High School in Wilton, who won the 1984 State Spelling Bee and will represent Maine at Washington, D.C. in the National Spelling Bee; (SLS 426)

Mrs. Edwidge Martin of Eagle Lake, who recently celebrated her 91st birthday; (SLS 427)

Rear Admiral Edward A. Rodgers, of Castine, on his retirement after many dedicated years at the helm of the Maine Maritime Academy and for his unfailing support of maritime education; (SLS 428)

Wayne Jepson, Valedictorian of the 1984 graduating class of Caribou High School; (SLS 429)

Felix and Pauline Dyro, of Portland, who will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on April 28, 1984; (SLS 430)

Dr. Alice Whittier, a pioneer in the field of medicine, who will be honored at a testimonial dinner April 28, 1984; (SLS 431)

Norman and Margaret Deschaine, of Millinocket, who are celebrating their 45th wedding anniversary on April 24, 1984; (SLS 432)

Chris Olsen, Executive Director of the Osteopathic Hospital of Maine, who is retiring after 33 years of dedicated service to the hospital; (SLS 433)

Smokey the Bear, who has served as the national symbol of the United States Forest Service's fire prevention program for 4 decades; (SLS 434)

Everett Roderick, of Skowhegan, on the 92nd anniversary of his birth; (SLS 435)

Natalie Stevens, of Windham, who was chosen Miss Photogenic at the Miss Greater Portland Pageant; (SLS 436)

Joel Weeks, of Boy Scout Troop #74 in Old Town, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 437)

Alan Wilcox, of Boy Scout Troop #74 in Old Town, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 438)

Otis St. Thomas, who is retiring after 16 years as Superintendent of Schools of S.A.D. #31 and 34 years in the field of education; (SLS 439)

Richard B. Violette, Jr., of East Millinocket, upon passing the Maine Bar Exam; (SLS 440)

Frederic D. Starrett, Jr., President of Penobscot Frozen Foods, Inc., in Belfast, Maine's Recipient of the United States Small Business Administration's "Small Business Person of the Year" Award; (SLS 441)

The entire Legislative Staff, both partisan and nonpartisan, for their outstanding work and dedication during the 111th Legislature; (SLS 442)