HOUSE AND SENATE LEGISLATIVE SENTIMENTS

STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTEENTH LEGISLATURE
FOURTH CONFIRMATION SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In House Chamber
Monday
November 14, 1994

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 5, Part 1, Section 8 of the Constitution and the laws of the State of Maine, the Senate will convene at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

Senate called to Order by the President, Dennis L. Dutremble of York.

Prayer by Reverend Calvin Dame of the All Souls Unitarian Church in Augusta.

REVEREND CALVIN DAME: Let us pray. Spirit of life and love, known to all men and women in every age, called by a thousand names and known by no name at all, be present with us this day. We give thanks this day for the gift of life which is ours, life which is a gift we did not earn and cannot earn, a gift no money can buy, a gift and a mystery which stands always just beyond our understanding. We pray this day that we may learn to cultivate virtue and strive always to let go of that which does not become us. May we cultivate patience and understanding, may we cultivate compassion, may we cultivate forbearance and the many manifestations of love. May we let go of pride and see in ourselves our strengths and our shortcomings. May we let go of envy and learn to live with joy with the life that we have and not waste our time desiring what we do not possess. Let us let go of the anger which divides and weakens us, though not of that righteous indignation which calls out at injustice and which builds us toward what is fair and good. Finally, let us let go of the narrow and restricted view of the world which limits us, stifles all endeavors, and step forward to that broader, wider, more encompassing vision which knows all humankind as one, which understands that we are all brothers and sisters, that sees beyond the disappointments and discouragements of this moment and charts the long course toward that commonwealth where justice, equity and compassion will be the order of the day. May we have the strength and the courage this day and in all our days to come to work to build that commonwealth. Amen.

Rep. 7 Rep. Ruhlin of Brewer, Rep. St. Onge of Greene, Rep. Clement of Clinton, Rep. Aikman of Poland, Rep. Carr of Sanford, Rep. Libby of Buxton, Rep. Lindahl of Northport

The Secretary has so informed the Speaker of the House.

Subsequently, the Senator from Cumberland, Senator ESTY reported that he had delivered the message with which he was charged.

Senator CAREY of Kennebec was granted unanimous consent to address the Senate on the Record.

Senator CAREY: Thank you Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. As many of you know, after each and every vote the President has had to say "with no one being excused". I would like to have the Record reflect that Senator Marden, of Kennebec, is confined to a hospital in Boston and could not make it. I do want the Record to reflect that while he may not have been excused there is no way he could have been here. Thank you.

On motion by Senator BEGLEY of Lincoln at 4:42 p.m. on Monday, November 14, 1994, the Honorable DENNIS L. DUTREMBLE, President of the Senate, declared the Fourth Confirmation Session of the 116th Legislature, ADJOURNED SINE DIE.

Off Record Remarks

Senator CAHILL of Sagadahoc was granted unanimous consent to address the Senate off the Record.

Off Record Remarks

Senator SUMMERS of Cumberland was granted unanimous consent to address the Senate off the Record.

ORDERS

On motion by Senator ESTY of Cumberland, the following Senate Order:

ORDERED, that a message be sent to Governor John R. McKernan, Jr., informing him that the Senate has transacted all the business which has come before it and is ready to Adjourn Without Day.

Which was READ and PASSED.

The President appointed the Senator from Cumberland, Senator ESTY to deliver the message to the Governor.
