STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIRST LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Wednesday
April 2, 2003

Senate called to order by President Beverly C. Daggett of Kennebec County.

Prayer by Reverend Gerald Gabriele, Retired, of Camden.

REVEREND GABRIELE: I've never prayed to a gavel like that before. What we are doing is something that has very deep roots in the history of our great country. I would like to read a statement made by Benjamin Franklin when they were convening the Constitutional Convention in 1787. This was given to me by Dan Ziegler, who is a teacher in our adult Sunday school class at Chestnut Street Baptist Church in Camden. Mr. Franklin says this, 'in the beginning of the contest with Britain, when we were sensible of danger, we had daily prayers in this room for the divine protection. Our prayers, sir, were heard and they were graciously answered. All of us who were engaged in the struggle must have observed frequent instances of a superintending Providence in our favor. To that kind Providence, we owe this happy opportunity of consulting in peace on the means of establishing our future nation facility. Have we now forgotten this powerful Friend or do we imagine that we no longer need His assistance? I have lived a long time and the longer I live the more convincing proof I see of this truth that God governs in the affairs of men. If a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without His notice, is it possible that an empire can rise without His aid? We have been assured, sir, in the sacred writings, that 'except the Lord build a house, they labor in vein those that built it.'

I firmly believe this and I also believe that without His concurring aid, we shall proceed in this political building no better than the builders of Babel. We shall be divided by our little, partial, and local interests; our prospects will be confounded; and we, ourselves, shall become a reproach and a by-word down to future ages. What is worse? Mankind may hereafter, from this unfortunate incidence, despair of establishing government by human wisdom and leave it to chance or conquest. I, therefore, beg leave to move that henceforth prayers imploring the assistance of heaven and its blessings on our deliberations be held in this assembly every morning before we proceed to business and that one or more of the clergy of this city be requested to officiate in that service.' It is in that great tradition that we pray.

Our Father, thank You for those who, in years passed, founded this great country on You and Your word. Thank You for our Governor and these law makers, who endeavor to continue that noble form of government. I thank You for the men and women of our armed forces who are willing to sacrifice their lives to preserve that government and spread it to other nations. We pray for them. Give them courage, wisdom, truth, hope, strength, and bless our state and our country. In Thy holy name we pray. Amen.

Doctor of the day, Steven Weisberger, D.O. of Jonesport.

Reading of the Journal of Tuesday, April 1, 2003.

Joint Resolution

The following Joint Resolution:

H.P. 1108

JOINT RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING DOROTHEA LYNDE DIX, PIONEER AND ADVOCATE FOR PERSONS WITH MENTAL ILLNESS, ON THE OCCASION OF THE 201ST ANNIVERSARY OF HER BIRTH IN HAMPDEN, MAINE

WHEREAS, April 4, 2003, is the 201st anniversary of the birth in the Town of Hampden of the first nationwide pioneer and advocate for the just treatment of persons with mental illness; and

WHEREAS, Dorothea Lynde Dix worked tirelessly to ensure that the treatment of people with mental illness was fair and humane; and

WHEREAS, prior to her efforts, people with mental illness were housed in jails and poorhouses where they were chained and beaten, and the prevailing understanding was that their condition meant they could not feel pain; and

WHEREAS, Dorothea Dix concluded that many of the women in her Sunday school class in the East Cambridge Jail in Cambridge, Massachusetts were guilty only of mental illness and pleaded their case before a court of law; and

WHEREAS, although the court rejected her argument, the living conditions improved for the inmates; and

WHEREAS, Dorothea Dix undertook an exhaustive survey of the conditions for the mentally ill in jails and prisons and addressed major legislative bodies regarding the inhumane treatment of persons with mental illness; and

WHEREAS, Dorothea Dix almost single-handedly changed public policy about the treatment of people with mental illness in this country and Europe; and

WHEREAS, her efforts resulted in the construction of the first asylum for the mentally ill and in the founding of 32 mental hospitals, removing people with mental illness from jails and prisons and providing them with care and treatment; and

WHEREAS, Dorothea Dix was also instrumental in establishing libraries in prisons, mental hospitals and other institutions; and

WHEREAS, 201 years after Dorothea Dix's birthday the struggle to end discrimination against persons with mental illness has achieved another milestone in the State with the passage of a comprehensive mental health parity bill intended to improve access to mental health services for many children and families of this State; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That We, the Members of the One Hundred and Twenty-first Legislature, now assembled in the First Regular Session, on behalf of the people of the State of Maine declare April 4, 2003 as Dorothea Lynde Dix Day in the State of Maine; and be it further

RESOLVED: That suitable copies of this resolution, duly authenticated by the Secretary of State, be transmitted to Governor John Elias Baldacci and the Department of Behavioral and Developmental Services.

Comes from the House, READ and ADOPTED.
