REVEREND DAVID RINAS: Let us pray. Lord our heavenly father I give you thanks for the men and women who are gathered here today with a sacred trust. These are difficult times Lord. On the one hand we hear that we need to raise taxes and cut spending and cut programs, either one of these Lord are difficult choices, to be called to do both at the same time is especially difficult. I pray Lord that you would encourage these people and give them the strength to do their jobs. They are also called to debate issues of abortion and homosexuality, issues which divide our people, issues which have extreme and heated opinions on both sides. I pray Lord that you give these people gathered here the patience to listen to one another, the wisdom to make prudent choices, and the courage to stand on their convictions. We pray Lord for strength and above all for your guidance. In your holy and precious name. Amen.

He had served for fifty-five years as an attorney-at-law. I have worked with him all of the twenty-five to thirty years that I have lived in the Augusta area. He was a well respected, completely involved community participant, was a member of the Kiwanis Club for more than five decades. Every time we had a community activity George was there and I could not let this moment go by without calling the attention of this body to it and saying a quiet prayer in his regard. Thank you.
