Senator PEARSON of Penobscot was granted unanimous consent to address the Senate on the Record.

Senator PEARSON: Mr. President, men and women of the Senate. One of the loveliest ladies that I know, and a person whom I have come to think a great deal about is retiring today after twenty five years of working for the State of Maine. She is sitting in the back near the door, her name is, as everyone knows, Roseanne Ayotte. She is from Aroostook County, in the little town of Lille which is right beside Van Buren but has spent the bulk of her working life here in Augusta, working here in the capitol building. Senator Foster and I could both tell you that every once in a while, not very often but a couple of times, she has appeared before our Committee, the Appropriations Committee, and we all trembled when she walked through the door. She is a wonderful person. She has cared for this building like it was her own personal home. She has cared for the people who have worked for her like they were members of her own personal family. She has given twenty five years of service to this State.

She tells me that her plans in the future are to do a little bit of travelling but mostly she would like to volunteer to do work with the elderly in nursing homes. Mr. President, I am so very proud that we have had someone of her quality working for us and somebody who has befriended every one of us. Thank you.
