

MAINE STATE LEGISLATURE

The following document is provided by the LAW AND LEGISLATIVE DIGITAL LIBRARY at the Maine State Law and Legislative Reference Library
<http://legislature.maine.gov/lawlib>

Reproduced from scanned originals with text recognition applied
(searchable text may contain some errors and/or omissions)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD

OF THE

One Hundred And Thirteenth Legislature

OF THE

State Of Maine

VOLUME IV

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

March 25, 1988 to May 5, 1988

Index

SECOND CONFIRMATION SESSION

May 13, 1988

Index

THIRD CONFIRMATION SESSION

June 15, 1988

Index

THIRD SPECIAL SESSION

September 15, 1988 to September 16, 1988

Index

FOURTH CONFIRMATION SESSION

November 14, 1988

Index

FOURTH SPECIAL SESSION

November 28, 1988

Index

HOUSE & SENATE LEGISLATIVE SENTIMENTS

December 3, 1986 to December 6, 1988

LEGISLATIVE SENTIMENTS

OF THE

One Hundred And Thirteenth Legislature

OF THE

Senate

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
113th MAINE LEGISLATURE

The following expressions of Senate Legislative Sentiment appeared on the 1st Regular Session Senate Calendars of December 3, 1986 to June 30, 1987, pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

David Murphy, of Andover, who has been awarded the distinction of being Maine's Outstanding Elementary School Principal for the 1986-87 school year; (SLS 1)

Mike D'Alessandro, senior wing/stopper at Yarmouth High School, who has been named to the 1986 State Class B Division All-Star Soccer Team; (SLS 2)

David Mangan, senior sweeper back, who has been named to the 1986 State Class B Division All-Star Soccer Team; (SLS 3)

Dan Connor, senior tri-captain at Yarmouth High School, who has been named to the 1986 State Class B Division All-Star Soccer Team; (SLS 4)

Chris Cheney, senior tri-captain at Yarmouth High School, who has been named to the 1986 State Class B Division All-Star Soccer Team; (SLS 5)

Kelly Marquis, a senior at Freeport High School, who has been named to the Triple-C Division II All-Star Field Hockey Team, 1986; (SLS 6)

Debbie Wheat, a junior at Yarmouth High School, who has been named to the Triple-C Division II All-Star Field Hockey Team, 1986; (SLS 7)

Caria Manganello, a junior at Yarmouth High School, who has been named to the Triple-C Division II All-Star Hockey Team, 1986; (SLS 8)

Terry Pelton, a senior at Freeport High School, who has been named to the Triple-C Division II All-Star Field Hockey Team, 1986; (SLS 9)

Peggy Seymour, a senior at Freeport High School, who has been named to the Triple-C Division II All-Star Field Hockey Team, 1986; (SLS 10)

Scott Loomis, of Yarmouth High School, who has been named to the 1986 Triple-C All Star Boys' Cross Country Team; (SLS 11)

Jenny Allen, a junior at Yarmouth High School, who has been named to the 1986 Triple-C All Star Girls' Cross Country Team; (SLS 12)

Jason Burrill, of Yarmouth High School, who has been named to the 1986 Triple-C All Star Boys' Cross Country Team; (SLS 13)

L.L. Bean, Inc., Freeport's world-renowned sporting and outdoor goods retailer, which received the 1986 State of Maine Award for promoting the state from the Maine Public Relations Council; (SLS 14)

Eric Blakeman, a freshman at North Yarmouth Academy, who is ranked #1 in the singles and doubles in the 14-and-under division of the New England Lawn Tennis Association season, as well as in 14-and-under and 16-and-under in Maine Junior rankings, 1986; (SLS 15)

the Maine Lung Association on this the 75th anniversary of the founding of their outstanding organization; (SLS 16)

Angela Lansbury who portrays television's Jessica Fletcher, novelist-sleuth from the fictional town of Cabot Cove, Maine, in "Murder, She Wrote," for serving as the 1986 Maine Christmas Seal Chairman and for her warm affection for our State which is greatly appreciated; (SLS 17)

Mr. and Mrs. Justin L. Williams, of Freeport, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on October 17, 1986; (SLS 18)

Richard Agreste, football coach at Thornton Academy in Saco, who has been selected Maine's 1986 Class A Football Coach of the Year; (SLS 19)

Paul Morton, of Boy Scout Troop #509 in Hanover, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 20)

Randy A. Charity, of Boy Scout Troop #580 in Dixfield, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 21)

Mike Novaria, Brunswick High School's all-time leading scorer, Albert Hansen, Brunswick High School's fullback, Brandon Matt, Brunswick High School's goalie and Brian Matt, Brunswick High School's forward, who have been named to the All-Eastern Maine Soccer All-Star Team, 1986, which is made up of players from three classes; (SLS 22)

Andrea Ranger and Melanie Carslick, of Brunswick High School, who have been named to the 1986 Western Maine Girls' All-Star Soccer Squad; (SLS 23)

Andrea Ranger, Melanie Carslick and Rachel Nixon, of Brunswick High School, who have been named to the 1986 Class A Western Maine Girls' All-Star Soccer Team; (SLS 24)

Brunswick Junior High School student Ellen Domingos, 13, who has been named the 1987 Miss National Pre-teen; (SLS 25)

Mrs. Theo Morrill, of Freeport, a very special and giving person who is the principal leader of Freeport Community Services Christmas Project and who has devoted years of service helping people and reflecting the true joy of Christmas through her love and sharing all year long; (SLS 26)

Patrol Officer Robert F. Anese, of the Brunswick Police Department, who has been named 1986 Officer of the Year by Crimeline, Inc.; (SLS 27)

Mike Novaria, Scott Frizzle, Albert Hansen, Brandon Matt and Brian Matt, of Brunswick High School, who have been named to the 1986 12-man Class A Eastern Soccer All-Star Team; (SLS 28)

Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson, of Stonington, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary on December 29, 1986; (SLS 29)

Brunswick High School senior, Michael Novaria, who has been named the Gatorade Circle of Champions Player of the Year in Maine soccer, 1986; (SLS 30)

Dr. David N. Widmer, of Brunswick, who has been named President of the New England Dental Society; (SLS 31)

Henry L. Favreau, of Brunswick, a candid, conscientious and colorful citizen volunteer, who recently retired after 15 years of inspiring service to the Brunswick community as a member and chairman of the Brunswick School Board; (SLS 32)

Al LeClerc, Community Service Award Winner for 1987 and proudly hailed for his dedication in inspiring the quality of life in the Oxford Hills Area; (SLS 33)

Grace Emmerton, Community Service Award Winner for 1987 and proudly hailed for her dedication in inspiring the quality of life in the Oxford Hills Area; (SLS 34)

Betty Brown, R.N., of Norway, upon her retirement from the staff at Stephens Memorial Hospital after 17 years of outstanding service in the Obstetrics Department; (SLS 35)

Hector L. LeCours, General Superintendent of the Rumford Water District, who retired on December 31, 1986 after some 38 years of dedicated service to community and district; (SLS 36)

Fredrick Hirsch, of Dover Foxcroft, for his contribution to the field of broadcasting and to the people of Piscataquis County, with best regards; (SLS 37)

William H. Craig, of East Millinocket, for his many years of service to the citizens of the Katahdin Region, including his service to the veterans, Katahdin friends, senior citizens, handicapped citizens, boy scouts, girl scouts and so many others in the area; (SLS 38)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

the Honorable Marion E. Martin, of Hallowell and Kingman, a dear lady who was recognized nationally and internationally for her work and who distinguished herself as a leader of women, Commissioner of Labor and Industry and member of the 86th, 87th, 88th and 89th Maine Legislatures; (SLS 39) (in Memoriam)

the 30th anniversary of Stephens Memorial Hospital of Norway, an outstanding hospital and a proud moment for all of the Oxford Hills community; (SLS 40)

Ed Pelletier, of Coles Express Presque Isle Terminal, who has been cited for a safe driving Award having driven 2,000,000 miles without a preventable accident; (SLS 41)

Ken Plourde, of Coles Express Presque Isle Terminal, who has been cited for a safe driving award, having driven 3,000,000 miles without a preventable accident; (SLS 42)

Mr. and Mrs. Delsie Laferriere, of Fort Kent, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary on November 9, 1986; (SLS 43)

Wilma Warner, Second District President of the American Legion Auxiliary and a member of Unit #24 in Rumford, a patriotic American who works in her town and state to promote freedom, justice and democracy; (SLS 44)

John Kezal, Second District Commander of the American Legion, member of Post #24 in Rumford and a dedicated leader, who is always ready to stand up and defend the freedoms that make this country such a great place in which to live; (SLS 45)

Biddeford High School football players: Jim Velton; Peter Underwood; Tim Labonte; Dennis Walton; Chris Laverriere; Jim Gauvin; and Ed Scott for being named to the 1986 Class A All-State Football Team; (SLS 46)

Michael R. Petit, Commissioner of the Department of Human Services for the past 7 years, whose tireless efforts have achieved the lowest infant and maternal death rates in the nation and improved the quality of life for all Maine citizens; (SLS 47)

James T. Wyman, General Superintendent of the Norway Water District, who retired on December 31, 1986, after 18 years of dedicated service to community and district; (SLS 48)

John Hoyt, of Thomaston, on the occasion of his 106th birthday on January 22, 1987; (SLS 49)

Brian J. Bouley, of Van Buren and Grand Isle, State Winner of the Maine Developmental Disabilities Poster Awareness Contest for 1986, depicting activities handicapped students enjoy "After School," and teaching that people with handicapping conditions are people first, people who need to have their accomplishments emphasized and their limitations accepted; (SLS 50)

Tim Weems, of Hallowell, State Winner of the Maine Developmental Disabilities Poster Awareness Contest for 1986, depicting activities handicapped students enjoy "After School," and teaching that people with handicapping conditions are people first, people who need to have their accomplishments emphasized and their limitations accepted; (SLS 51)

Lori White, of York, State Winner of the Maine Developmental Disabilities Poster awareness Contest for 1986, depicting activities handicapped students enjoy "After School," and teaching that people with handicapping conditions are people first, people who need to have their accomplishments emphasized and their limitations accepted; (SLS 52)

Nicole Gagnon, of Westbrook, State Winner of the Maine Developmental Disabilities Poster Awareness Contest for 1986, depicting activities handicapped students enjoy "After School," and teaching that people with handicapping conditions are people first, people who need to have their accomplishments emphasized and their limitations accepted; (SLS 53)

Cameron Hammon, of Harrington, State Winner of the Maine Developmental Disabilities Poster Awareness Contest for 1986, depicting activities handicapped students enjoy "After School," and teaching that people with handicapping conditions are people first, people who need to have their accomplishments emphasized and their limitations accepted; (SLS 54)

Juanita Wallace, Milbridge, State Winner of the Maine Developmental Disabilities Poster Awareness Contest for 1986, depicting activities handicapped students enjoy "After School," and teaching that people with handicapping conditions are people first, people who need to have their accomplishments emphasized and their limitations accepted; (SLS 55)

Erika Cleaves, of Addison, State Winner of the Maine Developmental Disabilities poster Awareness Contest for 1986, depicting activities handicapped students enjoy "After School," and teaching that people with handicapping conditions are people first, people who need to have their accomplishments emphasized and their limitations accepted; (SLS 56)

Dale Smith, of Columbia Falls, State Winner of the Maine Developmental Disabilities Poster Awareness Contest for 1986, depicting activities handicapped students enjoy "After School," and teaching that people with handicapping conditions are people first, people who need to have their accomplishments emphasized and their limitations accepted; (SLS 57)

Ethel Torrey, of Franklin, who celebrated her 90th birthday on January 28, 1987; (SLS 58)

John R. "Dick" Condon, Proprietor of Condon's Garage in South Brooksville for 60 years, a very special man who loved people and whose mechanical skills have been immortalized in Robert McCloskey's book, "One Morning in Maine"; (SLS 59) (in Memoriam)

McDonald's Restaurant, of Millinocket, for active participation to recruit foster homes for abused and neglected children; (SLS 60)

McDonald's Restaurant, of Calais, for active participation to recruit foster homes for abused and neglected children; (SLS 61)

Rena Johnson, of Vinalhaven, on celebrating her 100th birthday February 3, 1987; (SLS 62)

McDonald's Restaurant, of Rockland, for active participation to recruit foster homes for abused and neglected children; (SLS 63)

Richard C. Rideout, Director of the State Bureau of Identification, a good friend and loyal public servant; (SLS 64) (in Memoriam)

McDonald's Restaurant, of Houlton, for active participation to recruit foster homes for abused and neglected children; (SLS 65)

Laura Ames, of the Norway Nursing Home, who will be celebrating her 90th birthday on February 8, 1987; (SLS 66)

McDonald's Restaurant, of Gardiner, for active participation to recruit foster homes for abused and neglected children; (SLS 67)

Heidi Mitchell, of the Katahdin High School Girls' Basketball Team, who has scored her 1000th career point; (SLS 68)

Wendy Nadeau, who has been named captain of the University of Maine at Orono Girls' Field Hockey Team; (SLS 69)

Boys Scouts of America Troop #87, Pine Tree Council, of St. Hyacinth Parish of Westbrook, on their 40th anniversary; (SLS 70)

Dorothy Austin, a registered nurse at the Stevens Memorial Hospital for nearly 30 years, for her devoted care to patients of this community; (SLS 71)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Emily Sprague, a registered nurse for 30 years at the Stevens Memorial Hospital, for her many years of devoted care to patients of this community; (SLS 72)

McDonald's Restaurant, of South Paris, for active participation to recruit foster homes for abused and neglected children; (SLS 73)

Maurice R. Lambert, of Kingfield, who has been fire chief and fire inspector and has worked diligently for the town of Kingfield for 31 years; (SLS 74)

Margaret Elizabeth Thomson, of Kittery, a very special person who brightened and inspired countless lives in her life's work as an elementary school teacher over a period of 33 years; (SLS 75) (in Memoriam)

Minal Caron, one of Fort Kent's most prominent and successful citizens, highly respected as a man of vision and great wisdom; (SLS 76)

Dianne Perkins, who has been named Sacopee High School Secondary Physical Education Teacher of the Year for the Eastern District Association, American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance; (SLS 77)

Timothy A. Wentworth, of Boy Scout Troop #375 in Parsonsfield, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 78)

Albert Smith, of Camden, who is retiring as Chief of Police after 21 years of dedicated service; (SLS 79)

Robert "Ki" Owen, a member of Topsham Memorial Post No. 202, Commander of the State of Maine American Legion and a dedicated leader who has served his state and nation in an outstanding manner, and one who has always stood ready to defend the freedoms that make this country such a great place in which to live; (SLS 80)

John L. Stehli, a member of Post #5986 in Canton, Department Commander of the Maine Veterans of Foreign Wars and an outstanding veteran who has served his town, district and State with distinction and is always ready to defend the freedoms that make this country such a great place in which to live; (SLS 81)

Verlie A. Child, who is retiring after 28 years of dedicated service as Town Clerk and Tax Collector to the town of Peru; (SLS 82)

Ferd W. Dahlgren, of Stockholm, born March 16, 1887, on the occasion of his 100th birthday; (SLS 83)

Denise L. Lajoie, of Lewiston, upon her retirement as Deputy City Clerk of Lewiston, after many long years of exemplary public service; (SLS 84)

Reverend Maurice Williams Venno, of Cape Rosier, a Navy Chaplain, Rector of St. John's Church in Kingston, New York, Rector of the Trinity Church of Saco and St. Andrew's Church in Newcastle; (in Memoriam) (SLS 85)

Eva E. Bearce, of Norway, born March 14, 1881, on the occasion of her 106th birthday; (SLS 86)

John R. Harvey, of Boy Scout Troop #130 in South Paris, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 87)

Michael E. Richards, Jr., of Boy Scout Troop #130 in South Paris, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 88)

Scott M. Walsh, of Millinocket, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 89)

John A. Jamieson, of Greenville, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 90)

David M. Nice, of Millinocket, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 91)

Wayne A. Archie, of Millinocket, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 92) the staff and board of Sweetser Children's Home, in Saco, for 160 years of caring service to Maine's children and families in need of residential, day treatment, foster care, home-based and educational services; (SLS 93)

Chief Carmine Russo, who is retiring as Chief of Police of Westbrook after 25 years of dedicated service; (SLS 94)

Lynn K. Garrity, of Yarmouth High School, who is a student award winner, scoring in the 99th percentile in reading, writing and mathematics on the Maine Educational Assessment; (SLS 95)

Scott Whitney, of Stearns High School, who has received Honorable Mention for the 1987 Class A All Tourney Basketball Team; (SLS 96)

Peter Levesque, of Stearns High School, who has been chosen for the 1987 Class A All Tourney Basketball Team; (SLS 97)

Wade Duplisea, of Stearns High School, who has been chosen for the 1987 Class A All Tourney Basketball Team; (SLS 98)

Chris Mooers, of Hodgden High School, who has scored his 1,000th career point for the Hodgdon Hawks Basketball Team; (SLS 99)

Tony Quint, of Hodgden High School, who has scored his 1,000th career point for the Hodgdon Hawks Basketball Team; (SLS 100)

Matthew Oliver, of Hodgden High School, who has scored his 2,000th career point for the Hodgdon Hawks Basketball Team; (SLS 101)

Bill Owens, of Greenville High School, who has scored his 1,000th career point in high school basketball; (SLS 102)

the Schenck Girls' High School Basketball Team, of East Millinocket, winners of the 1987 Class C Eastern Maine Championship; (SLS 103)

Raymond Henry Fogler, who celebrated his 95th birthday on February 29, 1987, an outstanding businessman, former President and Director of Montgomery Ward and W. T. Grant Company, Assistant Secretary of the Navy and past President of the Board of Trustees and active supporter of the University of Maine; (SLS 104)

Amy Johnston, of Millinocket, who is the recipient of the Girl Scouts' Gold Award; (SLS 105)

Alison Boutaugh, of Millinocket, who is the recipient of the Girl Scouts' Gold Award; (SLS 106)

Joleanna Michaud, of Millinocket, who is the recipient of the Girl Scouts' Gold Award; (SLS 107)

Laura Archie, of Millinocket, who is the recipient of the Girl Scouts' Gold Award; (SLS 108)

the Belfast Area High School Wrestling Team, and Coach Theodore "Ted" Heroux, who successfully defended their State Class B Championship for the 1987 season; (SLS 109)

Thomas Pelletier, of St. Francis, who is celebrating his 100th birthday on April 7, 1987; (SLS 110)

coach Paul Vachon, junior varsity coach Jim Clark, freshman coach Brian Callahan, assistant coach Mark Snedberg, co-captains Duffy Doiron and Debbie Gleason, Robie Hodgson, Joanne Levesque, Brenda Fielding, Angela Cleary, Cat Jabar, Becky Demos, Lisa Morang, Jenny Perry, Donna Gilbert, Marcie Lane, Meaghan Lane and Holly Washburn of the Cony High School Girls' Basketball Team, winners of the 1987 Class A State Championship; (SLS 111)

the Belfast Area High School Gymnastics Team, and Coach Larry Dutch, for a very successful season in Class B Competition; (SLS 112)

Clifford A. York, a Selectman for 8 dedicated years, in the Town of Woodstock; (SLS 113)

Robert Pratt, Brunswick High School science teacher, who received the 1987 award from the Maine Section of the American Chemical Society for his demonstration project called, "The Exciting Science of Chemistry;" (SLS 114)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

the Lewiston-Auburn Chamber of Commerce on the occasion of its 100th birthday, for its unflagging commitment to the people of the greater Lewiston-Auburn area; (SLS 115)

Diane Boettcher, Assistant Professor of Physical Education at Bates College, of Lewiston, has been named the Coach of the Year by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America; (SLS 116)

Shawn Johnson, an 8th grader from Wales, winner of the School Union #44 district spelling bee, held at the Libby-Tozier School in Litchfield; (SLS 117)

Anthony Hazelton, of Harrison, who has been selected as the Most Outstanding Young Man in the Community for 1987; (SLS 118)

Derek Marshall, who has been named Maine High School Swimmer of the Year for 1986-87 by the Interscholastic High School Swim Coaches Association; (SLS 119)

David Unruh and Robert Girard, co-captains, and all the members of the Old Town High School Men's Varsity Swim Team, for winning the 1986-87 State Championship; (SLS 120)

David Ploch, coach of the Men's Varsity Swim Team, who has guided his Old Town High School Team to 3 consecutive State Championships and has been named Coach of the Year for 1987; (SLS 121)

Rosanne Castonguay Boutin, of Winslow, as Maine's Mother of the Year, one who finds time for family, employment at the town office and volunteering for church service work; (SLS 122) the Reverend and Mrs. Arlyn F. Barnard, of Portland, on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary; (SLS 123)

Edgar J. Leighton, owner of Leighton's Five and Dime, who is the recipient of the 1st annual Freeport Merchants Association Distinguished Member Award; (SLS 124)

Joanne Palombo, former Brunswick High School All-America basketball choice and senior at Northwestern University, who has been named to the 1987 honorable mention list on the All-Big Ten Women's Basketball Team; (SLS 125)

12-year-old Liz Rosensweig, of Brunswick, who earned a pair of silver medals at the 1987 Coca-Cola National Handicapped Ski Championship and Winter Festival held at Attitash in Bartlett, New Hampshire; (SLS 126)

Mary Fillebrown, of Waterford, who is retiring after 30 years of dedicated service to Stephens Memorial Hospital; (SLS 127)

Perry Carter, a senior at Maine Central Institute in Pittsfield, for his outstanding achievements on the basketball court which have earned him numerous honors as the highest scoring post-graduate in the country; (SLS 128)

Lawrence R. Boucher, of Fort Kent, on his retirement after 39 years of dedicated service as an employee of the Maine Public Service Company; (SLS 129)

Ryan Heath, son of Jim and Tessa Heath, of Brunswick, who has been named the 1987 March of Dimes Ambassador for the State of Maine; (SLS 130)

James J. Gallent, born in Egmont Bay, Prince Edward Island, Canada on January 29, 1892, who recently celebrated his 95th birthday with his family and many friends; (SLS 131)

David Murphy, Principal of Woodstock Elementary School, who has been named Maine's Elementary Principal of the year; (SLS 132)

Captain Robert Widdecomb who is retiring after 40 years of dedicated service to the Rockland Fire Department; (SLS 133)

Assistant Fire Chief Fred Beal, who is retiring after 25 years of dedicated service to the Rockland Fire Department; (SLS 134)

Ernie Cavanaugh, a senior at Rockland District High School, who recently scored his 1,000th career point in basketball for the Rockland Tigers; (SLS 135)

Raymond Alley, a sophomore at Vinalhaven High School, who recently scored his 1,000th career point in basketball for the Vinalhaven Vikings; (SLS 136)

Captain Hubert Joy, who is retiring after 20 years of dedicated service to the Rockland Fire Department; (SLS 137)

Roy Scott Silliker, of Winthrop, upon his graduation from the Maine Maritime Academy; (SLS 138)

Kevin A. Gardiner, of East Machias, upon his graduation from the Maine Maritime Academy; (SLS 139)

Mildred Merrill, of Rockland, the 1986 recipient of Rockland's Chamber of Commerce Person of the Year, a teacher for over 30 years, a former Mayor of Rockland and for many years of unselfish giving of duties to Rockland area citizens; (SLS 140)

James and Doris McBreairty, of Perham, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary; (SLS 141)

Thomas A. Dukes, Jr., of Temple, for scoring in the top one percent of the State's new Standardized Achievement Test and subsequently being chosen as one of 11 University of Maine scholarship winners; (SLS 142)

the Notre Dame Church, in Springvale, on the occasion of its 100th anniversary; a church which has long provided much comfort and joy to its parish and all the people of Maine; (SLS 143)

Brandon Cody, 2nd grade student from Pownal Elementary School, who is the first place winner in the Maine Commission for Women 3rd annual Women's History Month Essay Competition, K-3 category; (SLS 144)

the Yarmouth Junior High School team which placed first in the State Science Olympiad Finals held at the University of Maine in Orono and which will represent Maine in the National Science Olympiad at Ohio State University; (SLS 145)

Kelly Prosser, a 7th grade student at Durham Elementary School, who is the winner of the 1987 State Spelling Championship in the 49th Annual Maine Sunday Telegram Spelling Bee; (SLS 146)

Marge Jones, of Rockport, the 1986 recipient of Camden's Chamber of Commerce Person of the Year Award, for her contributions as a member of the Rockport Board of Selectmen, the Y.M.C.A. and the Camden Women's Club; (SLS 147)

the top 10 students of the 1987 graduating class of Oxford Hills High School; Eric J. Nelson, Donald J. Medd, Sherry L. Tripp, Lora Verkouille, Amy J. Drigotas, Ted L. Coulombe, Lee A. Fortier, Scott C. Bickford, Henry E. Lawrence and Steven A. Elder; (SLS 148)

the top 10 students of the 1987 graduating class of Lake Region High School in Bridgton; Priscilla Velentgas, David Spenciner, Christine Kimball, Kimberly Foye, Chris Cote, Diane Cole, Richard Starets, Kathryn Sykes, Carmen Albert and Laurie Yannelli; (SLS 149)

Joe Kreisler, a devoted community social worker and educator, who has been named Social Worker of the Year by the Portland Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers; (SLS 150) the Honorable Donald F. Collins, who has been recognized by the Caribou Rotarians as being a Paul Harris Fellow, the highest distinction awarded in Rotary International; (SLS 151)

Frank Hazeltine, of Pittsfield, a beloved teacher and sporting dog trainer; (in Memoriam) (SLS 152)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Ethel Emerson, of Farmington Falls, who has been named Public Citizen of the Year by the National Association of Social Workers, for the leading role she has played providing support and services for people with mental illness and their families; (SLS 153)

Chester C. Grady, of Belfast, who has been selected as the 1987 Outstanding Citizen by the Modern Woodmen of America for his many years of outstanding service and dedication to the citizens of Belfast and Waldo County; (SLS 154)

Dirigo Middle School's Odyssey of the Mind teammates, Stacey Houghton, Jeffrey Marcoux, Eric Mulkern, Shelley Howes, Jamie Moore, Jeffrey McCarthy and Melanie Smith, on winning the State finals and subsequently chosen to represent Maine in the world finals at Michigan State; (SLS 155)

Anna Bell Plummer, of Milbridge, on the occasion of her 100th birthday on May 26, 1987; (SLS 156)

L. L. Bean, Inc., of Freeport, Corporate Leadership Award winner in the National Wildlife Federation's 1986 National Conservation Achievement Awards; (SLS 157)

Rep. James Mitchell, of District 41, who received a New England Environmental Network Leadership Award for outstanding leadership in environmental protection at the 1987 New England Environmental Conference sponsored by the Lincoln Filene Center for Citizenship and Public Affairs; (SLS 158)

Sarah Imes, Brunswick High School freshman, who won first prize in the poetry category at the Maine Forensic Association statewide speech competition, 1987; (SLS 159)

the Brunswick High School Marching Band, the "Dragons," and their band director, David M. Aines, who will represent the State at the national Independence Day parade in Washington, D.C. and the Freedom Day parade in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; (SLS 160)

Richard Bancroft, of Brunswick, who earned a first-place award for the best portrait and best unclassified photograph at the 38th Annual Convention of Maine Professional Photographers' Contest; (SLS 161)

Judith Hunter, Treasurer and Tax Collector of Auburn, as she embarks on a new career following 19 years of dedicated service to the city; (SLS 162)

Kevin James Lapham, graduate of Freeport High School and a freshman Dean's List student at Emerson College, who received a 1987 Arts Award in Visual Arts as a level 2 finalist sponsored by the Presidential Scholars Commission; (SLS 163)

the Freeport Middle School 8th Grade Girls' Basketball Team who had an undefeated 1986-87 season; (SLS 164)

Camilla Fox, a Freeport High School senior and recipient of the 1987 Principal's Award sponsored by the Maine Secondary School Principals' Association; (SLS 165)

the Durham Girls' Basketball Team, who capped an unbeaten season with the 1987 Middle School Athletic Conference Championship; (SLS 166)

Alan Yuodsnukis, Brunswick High School senior, who has been selected to receive the 1987 Principal's Award for his academic achievement and citizenship; (SLS 167)

Amanda Scott, a 4th grader at Hawthorne School in Brunswick, who is a winner in the Drug Abuse and Misuse Poster Contest sponsored by the Brunswick Elks Lodge 2043; (SLS 168)

Ruth Porter, of L. L. Bean, Inc., in Freeport, who has been named Secretary of the Year by the Portland Chapter of Professional Secretaries International, 1987; (SLS 169)

the Honorable Henry W. Black, of Baldwin, who received the 1986 Maine Dairy Cattle Breeder Award from the Maine Dairy Promotion Board and has been nominated to the National Dairy Shrine by the Maine Dairy Industry Association; (SLS 170)

Jean Ginn Marvin, of Scarborough, who is a recipient of the 1987 Y.W.C.A. Tribute to Women and Industry Award; (SLS 171)

Thea Wheelwright, of Falmouth, who is a recipient of the Fifth Annual Women of Achievement Award presented by the Women's Career Center at Westbrook College; (SLS 172)

Elizabeth Barker, Brunswick High School junior, who won first place in oratory at the Maine Forensic Association statewide speech competition, 1987; (SLS 173)

Police Chief Fred Gould on his retirement after 20 years of dedicated service with the Fryeburg Police Department; (SLS 174)

Jerome Matus, of Gardiner, who is retiring after 25 years of dedicated service as an Assistant Attorney General; (SLS 175)

Gavin Batchelder, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 176)

Kevin Brodeur, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 177)

Raymond Poulin, Jr., Principal of Dexter Regional High School, who has been chosen as Principal of the Year by the Maine Secondary School Principals' Association; (SLS 178)

the Stevens Memorial Hospital, its board of directors, administrators, physicians and staff, who diligently work to provide a high quality of health care to the residents of the Oxford Hills area; (SLS 179)

Karen A. S. Haskell, of Yarmouth, who is a recipient of the 1987 Y.W.C.A. Tribute to Women and Industry Award; (SLS 180)

Jane E. Honeck, of South Portland, who is a recipient of the 1987 Y.W.C.A. Tribute to Women and Industry Award; (SLS 181)

Jennifer L. Anastasoff, of Cape Elizabeth, who has been selected as a 1987 United States Presidential Scholar, an award given to honor our nation's most distinguished graduating high school seniors; (SLS 182)

Leon and Jeanne Connolly, of Auburn, who have reached a milestone in their lives as they celebrate 50 years of marriage on May 28, 1987; (SLS 183)

Ronald L. Banks, Jr., of Orrington, who has been selected as a 1987 United States Presidential Scholar, an award given to honor our nation's most distinguished graduating high school seniors; (SLS 184)

Archie McEachern, a R.W. Traip Academy senior, who received the 1987 Robert E. Butler Award for his outstanding sportsmanship, leadership, dedication and ability as a ranger basketball player; (SLS 185)

Senator R. Peter Whitmore, who has been selected as the Auburn Business Association "Citizen of the Year" for 1987; (SLS 186)

Suzanne Sanborn Austin, of Kennebunk, who is a recipient of the 1987 Y.W.C.A. Tribute to Women and Industry Award; (SLS 187)

Katherine Maxim Greenleaf, of Yarmouth, who is a recipient of the 1987 Y.W.C.A. Tribute to Women and Industry Award; (SLS 188)

Osmond C. Bonsey, Town Manager of Yarmouth, who has been elected to the office of president of the International City Management Association; (SLS 189)

the Yarmouth High School Ice Hockey Team, and the Clippers' Coach Roger Grillo, winners of the 1987 Western Maine Class B and State Class B Hockey Championships; (SLS 190)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

the North Yarmouth Academy Ice Hockey Team, and Coach Mark Knapp, winners of the 1987 Eastern Maine Class A Hockey Championship; (SLS 191)

Eileen Farrell, of Yarmouth, who is a recipient of the 5th Annual Women's Achievement Award presented by the Women's Career Center at Westbrook College; (SLS 192)

Senator Nancy Randall Clark, of Freeport, who has earned an Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree from Husson College; (SLS 193)

Larry Doyen, a 6th grade student from Meroby Elementary School in Mexico, recipient of first place honors in the periodic table competition at the Science Olympiad Tournament; (SLS 194)

Richard McKenney, of Eliot, a senior at Marshwood High School, who has been selected to receive the 1987 Principal's Award for his academic achievement and citizenship; (SLS 195) the top 10 students of the 1987 graduating class of Marshwood High School in Eliot; Richard McKenney; Stephen E. Bryant; Jay A. Victas; John C. Stutz; Thomas P. Fahy; Kindra Simms; Stephanie Anne Baglivo; Kellie Ann O'Reilly; Lou Jean Lord; and Stacy Marie Schwingle; (SLS 196)

Renee Bois, of Ogunquit, a senior at Wells High School, who has been selected to receive the 1987 Principals' Award for her academic achievement and citizenship; (SLS 197)

Milton Landeen, of New Sweden, for 21 years of dedicated service as the Town's Road Commissioner; (SLS 198)

Everett Larsson, of New Sweden, after 21 years of dedicated service as selectman; (SLS 199)

Everett C. Barry, former Road Commissioner in the Town of Farmingdale for 40 years; (SLS 200) (in Memoriam)

Matthew Dowling, a Brunswick High School graduate and sophomore at Bates College, who has been named one of Maine's 2 Harry S. Truman Scholars; (SLS 201)

Lucia A. Nixon, a senior at Brunswick High School, who has been named as a recipient of a National Merit Scholarship; (SLS 202)

Rebecca E. Zorach, of Brunswick and a senior at Waynflete School, who is a recipient of a National Merit Scholarship; (SLS 203)

Tom Jones for his award portrait titled "Ben," which received a First Place and a Court of Honor Award from the Maine Professional Photographers Association 1987 Annual Print Competition; (SLS 204)

Victoria Crandall, Executive and Artistic Director of the Brunswick Music Theater, who is a recipient of the 5th Annual Women's Achievement Award presented by the Women's Career Center at Westbrook College; (SLS 205)

Anita Cooper Stickney, of Yarmouth, who is a recipient of the 1987 Y.W.C.A. Tribute to Women and Industry Award; (SLS 206)

Fred Sprague, of Kittery, upon his retirement after 37 years as a dedicated educator to the students of Maine serving as a teacher and coach and most notably, for the last 21 years in the role of Assistant Principal and Athletic Director of R. W. Traip Academy; (SLS 207)

Angie Suffridge, a York High School senior, who is the recipient of the 1987 Robert E. Butler Award for her outstanding sportsmanship, leadership, dedication and ability as a Wildcat basketball player, a 3-time Southern York League All-Star; (SLS 208)

Darlene Holston, of South Portland, who is a recipient of the 1987 Y.W.C.A. Tribute to Women and Industry Award; (SLS 209)

Melvin D. (Mickey) Boutilier, of Gorham, an outstanding leader, teacher and coach who speaks effectively to countless followers across this State and Nation. A great humanitarian, who knows no bounds in helping the less fortunate, the retarded and in working for the betterment of mankind. A pioneer in Special Olympics who developed their winter games, he is a great asset to his community, State and Nation; (SLS 210)

Melanie Carslick, a Brunswick High School senior forward, who was the only player in the Kennebec Valley Athletic Conference to be elected to the Class A All-Star Team and the All-Defensive Team, 1987; (SLS 211)

Thomas J. Landers, Bath, who was active in drug-abuse prevention efforts and the recipient of the 1984 Maine Chief of the Year Award for his dedication in the field of law enforcement; (SLS 212) (in Memoriam) the top 4 students of the 1987 graduating class of Buckfield Junior High School: Heather Lynn Brown, Valedictorian; Elaine Roseanne Bennett, Salutatorian; Sonja Marie Abbott, 3rd highest; and Jennifer Hinckley, 4th highest; (SLS 213)

Albert W. Mosley, of Waldoboro, credited with a fulfilling career in automobiles and aviation, which eventually earned him the title of living historian of the Owls Head Transportation Museum where he often participated in special events; (SLS 214) (in Memoriam)

Felix P. Dyro, of Portland, a proud husband, father and beloved family man, who retired as foreman of Jarco Corporation after 29 years of dedicated service as a longshoreman; (SLS 215) (in Memoriam)

Louise E. Peacock, of Randolph, who celebrated her 90th birthday on February 5, 1987; (SLS 216)

Esther M. Saucier, of Fort Kent, upon her retirement after 21 years of dedicated service as a teacher at the Patrick Theriault School in Sinclair; (SLS 217)

Todd Pendleton, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1987 graduating class of Camden-Rockport High School; (SLS 218)

Mari Simmons, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1987 graduating class of Camden-Rockport High School; (SLS 219)

Will Sweetser, a student at Edward Little High School, who has been selected as a Student Ambassador to the American-Soviet Youth Exchange Initiative for Understanding project scheduled for this summer in the Soviet Union; (SLS 220)

Lauren Traister, a student at Edward Little High School, who has been selected as a Student Ambassador to the American-Soviet Youth Exchange Initiative for Understanding project scheduled for this summer in the Soviet Union; (SLS 221)

Steven Kent, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1987 graduating class of Georges Valley High School; (SLS 222)

Scott Candage, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1987 graduating class of Vinalhaven High School; (SLS 223)

Suzanne Heath, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1987 graduating class of Rockland District High School; (SLS 224)

Lawrence T. Potter, long time Waterville City Councilor, for his dedication to the community's economic future and quality of life; (SLS 225)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Shirley Kilbourne, of Brunswick, who received a national Community Service Award from the National Retired Teachers Association for her volunteer services and outstanding community contributions; (SLS 226)

Ben Conant, of South Paris, recipient of the annual Paris Grange Community Service Award, one whose dedication to the Oxford Hills area is appreciated by many; (SLS 227)

Heather Osgood, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1987 graduating class of Vinalhaven High School; (SLS 228)

David Maurice, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1987 graduating class of Rockland District High School; (SLS 229)

James Weaver, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1987 graduating class of Georges Valley High School; (SLS 230)

Scott M. Taylor, of Troop #544 in Mexico, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 231)

Lynn Morneault, a 1986 graduate of the University of Maine at Fort Kent, who has been named Maine's Outstanding First Year Teacher by the Student Loan Marketing Association; (SLS 232)

Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Grover, Jan Philips and 8th-grade students at Oxford Hills Junior High School, who won in the Odyssey of the Mind Competition in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan; (SLS 233)

Charles M. Begley, who is retiring after 38 years of dedicated service as a teacher in SAD #40; (SLS 234)

the 5th annual LA KERESSE, Festival "Franco-Americaine", the organizers, workers, volunteers and the people of Biddeford for their fine Franco-American tradition; (SLS 235)

Lynn K. Goldfarb, of Portland, recipient of the 1987 Y.W.C.A. Tribute to Women and Industry Award; (SLS 236)

Anne B. Pringle, of Portland, recipient of the 1987 Y.W.C.A. Tribute to Women and Industry Award; (SLS 237)

Elaine D. Rosen, of Portland, a recipient of the 1987 Y.W.C.A. Tribute to Women and Industry Award; (SLS 238)

Pamela Katherine Allen, of Portland, a recipient of the 1987 Tribute to Women and Industry Award; (SLS 239)

Mary Rines Thompson, of Portland, recipient of the 1987 Y.W.C.A. Tribute to Women and Industry Emerita Award; (SLS 240)

Katherine and Clinton Graffam, of Portland, for 112 combined years of performing with the Portland Symphony Orchestra; (SLS 241)

the Mercy Hospital School of Nursing and its long list of distinguished graduates, a school that was established in 1920 and will graduate its last class in June of 1987, following a 63-year commitment to excellence in education by the Sisters of Mercy and faculty of this outstanding school; (SLS 242)

Michael J. O'Connell, of Naples, who has been selected Warden of the Year by the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife; (SLS 243)

Deborah L. Gallant, of Gorham, who is a recipient of the 1987 Y.W.C.A. Tribute to Women and Industry Award; (SLS 244)

Jeff Sandler and Deb Hall, from S.M.V.T.I., known as "Mr. and Mrs. Fish" to the many school children whom they educate about the marine environment, on their recent marriage; (SLS 245)

Jacques R. and Roseanne D. Pinette, owners of Parkview Cleaners in Brunswick, who will "close their door" after 28 years of friendly, personalized, cheerful and professional service to area customers and the Brunswick business community; (SLS 246)

Anna Elizabeth Klus, of Milo, on the observance of her 102nd birthday; (SLS 247)

the Lewiston High School "Odyssey of the Mind" team and Coach David Therriault, which placed 3rd in the World Finals poetic license competition, for their creativity, diligence and perseverance; (SLS 248)

the South Portland High School volunteers, special people who have contributed to excellence in education through active participation in the SPAN Project, an outstanding volunteer program of the South Portland School District; (SLS 249)

the Mahoney Middle School volunteers, special people who have contributed to excellence in education through active participation in the SPAN Project, an outstanding volunteer program of the South Portland School District; special people who have contributed to excellence in education through active participation in the SPAN Project, an outstanding volunteer program of the South Portland School District; (SLS 250)

Alice Sawyer Elementary School volunteers, special people who have contributed to excellence in education through active participation in the SPAN Project, an outstanding volunteer program of the South Portland School District; (SLS 251)

Dora Small Elementary School volunteers, special people who have contributed to excellence in education through active participation in the SPAN Project, an outstanding volunteer program of the South Portland School District; (SLS 252)

Redbank Elementary School volunteers, special people who have contributed to excellence in education through active participation in the SPAN Project, an outstanding volunteer program of the South Portland School District; (SLS 253)

the Simon Hamlin Elementary School volunteers, special people who have contributed to excellence in education through active participation in the SPAN Project, an outstanding volunteer program of the South Portland School District; (SLS 254) the Helena H. Dyer Elementary School volunteers, special people who have contributed to excellence in education through active participation in the SPAN Project, an outstanding volunteer program of the South Portland School District; (SLS 255) the Frank I. Brown Elementary School volunteers, special people who have contributed to excellence in education through active participation in the SPAN Project, an outstanding volunteer program of the South Portland School District; (SLS 256)

the Memorial Middle School volunteers, special people who have contributed to excellence in education through active participation in the SPAN Project, an outstanding volunteer program of the South Portland School District; (SLS 257)

James Otis Kaler Elementary School volunteers, special people who have contributed to excellence in education through active participation in the SPAN Project, an outstanding volunteer program of the South Portland School District; (SLS 258)

Dagmar Greenleaf, of Monson, who is retiring after 25 years of dedicated service to the Monson Post Office; (SLS 259)

Blake Smith, of Dover-Foxcroft, who has been named 1987 "Student of the Year"; (SLS 260)

the Westbrook High School Band, and Director Bookataub, winners of the 1987 National Chocolate Town Band Festival in Hershey, Pennsylvania; (SLS 261)

Bertha Learned, a resident of the Oxford Hills area, on the occasion of her 102nd birthday; (SLS 262)

Lauree Gott, of Old Town, a senior at the University of Maine, who is co-captain of the 1986-87 Women's Basketball Team and who recently scored her 1,000th career point; (SLS 263)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD
113TH MAINE LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION

McDonald's Restaurant, of Lincoln, for active participation to recruit foster homes for abused and neglected children; (SLS 264)

Skowhegan High School, which has been named one of the top high schools in America by the United States Department of Education; (SLS 265)

Flossie Twitchell, a resident of the Oxford Hills area, on the occasion of her 100th birthday; (SLS 266)

Laura McIntosh, a resident of the Oxford Hills area, on the occasion of her 100th birthday; (SLS 267)

Joy J. O'Brien, Secretary of the Senate, and her staff, for their dedicated service during the First Regular Session of the 113th Legislature; (SLS 268)

Jim Gormley, Postmaster, and his staff, for their dedicated service during the First Regular Session of the 113th Legislature; (SLS 269)

Molly Pitcher, Sergeant-at-arms, and the chamber staff of the Senate, for their dedicated service during the First Regular Session of the 113th Legislature; (SLS 270)

Dan Kane, of Surry, who has been named the 1987 Eastern College Athletic Conference Division I New England Baseball Player of the Year by the region's head coaches and sports information directors; (SLS 271)

Dr. Andrew L. Allen, a Brunswick dentist who developed an AIDS Awareness Program for Maine dentists, who has received the 1987 Community Prevention Dentistry Award at the 121st Annual Meeting of the Maine Dental Association; (SLS 272)

"Mr. Nice Guy," Arthur McKinney, Brunswick school bus driver, who retired after 27 years of driving the Harpswell Road route; (SLS 273)

Rory Putnam, of Brunswick, senior patrol leader of Boy Scout Troop #633, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 274)

Lynne McGuire, of Brunswick, who has been named the Woman of the Year by the Brunswick Business and Professional Women's Club; (SLS 275)

Osmond C. Bonsey, Town Manager of Yarmouth, who received the Greater Portland Council of Governments' highest award, Regional Citizen of the Year, for his commitment to excellence during 35 years of service in municipal government; (SLS 276)

Julie Lynn Yates, 1987 Brunswick High School graduate, who was selected from nominations made by BPW Clubs in Maine to receive the state Business and Professional Women's Club Futurama Youth Scholarship; (SLS 277) the North Yarmouth Academy Baseball Team, who captured the 1987 Western Maine Class D Championship; (SLS 278)

Amy Hinkley, a 1987 Brunswick High School graduate, who placed 2nd in a nationwide Spanish test, 6th in a nationwide French test, 2nd in a New England French test and 1st in both Spanish and French in the Maine tests; (SLS 279)

Chris M. St. Saviour, of Boy Scout Troop #329 in Limerick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 280)

Norman and Beatrice Chapman, of Harrison, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary on May 30, 1987; (SLS 281)

Richard (Dick) Denison, of Norway, on his retirement after having worked 38 years in the banking industry, one whose commitment to serving the public both at work and through community activities has been appreciated by many; (SLS 282)

Alfred R. Morrill, of Sumner, a 70 year member of Pleasant Pond Grange, who is the recipient of the Community Service Award; (SLS 283)

The following expressions of Senate Legislative Sentiment were received in the interim of July 1, 1987 to October 21, 1987, pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

Jess F. DeLois, husband of Helen M. Mauney and father of 4 sons and 2 daughters, former principal at Caribou and Brunswick High Schools and an active participant in various professional groups including the Maine State Principals' Association and the Big Brothers and Sisters organization; (SLS 284) (in Memoriam)

Thomas A. McGillicuddy, of Winthrop, long-time Maine District Director of the United States Small Business Association, past President of the Economic Development Council of Maine, active member of various development organizations, distinguished recipient of numerous community awards and devoted husband and father; (SLS 285) (in Memoriam)

John Brogan, 1987 Freeport High School honor graduate, who received the Army Reserve National Scholar-Athlete award for excelling in academics and athletics; (SLS 286)

Kelly Marquis, 1987 Freeport High School honor graduate, who received the Army Reserve National Scholar-Athlete award for excelling in academics and athletics; (SLS 287)

Edwin H. Greeley, of Morrill, who was a beloved and dedicated community leader having served in elective office for over 50 years, including 45 years to the Town of Morrill, 4 years as Belfast City Manager and 20 years in the Maine Senate; (SLS 288) (in Memoriam)

Helen Grover, of East Stoneham, on the occasion of her 90th birthday; (SLS 289)

Freeman Hall, who is retiring after 41 years of dedicated service to the Norway Savings Bank and the Oxford Hills Community; (SLS 290)

Louise Lorimer, of Hebron, on the occasion of her 89th birthday; (SLS 291)

James Bryan and Emily S. Smith, of Grover's Crossing in Freeport, who celebrated the 60th anniversary of their marriage on July 5, 1987; (SLS 292)

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Powers, Jr., of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on July 26, 1987; (SLS 293)

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace E. Brown, of Yarmouth, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on July 6, 1987; (SLS 294)

Fred and Helen Holt, of Norway, who celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary on July 7th; (SLS 295)

Gerald C. and Lena T. Robertson, of Blue Hill, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary; (SLS 296)

Milton and Nellie Smith, of Sedgwick, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary; (SLS 297)

Esther A. Davis, a cherished and dedicated citizen to the town of Woodstock, on the occasion of her 75th birthday; (SLS 298)

Suse Weissman, whose 20 years of dedicated service, discerning influence and responsive leadership as head librarian, has provided the inspiration behind the present day, highly successful, Captain John Curtis Memorial Library; (SLS 299)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Elise and John Quinn Jr., of Oxford, on the celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary; (SLS 300)

George Bailey, of Lovell, on the celebration of his 87th birthday; (SLS 301)

Bryan G. Moore, of Troop 15 in Brewer, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 302) the Moosehead Lake Region Chamber of Commerce on the occasion of their 40th anniversary; (SLS 303)

Wilmot and Grace Lord, of Bolsters Mills, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary on September 4, 1987; (SLS 304)

Detective Kenneth M. Taylor, a 20-year veteran of the Brunswick Police Department, one who will be remembered for his relentless determination and skill in police work as well as his genuine concern for humankind; (SLS 305) (in Memoriam)

Mrs. Maud Damon, of West Paris, on the occasion of her 90th birthday; (SLS 306) the Honorable Senator R. Donald Twitchell, of District 15, for not missing a roll call vote in 5 years; (SLS 307)

Mary Ouellette, of Millinocket, a six-time winner in the Women's State Golf Association Championship; (SLS 308)

Robert Bridge, of Parkman, who has been selected Soil and Water Conservation District 1987 Cooperator of the Year; (SLS 309)

Carmen Fecteau, of Winslow, who is retiring after 15 years of dedicated service to the people of the State as a member of the Maine Labor Relations Board; (SLS 310)

Chet and Peg Woodbury, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on August 4, 1987; (SLS 311)

Paul Dion, Coordinator, Nova Scotia Life Guard Service for his years of dedicated service to the Maine State Lifesaving Association and the people of Nova Scotia; (SLS 312)

Norman K. Ferguson, Sr., dearly loved by family and friends, well known for his many years of active participation in both state and community service with highlights being a member of the State Senate and House of Representatives, State Treasurer, chairman of the Hanover board of selectmen for 32 years and founder and first chairman of the Maine Municipal Bond Bank; (SLS 313) (in Memoriam)

the Town of Sebec on the 175th anniversary of its incorporation, September 26, 1987; (SLS 314)

Eleanor Houston Smith, of Freeport and Philadelphia, a generous benefactress, active conservationist, and zealous champion of environmental causes, whose lasting efforts to preserve Maine's natural beauty have so amply enriched the people of Maine; (SLS 315)

Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse J. Beaulieu, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on September 16, 1987; (SLS 316)

Nancy N. and Robert R. Masterton, of Cape Elizabeth, for their selfless contributions to the Portland community which have earned them the 1987 Kiwanis Club Award for Distinguished Service to Greater Portland; (SLS 317)

Kennebec Valley Mental Health Center's Programs for outstanding services to the community; (SLS 318)

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar D. Hinton, of South Freeport, who will celebrate the 50th anniversary of their marriage on October 12, 1987; (SLS 319)

John P. "Jake" Comer, member of Thomas J. Roberts Post No. 79 in West Roxbury, Massachusetts, National Commander of the American Legion and a dedicated leader who has served his State and Nation in an outstanding manner, and one who has always stood ready to defend the freedoms that make this country such a great place in which to live; (SLS 320)

Shirley Thornton, of Millinocket, 1987 state award recipient in the nurse category, for exemplary contributions towards the Emergency Medical Services System; (SLS 321)

Winona Clark for her long and distinguished career in the field of banking which began in 1951 with a position as clerk for the former Norway National Bank and will end October 2, 1987 as Assistant Treasurer and Loan Officer for Key Bank of Southern Maine; (SLS 322)

Brent V. W. Putnam, President of Explorer Post #633 and Junior Assistant Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop #633 in Brunswick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 323)

Dr. Raymond Gosselin, D.Ph. for his contribution to New England and Maine health education on the occasion of his retirement as President of the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and Allied Health Sciences; (SLS 324)

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD
113TH MAINE LEGISLATURE
FIRST SPECIAL SESSION

The following expressions of Senate Legislative Sentiment appeared on the 1st Special Session Senate Calendars of October 9, 1987 to October 10, 1987 pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

David Murphy, principal at Woodstock and Andover Elementary Schools, who has been named as a "National Distinguished Principal" in a nationwide search for those principals whose leadership has produced excellence in their schools; (SLS 325)

Patricia Jones, of Dixfield, recipient of a U.S. Department of Education Christa McAuliff fellowship; her selected field of study will involve researching and visiting programs for gifted children throughout the state; (SLS 326)

Charles E. Day, President of Lewiston Raceway, who will be inducted into the New England Harness Writers' Hall of Fame on October 25, 1987; (SLS 327)

The Times Record's Summer Lifestyles '86 issue which received the 1987 Maine Press Association's first place award in the daily category for special supplements; (SLS 328)

Jeff Pert, editorial cartoonist for the The Times Record in Brunswick, who, for the 4th consecutive year, received the Maine Press Association's top award for editorial cartooning at a daily newspaper; (SLS 329)

Mr. and Mrs. George Gamache, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on September 11, 1987; (SLS 330)

Monson Elementary School, recipient of the 1986-87 Presidential State Physical Fitness Award, for having such a high percentage of students earn individual fitness awards; (SLS 331)

Daryl E. Witmer for his success in coordinating the Monson community project to purchase a computer for the students at Monson Elementary School; (SLS 332)

Jason Raven, of Boy Scout Troop #58 in Cumberland, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 333)

Donald and Phyllis Dyer, of South Portland, who will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on October 17, 1987; (SLS 334)

Reuben and Clara Cohen, of Bangor, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary; (SLS 335)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD
113TH MAINE LEGISLATURE
2ND SPECIAL SESSION

The following expressions of Legislative Sentiment appeared on the 2nd Special Session Senate Calendar of October 21, 1987 and November 19, 1987 to November 20, 1987, pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

the staff of the Waldo Independent of Belfast, and its editor Jay Davis, who was awarded the Journalist of the Year by the Maine Press Association; (SLS 336)

Marc A. Tarbox, of Boy Scout Troop #339 of Lyman-Dayton, who has achieved the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 337)

Norman Kenney, who is retiring after 18 years of service as Assessor for the City of Belfast; (SLS 338)

Perry A. Conrad, of Boy Scout Troop #1 in Brewer, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 339)

Mark E. Gray, of Boy Scout Troop #1 in Brewer, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 340)

Brian S. Nichols, of Boy Scout Troop #1 in Brewer, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 341)

Mrs. Hazel A. Rawstron, of Auburn who will be celebrating her 100th birthday on November 25, 1987; (SLS 342)

Chief Dennis Dyer, of Dover-Foxcroft Police Department, who has been named Police Chief of the Year for 1987 by the Maine Chief of Police Association; (SLS 343)

the Rockland High School golf team, winners of the 1987 Class A State Championship; (SLS 344)

Patrick and Jennie Profenno, of Freeport, who celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary on October 22, 1987; (SLS 345)

Herbert Merrill, of Brunswick, recipient of the 1987 Living Legacy Award by the Central Maine Area Agency on Aging for exemplifying excellence in public contributions and personal development; (SLS 346)

Chris Belyea, of Boy Scout Troop #184 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 347)

Wayne Rich Nordick, of Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 348)

Margaret McCarthy Beliveau, of Rumford, who will be celebrating her 80th birthday on December 25, 1987. An exceptional woman who has devoted much of her life to helping the underprivileged and the mentally retarded, her efforts realized the Hope Training School and the wonderful Horizon Unlimited residence. The people in the Greater Rumford area and the State of Maine have benefited because Margaret walked our way; (SLS 349)

Donald Hunt on the occasion of his retirement after 40 dedicated years with the Town of Norway as Road Commissioner; (SLS 350)

Union Saint-Jean-Baptiste, Joseph Croteau Council #320 on the occasion of its 75th anniversary, November 10, 1987; (SLS 351)

Irving Richardson, of Freeport, recipient of the 1988 Maine Teacher of the Year award; cited for his "obvious love of, and excitement about, learning", a teacher who makes students of all abilities feel that they can achieve; (SLS 352)

the Stearns High School Minutemen, of Millinocket, on their victory in the LTC football play-off; (SLS 353)

Lydia Butterfield, on the occasion of her 100th birthday on November 18, 1987; (SLS 354)

Shannon Lancaster, of China, for capturing 7 awards including 1st and 2nd place prizes in the National Riflery Championships in Camp Perry, Ohio; (SLS 355)

Hector Hebert, of Yarmouth, who received the Latchstring Award given each year to the person chosen by the Town Council to be Yarmouth's "Citizen of the Year;" (SLS 356)

the outstanding Greely High School Girls' Cross Country Team, and their coach, Dan Paul, on a highly successful season and their 3rd consecutive win as Class B Champions; (SLS 357)

M. Kathryn Graham, of Beaver Cove, for her generous gift to the State Law and Legislative Reference Library; (SLS 358)

Frank Friel, Chief of Police of Millinocket, who has been named 1987 Outstanding Citizen of the Year by the American Legion; (SLS 359)

Robert "Robbie" Lane, of Boy Scout Troop #496 in Embden, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 360)

Kennebec Valley Mental Health Center's Programs for outstanding services to the community; (SLS 361)

the "Minutemen" of Stearns High School in Millinocket on winning the 1987 State Class B Football Championship; (SLS 362)

Lloyd and Eva Mae Burr, of Winslow, on the honored occasion of their 70th wedding anniversary; (SLS 364)

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD
113TH MAINE LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION

The following expressions of Senate Legislative Sentiment were received in the interim of October 21, 1987 to January 5, 1988, pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Dumont, Jr., of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on May 8, 1987; (SLS 365)

Mr. and Mrs. G. Raymond Campbell, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on September 4, 1987; (SLS 366) after 2nd Special

Lisa Perrow, of Millinocket, who has been chosen for the 1987 Class B All-State Field Hockey Team; (SLS 370)

Sarah C. "Sally" Diamond, Portland, who, as Executive Director of the Legislative Council, has been selected as Maine's Public Administrator of the Year by the Maine Chapter of the American Society for Public Administration for her outstanding contributions on a sustained basis, demonstrated leadership, dedication, ability and exemplary service; (SLS 371)

Mr. and Mrs. Hobert W. Chellis, of Boothbay Harbor, who will celebrate the 60th anniversary of their marriage on December 24, 1987; (SLS 372)

Mr. and Mrs. Rocco M. DeMonte, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on October 16, 1987; (SLS 373)

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Caron, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 60th anniversary of their marriage on September 16, 1987; (SLS 374)

Mr. and Mrs. Murray B. Kilfoil, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on November 27, 1987; (SLS 375)

Joseph L. Willett, of Brownville Junction, on his retirement after 42 years with the Canadian Pacific Railroad; (SLS 376)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Natasha Kempers-Cullen, of Freeport High School, who has been named Maine Art Educator of the Year by the Maine Art Education Association for her outstanding work developing a high school and middle school visual arts program; (SLS 377)

Mrs. Maggie E. Pitts, of Naples, who celebrates her 105th birthday on December 28, 1987; (SLS 378)

Mr. and Mrs. W. Stanwood Skolfield, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 65th anniversary of their marriage on November 16, 1987; (SLS 379)

Jerry Major, known as "Mr. Oxford Hills Athletic Booster," who has demonstrated long and dedicated commitment to improving the quality of life in the Oxford Hills area and is being honored with the 1987 Community Service Award presented by the Oxford Hills Chamber of Commerce; (SLS 380)

Sean MacBride, of Dublin, Ireland, who is a world leader in civil rights, author of the MacBride Principles, founder of Amnesty International and winner of the 1974 Nobel Peace Prize and who has worked diligently for human and economic rights through peace; (SLS 381)

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD
SECOND REGULAR SESSION
113th LEGISLATURE

The following expressions of Senate Legislative Sentiment appeared on the Senate Calendars of January 6, 1988 to May 5, 1988 pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

the Pejepscot Historical Society on the occasion of its 100th birthday, January 10, 1988, for its valuable service to the citizens of Brunswick in preserving their historical traditions; (SLS 382)

William "Scotty" Whytock, chief of the Mexico Fire Department, who has served his friends and fellow citizens with great distinction for 53 years, often risking his own welfare to protect the lives and property of others; (SLS 383)

Peter W. Johnston, formerly of Caribou and Fort Fairfield, well known and highly respected as a businessman, farmer and state spokesman, having served as a Senator in the 107th Legislature, as the New York Mercantile Exchanges liaison officer with our State's potato industry and as a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Maine; (SLS 384)

John Hoyt, of Thomaston, on the occasion of his 106th birthday, January 22, 1988; (SLS 385)

Leo and Mabel Fecteau, of Westbrook, on the honored occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary, May 7, 1988; (SLS 386)

Stephen Morse, of Bath, who on January 24, 1988 attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 387)

Kacy Lavallee, a freshman at Brunswick High School, who received the first place award in the high school division of the statewide poster contest sponsored by Mothers Against Drunk Driving; (SLS 388)

Mr. Roland Sutton, President of Maine Machine Products Company, recipient of the "Administrator's Award for Excellence," in recognition of outstanding contribution and service to the nation by a small business in satisfying the needs of the federal procurement system; (SLS 389)

Scott S. Millett, of Boy Scout Troop #15 in Brewer, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 390)

Edward B. Denny, formerly of Damariscotta, successful businessman and community leader, who served as a Member of the House of Representatives during the 90th and 91st Legislatures and in the Senate during the 92nd, 93rd and 94th Legislatures; (SLS 391) (in Memoriam)

Charles "Chuck" Arthur, the "Lion of Freeport," a man of good will, giving and sharing, who reflects the true soul of a grateful community and is living proof that "a life that reaches out in love to all is a life that is full and rich, and continually expanding in beauty and in power"; (SLS 392)

Robert L. Morrell, president of Brunswick Coal and Lumber Co., who has been named Maine's Lumberperson of the Year for his performance in the industry, the active role he has played in the association and his contribution to his community by the Northeastern Retail Lumbermen's Association; (SLS 393)

Irene and Gordon Pierce, of Winslow, on their retirement from many years of dedicated service to the Mid-Maine Medical Center's Recovery Program; (SLS 394)

Robert E. Crossley, of Auburn, who retired December 31, 1987 following 50 years as a skilled manager and corporate official in engineering and research of the Pulp and Paper Industry, well known for his outstanding leadership in many areas including his work with the University Foundation and scholarship program for future engineers; (SLS 395)

Claire Letellier, a Yarmouth High School teacher, who is the mathematics teaching winner in the outstanding science and mathematics teacher competition conducted by the Maine Science and Technology Board; (SLS 396)

Arthur B. Lawson, of Falmouth, on the occasion of his 102nd birthday, January 15, 1988; (SLS 397)

Frederick Berry, of Boy Scout Troop #37 in Belfast, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 398)

Cory L. Morse, of Boy Scout Troop #37 in Belfast, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 399)

Samuel Cassida, of Boy Scout Troop #37 in Belfast, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 400)

Mark J. Andy, of Blue Hill, a senior at George Stevens Academy, for excellence in academic achievement as demonstrated by his exemplary performance in the Maine Educational Assessment tests; (SLS 401)

Nicole L. Roy, of Winslow, a senior at Winslow Sr. High School, for excellence in academic achievement as demonstrated by her exemplary performance in the Maine Educational Assessment tests; (SLS 402)

Philip W. Calvert, of Steep Falls, a senior at Bonny Eagle High School, for excellence in academic achievement as demonstrated by his exemplary performance in the Maine Educational Assessment tests; (SLS 403)

Karmen J. LaCasse, who was a dedicated teacher for 20 years at Stearns High School and an active participant in community organizations in the Millinocket area; (SLS 404)

C. Scott Hoar on the anniversary of his 35th year as a journalist for the York County News Bureau, an individual who has always shown enthusiasm and dedication to providing excellent news coverage for citizens of Maine; (SLS 405)

the Sanford Lions Club 9th annual Franco-American Night, February 6, 1988, a festive celebration in honor of the traditions and contributions which this group has made to the community; (SLS 406)

Moshe Myerowitz, D.C., of Bangor, the only Maine participant representing the U.S.A. at the 7th World Veterans Track and Field Games in Melbourne, Australia, recipient of the bronze medal in 20K competition and a silver medal in the Australian Masters Track and Field Championships; (SLS 407)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Bert M. Fernald, of Auburn and Poland, for his many years of dedication to harness racing and his receipt of the Harness Horseman International Man of the Year Award for 1987; (SLS 408)

Lewis A. Tetreault, of Westbrook, on the occasion of his 100th birthday on February 6, 1988; (SLS 409)

Maine State Museum director Paul E. Rivard and his dedicated staff for their exhibit called "Made in Maine," which has been ranked as one of the 3 best exhibits in the nation; (SLS 410) the people of Finnish decent in Maine for their cultural, technological and historical contributions which have significantly enhanced the quality of life and for the preservation of this heritage for future generations of Maine citizens; (SLS 411)

Sean MacBride, of Dublin, Ireland, who was a world leader in civil rights, author of the MacBride Principles, founder of Amnesty International and winner of the 1974 Nobel Peace Prize and who worked diligently for human and economic rights through peace; (SLS 412) (in Memoriam)

Ellen Ross, of Scarborough High School, recent recipient of the Presidential Award for Excellence in Science and Mathematics Teaching for 1987-88; (SLS 413)

Josephat Moreau, who will be 95 years of age on November 28, 1988; recipient of the Sanford Lions Club 1988 "Senior Citizen of the Year" award; (SLS 414)

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Berthiaume, recipients of the Sanford Lions Club "Couple of the Year" award for 1988, and a beloved couple by all in the community; (SLS 415)

Daniel Burgess, who is the recipient of the Rockland Area Chamber of Commerce "Person of the Year" award; (SLS 416)

Arthur Sprowl, who is the recipient of the Camden-Rockport-Lincolnville Chamber of Commerce "Person of the Year" award; (SLS 417)

Gary C. Agger, of Portland, who has been named police officer of the year by the Portland City Council; (SLS 418)

Marion Bagley, of Norway, for generously devoting in excess of 6,000 hours over the past 32 years in volunteer service to Stephens Memorial Hospital; (SLS 419)

the Pownal Panthers soccer team, and their coach Jim Donoghue, on an extremely exciting soccer season, the team having been named co-champions in the Middle School Athletic Conference of 1987; (SLS 420)

Florence Gill, Fayette town clerk, for 39 years of excellent service to the community of Fayette; (SLS 421)

Mary "Molly" Nealy, of Brunswick and Bowdoinham, who celebrated the 100th anniversary of her birth on January 31, 1988; (SLS 422)

Phillip A. St. Amand, of Durham, assistant scoutmaster for Lisbon Falls Troop #109 and volunteer with the Durham Volunteer Fire Department, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 423)

Kenneth K. Weston, longtime owner and operator of S. H. Weston and Sons Company in Waldoboro, an active member of several local organizations including dedicated leadership as president and director of the Waldoboro Lions Club, treasurer of the Waldoboro Public Library and on the Board of Directors of Waldoboro Lockers, Inc.; (SLS 424) (in Memoriam)

Ronald Lester Lobdell, Jr., of Phippsburg, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 425)

David A. Gluck, of Bridgton, recipient of the 1988 Principal's Award at Lake Region High School. This award is sponsored by the Maine Secondary School Principals Association and is given to a deserving high school senior for academic achievement and citizenship; (SLS 426)

Lee S. Fields, Sr., formerly of Fort Fairfield, successful local businessman and community leader, well-known for his active participation with the National Guard Unit of Fort Fairfield and several fraternal organizations, including the Rotary and Lions Clubs, Eastern Frontier Lodge and Anah Temple Shrine of Bangor; (SLS 427) (in Memoriam)

Gerry Therrien, of Boy Scout Troop #160 in Lewiston, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 428)

Gary N. Veilleux, Assistant Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop #160 in Lewiston, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 429)

Scott Nadeau, Assistant Senior Patrol Leader of Boy Scout Troop #160 in Lewiston, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 430)

Flora Hill Lenfest, of Belfast, on the honored occasion of her 100th birthday, March 23, 1988; (SLS 431)

Leon A. Gorman, of Yarmouth, who, as President of L. L. Bean, Inc. in Freeport, has been named 1988 Business Leader of the Year by the Maine Chamber of Commerce and Industry; (SLS 432)

Mr. Leo Martin, of S.A.D. #71 consisting of Kennebunk and Kennebunkport Schools, for being chosen the 1988 Maine Superintendent of the Year by the American Association of School Administrators; (SLS 433)

Earl "Bud" Colby, Jr., member of Wells-Hussey Post No. 42 in Damariscotta, State Commander of the American Legion and a dedicated leader who has served his State and Nation with much distinction and stood ever ready to support and defend those rights of freedom that make our nation such a great place to live; (SLS 434)

Danielle St. Cyr, of Mexico, the American Cancer Society's Daffodil Child for 1988 and Daffodil Days, March 17th through the 19th; (SLS 435)

Thomas Warner, member of Rumford Post 24 of the American Legion and Grand Chef De Gare of the Maine 40 and 8 Society, a dedicated leader who has served his community and state in an outstanding manner and who has always stood ready to defend the freedoms that make this country such a great place to live; (SLS 436)

the rapid response and professional efforts of Robert Moody, of the Augusta Public Safety Department, who helped in safely extricating a 9-year-old child's foot which became ensnared in catch-basin grate; (SLS 437)

the rapid response and professional efforts of Sergeant Robert Wagner, of the Augusta Fire Department, who helped in safely extricating a 9-year-old child's foot which became ensnared in a catch-basin grate; (SLS 438)

the rapid response and professional efforts of Norman Arbour, of the Augusta Public Safety Department, who helped in safely extricating a 9-year-old child's foot which became ensnared in a catch-basin grate; (SLS 439)

the rapid response and professional efforts of William Cusick, of the Augusta Rescue Squad, who helped in safely extricating a 9-year-old child's foot which became ensnared in a catch-basin grate; (SLS 440)

the rapid response and professional efforts of Chief Keryl Clement of the Augusta Fire Department, who helped in safely extricating a 9-year-old child's foot which became ensnared in a catch-basin grate; (SLS 441)

the rapid response and professional efforts of Officer Charles Winslow, of the Augusta Police Department, who helped in safely extricating a 9-year-old child's foot which became ensnared in a catch-basin grate; (SLS 442)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

the rapid response and professional efforts of David Groder, of the Augusta Rescue Squad, who helped in safely extricating a 9-year-old child's foot which became ensnared in a catch-basin grate; (SLS 443)

George A. Dawbin, III, of Gardiner, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 444)

the Morse High School Gymnastics team, winners of the 1988 Class A Championship; (SLS 445)

William Bryant, whose civic commitment to public service as a selectman for 9 years and fire chief for 10 years have greatly benefited the Town of Canton and have earned him the pride and thanks of this community and State; (SLS 446)

Adelaide Ray, of Canton, a dedicated public servant who has contributed greatly to the good of the community of Canton as school director for 20 years and whose commitment to excellence in education has earned her the pride and gratitude of this community and State; (SLS 447)

Ralph Campbell, road commissioner for the Town of Canton, who has served in this capacity for 29 years and whose constant care and attention to the town's roads of this community have not gone unnoticed but will serve as permanent reminders of his outstanding ability and dedication; (SLS 448)

the 1988 North Yarmouth Academy Hockey Team, winners for the 2nd consecutive year of the Eastern Maine Class A hockey championship; (SLS 449)

Jennifer Ann Davis, a senior at Yarmouth High School and a 1987 Governor of Dirigo Girls State, who is the 1988 winner of the state's annual Voice of Democracy speech contest; (SLS 450)

John Campbell, a student at Brunswick Junior High School, who has been named a state winner in Division II of the 6th Annual Maine Developmental Disabilities Council Awareness Poster Contest; (SLS 451)

the 1988 Yarmouth High School Hockey Team, winners for the 2nd straight year of the Western Maine Class B hockey championship; (SLS 452)

the Bowdoin College Women's Swim Team who, after an undefeated season, captured the 1988 New England Women's Intercollegiate Swimming and Diving Association Division III Championships; (SLS 453)

John Rioux, a member of Rumford Lodge of Elks NO 862, President of the Maine Elks Association and a dedicated leader with much distinction, who has stood ever ready to support and defend those rights of freedom that make our nation such a great place in which to live; (SLS 454) the Le Paresseux Inc. Club of Rumford and its President, Steve Gallant, on their 60th and 20th anniversaries, respectively, and for their dedication and support of community and children's programs and in demonstrating civic involvement that has made this State and country such a great place; (SLS 455)

Timothy J. Ellis, of Norway, a senior at Oxford Hills High School, who has been selected as a recipient of the 1988 Principal's Award; (SLS 456)

Eva Bearce, on the occasion of her 107th birthday, March 14, 1988; (SLS 457)

the Yarmouth High School Girls' Ski Team, winner of the 1988 State Ski Championship for the 4th consecutive year; (SLS 458) the Yarmouth High School Boys' Ski Team, winners of the 1988 State Ski Championship; (SLS 459)

Freeport High School senior, Mary Jeanne Daly, who is among the nation's 1,200 finalists in the National Achievement Scholarship Program for Outstanding Negro Students; (SLS 460)

Robert Whiteley Patterson, of Somesville and Mount Desert Island, widely known for his long and distinguished career in architecture and landscape architecture; an individual with a true passion for conserving our natural resources, Mr. Patterson was the founder and first President of the Natural Resource Council of Maine, Director of the National Wildlife Federation and a Trustee of the New England Natural Resources Center; (SLS 461) (in Memoriam)

Adam Pelky, a student at Hilltop School, who has been named a state winner in Division II of the 6th Annual Maine Developmental Disabilities Council Awareness Poster Contest; (SLS 462)

Norman Higgins, of Guilford, who has been selected as one of 6 principals in the United States to receive a 1988 School Administrator Award granted by the Kennedy Center Alliance for Arts Education; (SLS 463)

Anne Erickson, of Millinocket, publisher and former owner of the Katahdin Times, who is retiring after 12 years of public service to the people of the Katahdin region; (SLS 464)

the Schenck High School Girls' Basketball Team, of East Millinocket, winners of the 1988 Class C State Championship; (SLS 465)

the 1988 Yarmouth High School Clippers and Coach Roger Grillo, winners of the State Class B Ice Hockey Championship for the 2nd consecutive year; (SLS 466)

Scott Loomis, a sophomore at Yarmouth High School, who won the 1988 State Class B Individual Cross-Country Ski Championship; (SLS 467)

Allen T. Mello, who has been named 1988 Man of the Year by the Blue Hill Chamber of Commerce; (SLS 468)

Ernest "Goose" Lyons, of Lincoln, who after working for 40 years for Lincoln Pulp and Paper and Great Northern Pulp and Paper has had a perfect attendance record; (SLS 469)

Eric Newcomb, Troy Goodrich, Danny O'Sullivan, David Riley, Robbie White, Travis Armes, Nick Winchester, Chad White, Chris Taylor, Rick Robertson, Jeff Bryant, Rich LeClere, Jeff Brown, Robbie Hart, Ed Vanidestine, Kevin Debeck, Chris Debeck, Jerry Maynard and coaches Mark Savage, Chris Cole and Dave Robertson of the Brewer Boys' Basketball Team, winners in the 1988 Class A Eastern Division Championship; (SLS 470)

Michael T. Reinsborough, of Readfield, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 471)

Veteran Bowdoin Coach Charlie Butt, who was voted 1988 "Coach of the Year" by his peers at the New England Women's Intercollegiate Swimming and Diving Association Division III Championship meet; (SLS 472)

Flora Hill Lenfest, of Belfast, on the occasion of her 100th birthday, March 23; Mrs. Lenfest has led an active life highlighted by being the mother of 5 children, a vital partner in helping her husband run the family farm; a school bus driver, using horse and wagon; and an employee in the local sardine factory into her late 70's; (SLS 473)

the Houlton "Lady Shireowners" and coach John Donato on their impressive victory in winning the Eastern Maine Class "B" Basketball Championship; (SLS 474)

The Restaurant at 22 Lincoln, which has been named the 1988 Small Business of the Year by the Brunswick Area Chamber of Commerce; (SLS 475)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

longtime local physician Benjamin Herrera, of Freeport, whose untimely death saddened many in this coastal community; Dr. Herrera was loved by family and friends and will be remembered by many for his active participation in children's programs sponsored by the church he attended; (SLS 476) (in Memoriam)

Victoria F. Crandall, beloved Executive Director of the Maine State Music Theatre, who has been named the Brunswick Area 1988 Citizen of the Year by the Brunswick Area Chamber of Commerce; (SLS 477)

the top 10 students of the 1988 graduating class of Lake Region High School: Heidi Hunt; Erica Pond; Adam J. Aja; Heather Snow; Jodi Underwood; Kevin R. Newquist; David A. Gluck; Rebecca S. Cross; Adria W. Lowell; and Cynthia D. Grimm; (SLS 478)

the Caribou High School Girls' Basketball Team, winners of the 1988 Eastern Maine Class A Sportsmanship Award; (SLS 479)

the following members of the Rumford High School Girls' Basketball Team, winners of the 1988 Western Maine Class B Championship: Lynne Wheeler; Kristen Martin; Becky Wing; Marny Elliott; Kerry Hotham; Karen Roach; Judi Gallant; Kelly Dubois; Lisa Pomerleau; Susan Weirich; Donna De Salle; Kelly Brigette; Kirsten Brady; manager Bonnie Driscoll; and coach Steve LaPointe; (SLS 480)

Jack Kelly, a senior at Camden Rockport High School, who is the 1988 Class B State Wrestling Champion; (SLS 481)

Officer James P. Emerson, of the Dexter Police Force, whose brave and heroic actions while in the line of duty on February 29, 1988 were directly responsible for preventing injury or death to fellow Dexter citizens; (SLS 482)

Brian Downs, member of Rumford's 1988 Western Maine Class B Basketball quarterfinal Team, chosen as a 1st team forward on the Mountain Valley Conference All-Star Team; who led the MVC in scoring this season with 21 points and 9 rebounds per game; (SLS 483)

Chris Bessey, member of Jay's 2nd place Western Maine Class C Basketball Team for 1988, chosen for the second year as 1st team guard on the Mountain Valley Conference All-Star Team; who was voted the outstanding player in this year's Western Maine Class C Tournament and was selected to the East-West All-Star Team; (SLS 484)

Chuck Huff, member of Jay's 2nd place Western Maine Class C Basketball Team for 1988, a junior chosen for the 2nd year as a center on the Mountain Valley Conference All-Star Team; (SLS 485)

Lynne Wheeler, member of Rumford's Class B Western Maine Girls' Basketball Championship Team for 1988, chosen as a 1st team forward on the 1987-1988 Mountain Valley Conference All-Star Girls' Basketball Team and named as Rumford's all-time scoring leader with 1,070 points and 2nd leading rebounder with 991 boards; (SLS 486)

the Pemetic Elementary School Band, of Southwest Harbor, winners in the 1988 Maine Jazz Festival junior high competition; (SLS 487)

the Mount Desert Island Jazz Band and its director Dick Ordway, winners in the 1988 Maine Jazz Festival competition; (SLS 488)

Francis and Cora Martin, of Westbrook, on the honored occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary, March 26, 1988; (SLS 489) who has been crowned "Miss Maine Teen U.S.A." for 1988 and will represent Maine in the National Miss Teen U.S.A. Pageant in July; (SLS 490)

St. Dominic High School Hockey Team, winners of the 1988 State Class A Championship; (SLS 491)

Calvin Fowle Tupper, of Orrington, a proud family man, highly respected businessman, and devoted husband of our dear colleague Helen Marr Tupper; a man well known as a caring and dedicated citizen who took an active role in civic, historical and religious affairs of the community and who has provided sound leadership; (SLS 492) (in Memoriam) local businesswoman Frances H. Armington, of Belfast, who has been selected as the 6th annual "Citizen of the Year" by the Modern Woodmen of America; Mrs. Armington is a highly respected community leader who has contributed greatly to this Waldo County town; (SLS 493)

Abigail Donovan, a senior at Brunswick High School and recipient of the 1988 Principal's Award, sponsored by the Maine Secondary School Principals' Association, in recognition of academic achievement and citizenship; (SLS 494)

the March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation on the celebration of its 50th anniversary as a voluntary health organization, and the Maine chapter for its continued efforts to assure healthy lives for children throughout the nation; (SLS 495)

Patrick Pepin, a senior at Rumford Junior-Senior High School, recipient of a 1988 Principal's Award sponsored by the Maine Secondary School Principals Association in recognition of high academic achievement and citizenship; (SLS 496)

Aimee Ames, of Hanover, who has been selected as a Congressional Scholar based on demonstrated academic achievement, leadership and citizenship; Aimee, a student at Rumford High School, was one of 300 outstanding students selected to attend the National Young Leaders Conference in Washington, D.C.; (SLS 497)

Ann Zomberg, of Rockland, for academic excellence which has earned her the honored distinction of being selected as 1988 class salutatorian at Rockland District High School; (SLS 498)

Ida Faber, of Rockland, for academic excellence which has earned her the honored distinction of being selected as 1988 class valedictorian at Rockland District High School; (SLS 499)

Maine Vocational Region 10, first place winner at the 20th annual Distributive Education Clubs of America State Leadership Conference at Husson College, 1988; (SLS 500)

Maine Vocational Region 10, first place winner at the 20th annual Distributive Education Clubs of America State Leadership Conference at Husson College, 1988; (SLS)

Paul Soucy, of Brewer, who has been named the Girls' High School Basketball Coach of the Year; (SLS 501)

Wayne J. Gallant, of the Rumford Police Department, who has been selected as "Officer of the Year" by Voiture Locale 613 La Societe 40 and 8 and who has demonstrated his ability to act swiftly in emergency situations and has been praised by many for his voluntary participation in youth activities in his community; (SLS 502) the Rumford High School "Panthers" Boys' Ski Team, coached by Rick Kent, winners of the State Class A Ski Championship February 18, 1988; (SLS 503) the top 10 students in academic achievement for the class of 1988 at Oxford Hills High School: Beth Watson; Jessica Story; Marc Morin; Ronald Morris; Christian Primozich; Tammy LeViness; Jeannine Kane; David Merrill; Jill Caradonna; and Sean Sawyer; (SLS 504)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Jason Jones, of Camden-Rockport High School, State Class B Wrestling Champion in the 125 lb. weight class; (SLS 505)

Max Micoleau, of Camden-Rockport High School, State Class A Giant Slalom Champion; (SLS 506)

Maynard Pushaw, of Camden-Rockport High School, State Class B Wrestling Champion in the 160 lb. weight class; (SLS 507)

Derek Marshall, of Camden-Rockport High School, State Class B record-holder in the following swimming competitions: the 200-yard medley relay, the 100-yard freestyle, and the 100-yard backstroke; and winner of the George Crimmins Award as the outstanding swimmer at the State Class B championship meet; (SLS 508)

Paul Soucy, of Brewer, who has been named the Girls' High School Basketball Coach of the Year; (SLS 509)

Evelyn Ellen Morrow, of Sanford, a kind and caring woman who is loved by family and friends on the occasion of her 85th birthday; (SLS 510)

Gordon Smith, who is retiring after many years of dedication and commitment to the people of the Oxford Hills area; (SLS 511)

Roberts K. "Bob" Lawrence, of Lisbon, an outstanding citizen and dedicated teacher who was active in many community affairs and whose involvement in the school board, the board of selectmen and the Lisbon Rotary Club as a member and past president contributed significantly to the Town of Lisbon; (SLS 512)

Nancy Hayes Sununu, wife of Republican Governor John Sununu of New Hampshire and devoted mother of 8 children, for her laudable efforts as a community leader and active participant in various civic, political, educational and charitable organizations for the betterment of community, state and nation and in praise of her commendable role as New Hampshire's gracious First Lady; (SLS 513)

Barbara G. McKernan, mother of Governor John R. McKernan, Jr., an inspiring Maine citizen who has distinguished herself in the service to our State by her long and faithful commitment as a member of numerous boards and committees dedicated to promoting economic growth and enhancing the quality of life for others; (SLS 514)

Marjorie B. Dodge, who is retiring after 25 years of dedication to the Rockport Library; (SLS 515)

Geraldine Waddell, of York Harbor, whose unselfish involvement in community affairs and concern for the welfare of others set an example for her children of hard work and caring, and earned her the deserved honor of being named Maine's Mother of the Year 1988; (SLS 516)

Aran Shetterly, a senior at George Stevens Academy, who has been selected as the recipient of the Principal's Award, sponsored by the Maine Secondary School Principals Association in recognition of academic achievement and citizenship; (SLS 517)

Duncan Dunscombe, a senior at Freeport High School and recipient of the 1988 Principal's Award, sponsored by the Maine Secondary School Principals Association for academic achievement and leadership; (SLS 518)

Elizabeth E. Barker, a senior at Brunswick High School, who has been named the 1988 State of Maine D.A.R. Good Citizen; (SLS 519)

Kathy Sobocinski, 12, a Maine Sunday Telegram carrier and student at Brunswick Junior High School, who has earned the Guy Gannett Publishing Co. VIP award for February, 1988; (SLS 520)

Colonel Charles Gillis, U.S. Army Air Corps Retired, a beloved citizen of Calais who will long be remembered for his outstanding service to community, county, state and country; (SLS 521) (in Memoriam)

James C. Reilly, Boy Scout Troop #48 of Orono-Veazie, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 522)

Dr. J. E. Shankel, of Augusta, Maine District Superintendent of 51 Nazarene churches for the past 17 years and former pastor of the Augusta Church of the Nazarene for 8 years; a truly outstanding pastor who has worked faithfully to promote the cause of Christian principles; (SLS 523)

Joel Bruce, of Boy Scout Troop #657 in Bath, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 524)

Joseph Ezhaya, recipient of the Elias A. Joseph Award, for his leadership and dedication involving economic development and the well-being of fellow Mid-Maine citizens; (SLS 525)

Elisa Thompson, a student at the Guilford Middle School, on winning the 1988 State Spelling Bee Championship; (SLS 526)

Bernie Taylor upon his retirement after having served for more than 2 decades as barber and "advisor" to Maine Governors and Legislators; (SLS 527)

Father George Goudreau, recipient of the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce's Distinguished Community Service Award for his dedication and commitment to the welfare of the people in the Waterville area; (SLS 528)

Loukie Lofchie, of Augusta, recipient of the Maine Chapter, National Association of Social Workers' Social Worker of the Year Award for her continuing commitment to social welfare, environmental health and safety, and peace; (SLS 529)

Lorraine and Joseph Trytek, of Chelsea, on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary on April 20, 1988; (SLS 542)

Melissa Bernard, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1988 graduating class of Vinalhaven High School; (SLS 530)

Alison Holmquist, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1988 graduating class of Vinalhaven High School; (SLS 531)

Kempton Wakefield, recipient of the Waterville Area Chamber of Commerce "Special Service" Award for dedication to volunteerism on behalf of his community (SLS 532)

Kempton Wakefield, recipient of the Waterville Area Chamber of Commerce "Special Service" Award for dedication to volunteerism on behalf of his community (SLS 532)

Bernard "Bucky" Runser recipient of the Waterville Area Chamber of Commerce "Businessperson of the Year" award for his generosity to worthy organizations; (SLS 533)

Peter Gorman, of Waterville, for outstanding contributions in service to the State Lottery Commission, including his tireless efforts developing the new 40-number tri-state lottery game; (SLS 534)

AFCM Mervin K. Kilgore, USN, of Brunswick and recipient of 4 Navy Achievement Medals, upon his retirement following 30 years of dedicated Naval Service; (SLS 535)

Christine Hastedt, of Freeport, who has been named the "Public Citizen of the Year" by the Maine Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers in recognition of her continuing commitment and tireless efforts on behalf of Maine's low-income citizens; (SLS 536)

Karen Haskell, Director of Advertising and Special Projects at Cole Hahn, on being selected by the Freeport Merchants Association as the "Distinguished Member of the Year" for 1988; (SLS 537)

Amy Katherine Marx, a senior at Camden-Rockport High School, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the class of 1988; (SLS 538)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Peter Alan Klivans, a senior at Camden-Rockport High School, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the class of 1988; (SLS 539)

the Soviet exchange students and their advisors, from Kharkov University, in recognition of the spirit of mutual cooperation and understanding between our two nations which has been advanced by their visit to our fair State; (SLS 540)

Marshall Cohen, of Brunswick, for 15 years of skilled advocacy on behalf of numerous health, social service, professional, and business interests statewide, with appreciation for his extensive knowledge of the legislative process and, above all, for his friendship; (SLS 541)

Lorraine and Joseph Trytek, of Chelsea, on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary on April 20, 1988; (SLS 542)

Jane P. Norris, named Auburn's Citizen of the Year 1988, for her unselfish dedication and commitment to the banking industry, her family, church and community; (SLS 543)

Lee Theriault of Scout Troop #189 in Fort Kent who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 544)

Father Alphonse Marquis, of Fort Kent, for 30 years of dedicated service to the Boy Scouts of America; (SLS 545)

Shawn Jason Theriault of Scout Troop #189 in Fort Kent who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 546)

Andrew Jansmann, of Cumberland, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 547)

Christopher S. Aspinall of Boy Scout Troop #375 in Kezar Falls, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 548)

Jennie B. McGowan, of Skowhegan, beloved grandmother of our colleague, Patrick McGowan; (SLS 549) (in Memoriam)

David E. Smith, of Woolwich, concerned and caring educator, coach, and advisor, whose devotion to the students at Morse High School and to the highest principles of his profession endeared him to the citizens of the Bath and Woolwich area; (SLS 550) (in Memoriam)

Atlantic Salmon for Northern Maine, Inc., recipient of the 1988 Atlantic Salmon Federation's "Affiliate of the Year" award. The ceremony, which was attended by the Honorable Philip F. Peterson, of Caribou, a founder of the organization, highlighted the corporation's contribution toward the restoration of the Aroostook River and the excellent work done in the cause of salmon conservation; (SLS 551)

Alice Hammond, chairwoman of the Sidney 1992 Bicentennial Committee and author of The History of Education in Sidney, Maine, for her many contributions to the vitality of the community of Sidney; (SLS 552)

Sharrlyn Parsons, of Carmel, who has been named one of the 10 outstanding women in the nation; (SLS 553)

Alfred Wheeler, who is the recipient of the prestigious 1988 Community Service Award by the Cascade Grange for his dedication and commitment to community service work; (SLS 554)

Michael L. Chamberlain, formerly of Boy Scout Troop #16 in Brewer, now of Boy Scout Troop #34 in Cape Coral, Florida, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 555)

the continued efforts of concerned citizens and agencies that have joined together to combat substance abuse at the 7th annual Maine State Alcohol and Drug Abuse Conference; (SLS 556)

Myrtle H. Austin, of South China, a hardworking and dedicated librarian at Erskine Academy who has been selected as a 1988 "Outstanding Citizen" by the Modern Woodmen of America; (SLS 557)

Lloyd T. Dunham, of Ellsworth, accomplished educator and legislator, who served his community and State as superintendent of schools, president of the Maine Teachers Association, member of the House of Representatives, and member of the Senate; (SLS 558) (in Memoriam)

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD
113TH MAINE LEGISLATURE
2ND REGULAR SESSION

The following expressions of Senate Legislative Sentiment were received in the interim of May 5, 1988 to November 28, 1988, pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

L. Herbert "Bussie" York, who has been selected by the Council of State Governments as a recipient of the 1987 National Agriculture and Rural Development Leadership Award for the promotion and marketing of agricultural products and service. Bussie has long been recognized on both state and national levels for his work and leadership in soil and water conservation efforts and was a driving force for the Challenge Grant Program and the Agricultural Viability Program in Maine; (SLS 559)

Patrick K. McGowan, State Representative of District #101, recipient of the New England Environmental Award for his outstanding leadership in the protection of the New England environment; (SLS 560)

R. David Jowdry, of Augusta, named Outstanding Citizen of 1988 by the Club Calumet; (SLS 561)

Marc Lepage, of Boy Scout Troop #160 in Lewiston, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 562)

Kenneth Rautiola, of Boy Scout Troop #657 in Bath, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 563)

Peter F. Miesburger, member of Post 9389, Caribou, State Commander of the Department of Maine Veterans of Foreign Wars, a dedicated leader who has served with meritorious distinction and has stood ever ready to support and defend those rights and freedoms that make our nation great; (SLS 564)

Pamela I. Stewart, of Portland, recipient of a Volunteer Services Recognition Award for her dedication and commitment as a volunteer with the Portland Coalition for the Psychiatrically Labeled; (SLS 565)

Todd Webster, of Yarmouth High School, one of 35 national winners in the National Society of Colonial Dames of America essay contest; (SLS 566)

the Brunswick School Department school bus drivers, team winners of the 1988 Cumberland County Regional "Road-e-o" bus driving competition, for their consistently superior driving performance and skill; (SLS 567)

Millie Simpson Stewart, of Brunswick, named 1988 "Woman of the Year" by the Brunswick Business and Professional Women's Club for her outstanding contributions to the community; (SLS 568)

Brian Thibeault, first place winner of the 1988 Cumberland County Regional "Road-e-o" school bus driving competition, for exhibiting outstanding professional skill and judgment; (SLS 569)

Teresa Cornelio and Mike Desjardins, first place winners in the Measurement Category at the Science Olympiad State Competition held at the University of Maine; (SLS 570)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Aileen K. McLaughlin, of East Wilton, who was recently selected to participate in the 1988 New England Regional Leadership Program, a cooperative program between the six New England land-grant universities, cooperative extension systems, and the W. K. Kellogg Foundation; (SLS 571) the following members of the Jay Junior High School Science Olympiad Team, and their coach Ray Chase, winners of the southern regional competition and the State competition: Jason Bor, Kristal Brooks, Teresa Cornelio, Karen Cutchin, Mike Desjardins, Tim Donald, Heidi Girardin, Zane Goodwin, Dominic Mancine, Jason Mancine, Stacey Mancine, Victor Mortero, Kirk Riley, Jason Stevens, Seth Towle, and Christina Williams; (SLS 572).

Teresa Cornelio, Dominic Mancine, and Stacey Mancine, first place winners in the Sounds of Music Category at the Science Olympiad State Competition held at the University of Maine; (SLS 573)

Kirk Riley, first place winner in the Hot House Category at the Science Olympiad State Competition held at the University of Maine; (SLS 574)

Mike Desjardins and Kirk Riley, first place winners in the Computer Programming Category at the Science Olympiad State Competition held at the University of Maine; (SLS 575)

Zane Goodwin, first place winner in the Orienteering Category at the Science Olympiad State Competition held at the University of Maine; (SLS 576)

Heidi Girardin, first place winner in the Rocks and Fossils Category at the Science Olympiad State Competition held at the University of Maine; (SLS 577)

Karen Cutchin, first place winner in the Tree Identification category in the Science Olympiad State Competition at the University of Maine; (SLS 578) the community of St. Albans in Somerset County, on the occasion of its 175th anniversary, (SLS 579)

George and Marie Sargent, on the honored occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary, June 20, 1988; (SLS 580)

Dorothy Noyes, of Yarmouth, who won the first-place Grand Prize Cook-Off award in the 1988 Maine Sunday Telegram "Best of Maine" cooking contest; (SLS 581)

George Morton, of Westbrook, on the occasion of his 100th birthday on June 12, 1988; (SLS 582)

Anna Theriault, a resident at Forest Hill Manor and formerly of Fort Kent, on the honored occasion of her 100th birthday on July 7, 1988; (SLS 583)

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Brown, of Durham, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on April 16, 1988; (SLS 584)

the Honorable Horace A. Hildreth, who was widely recognized for his leadership and numerous achievements in business and government, including an extraordinary career as 59th Governor of the State of Maine from 1945-1949 and United States Ambassador to Pakistan from 1953-1957; and whose efforts in civic and charitable interests of his community and State will long be remembered; (SLS 585) (in Memoriam)

James F. Convery, of Dixfield, a dedicated and involved public servant who, as selectman, devoted himself to improving the town's position in the areas of waste disposal, water and sewer capability, and road and park maintenance; and whose assistance to the elderly and concern for all the citizens of Dixfield have made that town a better place in which to live; (SLS 586)

Erica Perry, who for high academic achievement has been named a top honor student of the 1988 graduating class at Buckfield Junior-Senior High School; (SLS 587)

Kimberly Jacobs, who for high academic achievement has been named a top honor student of the 1988 graduating class at Buckfield Junior-Senior High School; (SLS 588)

Jay High School's 400-meter relay team, composed of Craig Small, Matt Friedman, Dan Miller and Kevin Henry, who won the State Class C 400-meter event in the state meet held at Brunswick on Saturday, June 4, 1988. Their time for the race was 45.9, edging out Orono by two-tenths of a second; (SLS 589)

Kevin Michael Parker and ALMACA, the Association of Labor-Management Administrators and Consultants on Alcoholism, for their innovative and effective efforts to combat alcohol abuse, on the occasion of their 10th Annual Eastern Regional Conference; (SLS 590)

Patrick R. Desmond, Sr., of Winslow, World War II veteran and past commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, active member of the American Legion and other civic organizations, and beloved husband and father; (SLS 591) (in Memoriam)

Scott Bernier, of Troop 443 in Winslow, for attaining the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 592)

Beverly M. Hancock, of Nobleboro, esteemed by colleagues and students as an excellent teacher, on her retirement from Freeport High School after 41 years of outstanding commitment to her students and her profession; named Maine Business Education Teacher of the Year and Maine Vocational Teacher of the Year, she has always maintained the highest standards for herself and her students, and has made a lasting contribution to the field of education; (SLS 593)

Ed and Laura Hamm, of East Millinocket, who have been named Outstanding Citizens of the Year for 1988 by the East Millinocket and Medway Chamber of Commerce; (SLS 594)

Tracy Brown, who for high academic achievement has been named a top honor student of the 1988 graduating class at Buckfield Junior-Senior High School; (SLS 595)

Darcy Hicks, who for high academic achievement has been named a top honor student of the 1988 graduating class at Buckfield Junior-Senior High School; (SLS 596)

Nina Curry Stitson, of Limerick, esteemed by colleagues and students as an excellent teacher, on her retirement from S.A.D. #57 after 38 years of outstanding commitment to her students and her profession; named S.A.D. #57 Teacher of the Year in 1973, she has always maintained the highest standards for herself and her students, and has made a lasting contribution to the field of education; (SLS 597)

Shawn Dutremble, who is graduating from Biddeford High School with a 4 year perfect attendance record; (SLS 598)

Rupert R. Haley, of Kezar Falls, who is retiring after 25 years as school bus driver for Parsonsfield; (SLS 599)

Geoffrey R. Stanwood, of Brunswick, who received the Alumni Service Award, the highest award bestowed by the Bowdoin Alumni Association; (SLS 600)

2nd grade Longfellow School student, Charles D. Main, Jr., son of Charles and Pamela Main of Brunswick, 1988 State of Maine representative in the talent and beauty divisions at the 25th annual Hemisphere Pageant in Miami Beach, Florida; (SLS 601)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Eric Blakeman, of North Yarmouth Academy, winner of the 1988 State Singles Tennis Championship for the 2nd straight year; (SLS 602)

the Brewer High School baseball team and their coach, Dennis Kiah, for their tremendous season, capped by their 1988 Eastern Class A Championship and State Class A Runner-up performances; (SLS 603)

Virginia Katon, for 40 years of dedicated service as the Town Clerk of Chelsea; (SLS 604)

Albion and Isabel Morton, of Detroit, married July 4, 1938, on the honored occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary; (SLS 605)

Mr. Samuel Hillson, of Waterville, on the occasion of his 100th birthday, July 1, 1988; (SLS 606)

Chad T. Donovan, of Boy Scout Troop #135 in New Gloucester, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 607)

Lisa Kelly, a Brunswick High School sophomore, who has been crowned the 1988 Brunswick Teen Queen; (SLS 615)

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice E. Wright, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on June 12, 1988; (SLS 616)

Rev. and Mrs. Leslie R. Craig, of Durham, who celebrated the 60th anniversary of their marriage on June 16, 1988; (SLS 617)

James E. Patten, of Ellsworth, named a Paul Harris Fellow by the Ellsworth Rotary Club for his dedicated involvement in Rotary and community projects for over 21 years; (SLS 618)

Rose Fioroni, born October 7, 1888, in Napoli, Italy, who will be celebrating her 100th birthday with her family and many friends on August 21, 1988 at St. Athanasius-St. John Church in Rumford; Mrs. Fioroni has made her home in Rumford since she moved to Maine in 1911; (SLS 619)

Beatrice and Eldege Parent, of Wells, whose civic contributions to their community have earned them the respect and gratitude of its citizens, on the honored occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary, August 13, 1988; (SLS 620)

Winifred Mary Cloutier, of Livermore Falls, on the honored occasion of her 100th birthday on November 17, 1988; (SLS 621)

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold M. Sturtevant, of Freeport, a very special couple who are wished much joy and happiness on their Golden Wedding Anniversary year; (SLS 622)

Andy Maier, of Freeport, who has served with distinction as Co-Chairperson of the Freeport "Fun for the Fourth" Celebration for 4 years; (SLS 623)

Elizabeth W. Crandall, of Brunswick, who received the Distinguished Service Award from the American Home Economics Association Foundation; (SLS 624)

Mike Brewer, of Freeport, who has served with distinction as Co-Chairperson of the Freeport "Fun for the Fourth" Celebration for 4 years; (SLS 625)

Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Cloutier, of Brunswick, on the honored occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary, June 18, 1988; (SLS 626)

Russell Guy, of Millinocket, on the occasion of his 80th birthday; (SLS 627)

Joelle Snider, of Caribou, who was selected as the 1988 Potato Blossom Queen; (SLS 628)

the Willard Doyen family, of Mapleton, on being selected as the "Outstanding Aroostook Farm Family of the Year"; (SLS 629)

Molly and Frederick Van Stone, of Brooksville, on the honored occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary, September 17, 1988; (SLS 630)

Herbert and Opal Weed, of Corinna, on the very special occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary, September 8, 1988; (SLS 632)

Clifford L. Martin, of Caribou, who retired following 38 years of employment with Maine Public Service Company and our best wishes are extended to Cliff for a very happy and well-deserved retirement; (SLS 631)

Shannon C. Lancaster, of Weeks Mills, on winning the national championship in the Small Bore Rifle Competition sponsored by the National Rifle Association; (SLS 633)

Jane Tuttle, of Freeport, on the honored occasion of her 100th birthday, July 20, 1988; (SLS 634)

Franklin R. Donley, Sr., of Brunswick, a dedicated person who has devoted much of his life in service to his state and nation and in working with our young people. He has served with distinction as Director of the American Legion baseball program for 10 years. Frank is also a member of the American Legion National Children and Youth Commission; (SLS 635)

Franklin "Fuzzy" and Norma Wilson, of Kittery, on the honored occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary, August 14, 1988; (SLS 636)

Mr. and Mrs. Roland W. Caron, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on July 4, 1988; (SLS 637)

Blaine A. Littlefield, O.D., of Brunswick, who is among 291 optometrists throughout the United States to have received the American Optometric Association's 1988 Continuing Optometric Recognition Award in acknowledgement of the completion of continuing education classes in the field of optometry; (SLS 638)

Donald Kilgour, whose tireless dedication and commitment with the Rotary and other civic organizations benefiting the Rockland community exemplifies the volunteer spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 639)

Barbara Kilgour, whose dedication as a volunteer with the Rockland Women's Club, MFWC, and other church and civic organizations demonstrates the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 640)

Donald Bradford, of Scout Troop #55 in East Millinocket, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 641)

Mr. and Mrs. Forest R. Dodge, of Freeport, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on July 16, 1988; (SLS 642) the Keyes Fibre Company on the occasion of its 85th Anniversary year; and extend a wish for continued success as one of the largest employers in central Maine; (SLS 643)

Gary Kenniston, of Rockland, whose 31 years of dedication and commitment to the Little League baseball program typifies the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 644)

Sylvia Teasalu, Sylvia Wright, Igo Gryazin, Arvo Kuddo, Tiit Kqkkyabin, Olaf Lukk, Maila Saar, Tiiu Soommer, Tynis Heamer and Yak Urisson, citizen ambassadors from the Soviet Union who have been visiting Maine under the auspices of the Friendship Force organization; and extend our wish for continued efforts in the promotion of international friendship between our countries; (SLS 645)

Kirsten Blakemore, Miss Brunswick, who has been crowned Miss Maine U.S.A., 1988; (SLS 646)

John and Margaret Donaghy, of Lubec, on the honored occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary, August 20, 1988; (SLS 647)

Captain Leon P. Currier, of Sanford, for his dedication and commitment of over 27 years as a member of the Sanford Fire Department; Mr. Currier is a past president and charter executive board member of local # 1624 and has been a strong advocate for firefighter rights; (SLS 648)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Wendy Koch, of Machias, recipient of the Girl Scout Silver Award for her efforts in a wide range of Girl Scout experiences and for her commitment to bettering her life and the lives of others; (SLS 649)

Heidi Bernhardt, of Machias, recipient of the Girl Scout Gold Award, which is the highest achievement award given to a Senior Girl Scout who has expressed a special commitment to herself, her community, her world and the future; (SLS 650)

the 39 college, university and vocational-technical institute campuses throughout the state which are participating in "Come-to-Campus Day," and to the Maine Higher Education Council which has coordinated this first-in-the-nation, statewide, higher education open house day; (SLS 651)

Robert and Freda Bennett, of Corinna, on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary on November 25, 1988; (SLS 655)

George and Aaria Corkum, of Southwest Harbor, on the honored occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary; (SLS 656)

Richie Philbrick, of Scout Troop #580 in Rumford, who has earned the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 657)

Marlene R. Gaudepte, for 33 years of dedicated services as bookkeeper to the town of Greenville; (SLS 658)

Mr. and Mrs. Rosario Levesque, of Brunswick, a very special couple who are wished much happiness on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary Year; (SLS 659)

Donald Hall, former State Representative and long-time community leader of Sangerville, for many years of dedicated service to the citizens of Piscataquis county and the people of the State of Maine; (SLS 660)

Madlyn Carr, of Camden, for over 16 years with the Department of Human Services, serving children and families as state homemaker and case aide; (SLS 661)

Archie Higgins, of Tenants Harbor, for 28 years of service to children and families of the State with the Department of Human Services; (SLS 662)

Rick Litchfield, owner of the Captain Lord Mansion in Kennebunkport, who is the recipient of the 1988 Special Service Award from the Maine Innkeepers Association; (SLS 663)

Robert A. LaGuardia, of Freeport, a 15-year veteran of the Maine Bureau of Liquor Enforcement, who has been named that agency's first "Officer of the Year"; (SLS 664)

Mabel F. Russell, Tax Collector and Treasurer for the Town of Durham, upon her retirement after 20 years of dedicated public service; (SLS 665)

Ray Weymouth, owner of the Interstate Oasis Motor Lodge in Brunswick, who has earned the 1988 President's Award from the Maine Innkeepers Association; (SLS 666)

Shane M. Stewart, of Boy Scout Troop #509 in Rumford Point, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 667)

David S. Everett, of Boy Scout Troop #509 in Rumford Point, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 668)

Derek C. Adams, of Boy Scout Troop #509 in Rumford Point, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 669)

Richard Giles, of East Waterboro, who, as President of Jordan's Food Corporation in Westbrook, has been named recipient of the Maine Innkeepers Association's 1988 Allied Award; (SLS 670)

David Cartier, of Rockland, who, as Director of Sales and Marketing at the Samoset Resort in Rockport, is the recipient of the 1988 Community Service Award by the Maine Innkeepers Association; (SLS 671)

Steve and Peggy Wight, owners of the Sunday River Inn in Bethel, who have been named the 1988 Innkeeper of the Year by the Maine Innkeepers Association; (SLS 672)

John and Charlotte Druce, owners of Spruce Point Inn in Boothbay Harbor, recipients of the 1988 Hall of Fame Senior Service Award of the Maine Innkeepers Association; (SLS 673)

the Oakland Fire Department, on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of this outstanding volunteer fire department, serving the community of Oakland; (SLS 674)

Irving Richardson, of Bowdoinham, a teacher in the non-graded alternative Morse Street School in Freeport, who has been named Maine's Teacher of the Year by the National Association of Secondary School Principals; (SLS 675)

Thomas Payson, of Yarmouth, recipient of the 1988 Latchstring Award for his four decades of outstanding service, commitment and dedication to the Town of Yarmouth; (SLS 676)

Mr. and Mrs. Russell A. French, of Brunswick, on the observance of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, September 20, 1988; (SLS 677)

Margaret G Dunleavy, for 46 years of dedicated service to her community as Executive Secretary of the Hancock County Chapter of the American Red Cross; (SLS 678) and celebrating the Centennial Anniversary of the First Baptist Church of Westbrook with its parishioners and pastor, Dr. Linwood Welch; (SLS 679)

the Honorable Albert Theriault, of Rumford, who with family and friends will celebrate the occasion of the 80th birthday on November 2, 1988. Albert represented Rumford in the House of Representatives from 1970 to 1980. His many years of devoted service to his town, state and nation have made this a better place because he walked our way; (SLS 680)

Mabel Russell, of Durham, on the occasion of her 80th birthday, October 29, 1988 and on her retiring as Durham's Town Treasurer after 20 years of dedicated service; (SLS 681)

Mr. and Mrs. Victor J. LeMieux, of Brunswick, on the observance of their 60th Wedding Anniversary, October 22, 1988; (SLS 682)

Harvey and Rebecca Steward, of Corinna, and extend best wishes on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary, November 29, 1988; (SLS 683)

Gail Hodsdon, Town Clerk of Brunswick, who has been elected Chairman of the Board of Directors of the New England Institute and Academy which is accredited by the International Institute of Municipal Clerks; (SLS 684)

Ethel Hawkes Blair, who, with family and friends, celebrated her 100th birthday on October 29, 1988; (SLS 685)

Harold and Helen Blaisdell, of Dexter, on the observance of their 60th Wedding Anniversary, December 22, 1988; (SLS 686) the Georges Valley High School Soccer Team, which won the State Class C Soccer Championship; (SLS 687)

the Yarmouth High School Clippers, coached by Brenda Michaelson, winners of the 1988 Western Maine Class C Field Hockey championship; (SLS 688)

The following expressions of Senate Legislative Sentiment were received in the interim of November 28, 1988 to December 7, 1988, pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

The Rams, of Cony High School, on winning the 1988 State Class A Field Hockey Championship, and coaches Sue Zimmerman, Marsha Giglio and Kelley Seymour and manager/scorekeeper Jennifer Felt; (SLS 693)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

the clients and staff of Opportunity Housing, Inc., of Bangor, recipient of the National Association of Private Residential Resources' 1988 Residential Services Award. Opportunity Housing has enabled hundreds of Bangor area citizens with developmental disabilities to find dignity and achieve growth and independence in noninstitutional community based settings; (SLS 694)

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD
113TH MAINE LEGISLATURE
3RD SPECIAL SESSION

The following expressions of Legislative Sentiment appeared on the 3rd Special Session Senate Calendar of September 15, 1988 to September 16, 1988 pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

Mary Small, Regional Program Manager of Child and Family Services for Region 4 in Bangor, who is retiring in November after 37 1/2 years of state service; (SLS 652)

Marshall Frankel, Mayor and former Councilman of Bangor, for his tremendous community and public service; (SLS 653)

Richard R. Charette, who represented the 13th Senatorial District, the City of Lewiston, in the 110th and 111th Legislatures with compassion, warmth and dedication and who demonstrated his community spirit through many years of service on the Androscoggin County Commission, the Lewiston School Board and numerous other civic organizations; (in Memoriam) (SLS 654)

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD
113TH MAINE LEGISLATURE
4TH SPECIAL SESSION

The following expressions of Legislative Sentiments appeared on the 4th Special Session Senate Calendar of November 28, 1988 pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

the football team, coaching staff and student body of Thornton Academy in Saco, on their November 19, 1988 victory in the State Class A Football Championship; (SLS 689)

Chris McCarthy, Son of Russell and Elaine McCarthy, who has been selected to represent Freeport High School at the state conference for young leaders sponsored by the Hugh O'Brien Leadership Foundation; (SLS 690)

Claire Letellier, teacher and chairman of the Math Department at Yarmouth High School, who has won the 1988 Presidential Award for Excellence in Math Teaching in Maine; (SLS 691)

Geraldine LeBlanc, of Sanford, and in extending best wishes on her retirement after 34 years of dedicated public service to the Sanford community as Deputy Town Clerk and Tax Collector; (SLS 692)